Journalist Under Fire

Kelly Davis, one of the Founders of CityBeat and perhaps the leading news reporter on the San Diego homeless issue in all of history, is being harassed by San Diego County using the legal system. Over the years, she reported, among many other things, the mysterious deaths which happened repeatedly in the County Jail, and the fact that we had the number one jail in the nation in deaths, of the 1600 counties in the United States. She also covered the mysterious deaths of both media informants and undercover Journalists, plus the cover-up resulting.

These deaths mostly happened during the tenure of District Attorney Paul Pfingst, who chose Bonnie DuManis as his successor, somewhat reducing the phenomenon. DuManis chose Summer Stephan as her successor, subject to the approval of voters later this year. Part of our "Good Old Boys" system (see next article.)

Going after Davis, a Journalist, smacks of violation of our Free Press laws, and those plus Freedom of Religion laws were what we fought the Revolutionary War with Great Britain about. Britain's Bar controls both there. For more on the Bar and how it threatens the peace and safety of the U.S., see the last section (Credits) of this publication.

Good Old Boys' Conflicts of Interest

There has always been a Conflict of Interests having our local politicians write our real estate rules, because all of their retirement money is based upon real estate holdings owned by the Democratic and Republican political parties. Ditto for the City Employee Union and Pension Funds. Politicians may need to dip into this money as soon as they fail to be re-elected, or seek a different elected office unsuccessfully. There is an incentive to hire former politicians as well as former city employees at other jobs to avoid depleting these funds.

Pension under-funding during the reign of Mayor Susan Golding resulted in a major scandal. New Mayor Jerry Sanders, our former Police Chief, had such an economic problem that he needed to call in the Los Angeles Mafia "real estate boys" to resolve it. At issue? Greatly and rapidly increase the value of real estate, especially downtown which had its real estate scarified by building Petco Park. Over 4 thousand low-income rentals were torn down, resulting in between 4 and 5 thousand homeless.

Real estate values took off, resulting in new billionaires, added prosperity for those owning real estate, and a shoring-up of the City Pension Fund, as well as the Democratic and Republican Party pension funds. The only problem was a severe housing shortage, and the homeless which resulted. Less than 1/10 of 1% of the massive real estate profits were used to help the homeless in any way. In addition, San Diego and all San Diegans suffered from having so many homeless in our area, becoming America's Homeless City.

News Media News:

Where do I begin? So much needs to be written about that I lack the time and resources to cover it all. To start with, the San Diego Reader had a Jay Allen Sanford cartoon demeaning of the homeless. I think the San Diego homeless are pretty heroic, only increasing in number by 9,000 or so in the face of the 19,500 low-income rentals torn down the past 15 years and replaced with only 3 to 6 thousand new units, depending upon whether or not you count beds at an institution to be "housing".

We had no media coverage of the latest Cash Cow scam, the new 20th and Commercial St. homeless storage center, which I address at the end of this article. We had Lori Zapf suggesting the jailing of more homeless. Why not instead blame those responsible for the homeless problem, such as herself, the rest of the City Council, and the Mayor? No media mentioned the changes in how we were to get a new Police Chief, either. We were supposed to be able to ask questions of the 3 candidates, but that got cancelled, and instead the Mayor made the decision to hire the Assistant Chief in charge of HOT, who jailed so many homeless in Ocean Beach. Are we getting back to the Gestapo Era (Chiefs Sanders and Lansdowne)? My police contact was fired for being too honest, years ago.

We now have a Union at the LA Times, but also a report that they and the SD Union-Tribune have both been sold. Reminds me of Texas Rent-A-Bank where near-bankrupt banks were bought, sold, and traded daily. The future? Yahoo is now in India, so my bet is that our newspapers will be brought in from printing shops in Bangladesh. Enough sarcastic reality.

It bothers me that we are seeing stereotypes about the homeless re-surface, about alcohol, drugs, and mental illness. In 1960, if you were homeless, that was your fault. In 1985, not your fault. A recent letter in San Diego CityBeat (999 Beautiful Tiles) by a retired Navy Commander suggests that many homeless want to be homeless. Not true. It's just that the alternatives to that are often much worse, in our obviously uncaring society. He references Operation Stand Down, but that is merely a cover-up of how badly our homeless veterans are treated. If the US cared about its veterans, they would get housing instead of medals, parades, and brass marching bands. Homeless veterans quite rightly refuse to participate in programs designed to make them obedient vegetables. Outreach is a group of programs that are a form of harassment, and nothing more. Booze and dope are used to help deal with being kicked in the head periodically, bitten and pissed on by dogs, insulted hundreds of times a day, that sort of thing. Continuous sweeps, Jesus-lies, abusive Human Spirituality (blood and semen added to the free food), not being able to take a shower nor use a toilet, tickets, arrests, and way more. The beginnings of a real solution might be to jail those who caused the homeless problem, our present and past elected officials.

And, to the News Media: You would never print or broadcast stereotypes of the Blacks or Jews, so why are the Ocean Beach homeless being referred to as "Perps" by Julie Stalmer in the San Diego Reader (Feb. 8, "Neighborhoods Join Hands") Homeless are trying to survive disenfranchisement, and those who are the most fed-up usually move to Pacific Beach or Ocean Beach, angry. They are homeless because of the tearing down of 19,500 low-rent housing units, and this has eventually caused them to be drug addicts, alcoholics, and mentally ill. So, whose fault is that? Rents now cost more than full-time wages pay, so "Getting a Job" is not any solution. Get real. Reject the propaganda called Press Releases, and instead use your brain.

SOLUTIONS?

How about a grant to pay for the free distribution of this newspaper to San Diego's homeless (or at least to those of them which can be found), who can then read it, and sell it to tourists for a donation? Any of you philanthropists want to embark on a real solution instead of dozens of fake ones?

Jobs? Not a solution because rents cost more than wages pay. Homeless are not cooperating? Cooperating with what? All shelters have been full for months, except those beds which are required by contract to be kept vacant. 90% of our homeless have no place you could put them, so why should they go thru the process of filling out paperwork to apply for housing that does not exist and never will? Actually, it is the unlucky ones who get "helped" and turned into human vegetables.

SECRETS OF THE NEWS MEDIA

On the Hepatitis A issue, some Journalists found that the virus infected a Pacific Beach cook who swam in the ocean when San Diego sewage was backing up to shore. This cook had bad hygiene habits, infected many tourists, and the City-County Gnostic Group (Cabal and/or Guild) intentionally spread the virus to the homeless, to protect tourism by trying to make it a homeless issue instead. From there, only homeless data, not public data, was used to track the virus. The Hepatitis outbreak was used to vilify the homeless, making them seem like contagious lepers, plus used to force them all out of downtown and into hiding. The Journalists were not able to publish this without admitting the Government Gnostic Group exists, which is, of course, forbidden in the media. It's that old "Conspiracy Theory" thing.

The following three items are the ONLY things proposed so far that would actually improve the numbers of homeless in San Diego:

The Community Land Trust has received a number of vacant lots from the City, and will be converting them to housing for the poor, at a cost of $212,000 per house. Source: San Diego Union-Tribune. Currently, taxpayers spend over $300,000 per homeless person housed. This is intended to help first-time home buyers, but would also free-up inexpensive housing when they move into their new homes. Good plan.

Amikas has a display of Tiny Homes, per Gary Warth in the San Diego Union-Tribune, Feb. 12, "Nonprofit provides cabins for homeless on temporary basis". This is pivotal, because this system of dealing with the homeless has been a big success all over the country. Robert Bird of Amikas currently has a display of interest in North Park, complying with State Assembly Bill AB-932, at 3725 30th St., about 2 blocks south of University Ave. www.Amikas.Org.

A bond measure for the voters has been proposed which would create 7.5 thousand new housing units and pay for same via an average $72 per year increase in property taxes. San Diego U-T, Feb. 9. We support this, but the cost of dealing with the homeless crisis should be on the shoulders of real estate developers, not everyone who owns real estate in San Diego. You could argue, however, that everyone got their real estate increased in value because of what those developers did.

End of Real Solutions.

On the New Storage Area for homeless possessions, currently Think Dignity operates a storage facility in East Village, with 400 bins plus a long waiting list of 150 to 450 persons at all times. The City will be installing a new storage facility at 20th and Commercial, that will have a thousand storage spaces, moving sidewalks, be open 7 AM to 7 PM plus on weekends, and bids are being solicited from both For-Profit and Nonprofit corporations. Unfortunately, the City is giving bidders only 4 days to file what must be something like 600 pages of proposal paperwork. So, somebody who will be the winner of the process must have helped the City come up with the RFP (Request For Proposals) and slanted it so they win it. Lack of transparency and a rigged bid process, two benchmarks of the Cash Cow system of dealing with homelessness. Good lead-in to the next editorial.

The Cash-Cow Scam of Homelessness

From the beginning, homelessness has all been about Gentrification, making downtown real estate scarce to decrease the supply available, making real estate billionaires, and, well, who cares if 35% of all San Diegans are having an impossible time paying their rent? Quite probably each family will become homeless at some time or other when somebody loses their job (as a Journalist?) or gets sick, handicapped, etc. If past and future homeless count as part of my "Homeless Rotation", then do we really have a million homeless?

The PITC (Point-In-Time Count) in Jan. 2018 was said to measure 30% fewer homeless than in 2017. If you look at our archives, I predicted that. Less than 50% of our homeless have ever been found in the past, and now less than 25% are being found. Still, it is a benchmark that HUD needs to determine how well-hidden the homeless are in each city. As an actual count, however, even HUD admits it is a failure. Let us now dispel some of the lies and myths about homelessness by printing the truth:

First, no one wants to be homeless. Usually the alternatives to that are even worse. Alternatives like becoming a Jesus-slave at the San Diego Rescue Mission or the Salvation Army. Or checking into a prison for poor people, such as Alpha Square, PATH Connections Housing, or Father Joe's Villages. Suicide, Direct or Indirect, is another alternative, too, and at least 100 San Diego homeless die each year from losing the will to live. The homeless know these things, and you do not. You only know what you were told.

Secondly, all homelessness is caused by real estate greed, and laws which perpetuate same, and no other reason. Once homeless, being often kicked in the head, insulted hundreds of times a day, harassed by Outreach 24 hours, deprived of sleep, beaten up by police, and much more, homeless cope using drugs and alcohol, often resulting in even greater problems than they already have. This eventually leads to their becoming mentally ill, and then they will be that way forever. Less than one per thousand ever recovers.

Third, none of the things done to "help" the homeless actually help, just make the homeless problem more bearable for society and easier to handle. There is, however, huge money in dealing with these problems, so why establish a For-Profit corporation when you can make $6 million as a nonprofit? The same Real Estate Greed that makes billions while also making people homeless also makes money for those who "help" the situation but do not "solve" the problem. Politicians get huge cash contributions from the for-profit companies that the nonprofits hire to do construction, supply materials, and even supply Public Relations.

Fourth, the news media are in on the Cash Cow System of homelessness, too. They save money on reporters and editors by printing the City propaganda press releases, and/or let the Public Relations folks write their articles, free. All of these things help to conceal the truth. You are supposed to think that the homeless are lazy, dope addicts, or nut-cases, plus that they had some hand in becoming homeless. You're supposed to ignore the 19,500 low-rent housing units torn down by the City.

Fifth, the news media also make money on political elections advertising, of course, one of their most lucrative sidelines. And, they encourage the "Good Old Boys" to become elected or re-elected, the choices of the San Diego – Los Angeles mafia and the broadcast TV stations they control.

Sixth, if the homeless do not have showers and toilets, there will be health problems. The City will not allow either of these downtown, in hopes of pushing the homeless someplace else. Why has there not been a Cholera outbreak? Why was there no Hepatitis A outbreak in Tijuana, which has much more lax health standards than San Diego? Third-World Police-States like San Diego usually get a boatload more health problems than we've had. The lack of toilets causes the need to use sidewalks, planters, hedges, etc., and the need to excrete wastes is no fault of the homeless. This is not a "crime" because the City removed at least 34 downtown public toilets over the past 15 years, plus got rid of many trash receptacles and all downtown showers. Both the human wastes and the litter are entirely the doing of the City. Jail the perps? You mean the Mayor and Council? It was their real estate laws that caused so many homeless, after all, plus they consistently made the problem worse, outlawing the overnight parking of RV's for example. Jail the homeless? The costs of doing that are so staggering that taxes would have to be greatly increased. Is that what you want? Building housing would cost a tenth as much as jailing the homeless.

Seventh, the City is lucky the homeless have been cooperative so far, allowing themselves to be shepherded into East Village, and obeying as many laws as the City makes it possible to obey. The original plan, "Plan A", called for bringing one million homeless to San Diego, and registering them to vote. I shot down that plan with a veto on the Homeless Board, now called the Homeless Editorial Board, because I did not want to be blamed for what would result. Would San Diego be worth living in, if it had a million homeless? Is San Diego worth living in now, with the number of homeless it has? Homeless avoid coming to San Diego because of the low wages, high prices, high rents, police Repression, and massive corruption in government. It is also a very selfish city, where most people don't give a damn about anybody else. So, ship our homeless back home, to Chula Vista and Escondido? Above all the paid-for tourism hype, used to sell real estate, San Diego is one godawful place to live, and needs to spend billions on advertising to sucker people into moving here. The weather is nice, however, nice enough to live on the sidewalk. Pity the poor fools who pay money to live here. Be proud to be rent-free. Make a difference. Oppose Nazi Repression. If you don't, who will?

Feedback:

I was asked about the facts on the fixing of local elections. Much of this was published by Ray Lutz on the Facebook page "Election Scams Clearinghouse", where the national races have all been found fraudulent when closely examined, and everyone involved refuses to allow the ballots (or even photos of the ballots) to be accessed. It took 5 years to prove that Al Gore beat George W. Bush in 2000, and time has always been the big problem with elections fixing and straightening everything out.

All of the facts concerning elections fixing in San Diego come from sources that refuse to be quoted, refuse to testify, and even from the secret Gnostic groups which control society. However, a close look at previous issues of this newspaper will reveal dozens of other things that JDLR (Just Don't Look Right). Lawsuits are pending, but the tack has been to delay legal action until the candidate that cheated is no longer in office.

A bigger and better question is this: How do we keep our elections from being rigged? There is a bill in the State Legislature, sponsored by Dean Logan and Rep. Quirk, AB-2125, which would shut down election scam counts and hacking. This would also restore confidence in the electoral process.

Other News:

The February meeting of RTFH, the Regional Task Force on the Homeless, has been cancelled.

MTS divided bus route 11 into "White 11" and "Black and Hispanic 11", now called Route 12. They also took out a mile or so of the middle of the route, ceasing very important service on Market St. from First Avenue to 12th (Park). This also makes the routes not connect at all. Reminds me of the Racism involved in the La Jolla "Circulator Routes" that go around and around in wealthy neighborhoods instead of going in a straight line from Point A to Point B. You already know that bus stops near dollar-stores were removed or relocated, right? This requires senior citizens on crutches to walk a much longer distance.

Toni Atkins, who pioneered the original real estate development plans that led to San Diego having so many homeless, was elected President of the California State Senate. Her forte in public office has been getting around the campaign finance laws to amass fortunes from rich corporations seeking special favors or legislation and willing to pay big cash for same.

Kris Michell, who was a top aide to Mayor Jerry Sanders and helped to enforce his reign of terror on the homeless, was promoted from being chief of Clean and Safe to now COO of the City of San Diego. It makes her, essentially, the City Manager, and the Mayor's proxy.

Meetings:

Think Dignity had its usual monthly meeting on the First Thursday of the month, Feb. 1, with 12 persons present, about 20% above average for this time of year. This group, at www.ThinkDignity.Org, tries to help both the homeless and society in general by advocating for solutions and/or partial solutions. Their showing of "Tony The Movie" about one man's struggle with San Diego homelessness had an excellent turnout. MTS is rejecting Proof-of-Disability for many disabled folks, causing a problem. It has already been pointed out the NCTD in North County is a little more fair. Now that Georgette Gomez is Chief of MTS, perhaps things will change. Think Dignity intends to operate a help program for the homeless to obtain bus and trolley passes. It currently operates showers, but to use them someone has to leave downtown with all their possessions, which is not a viable option. They intend to bid on becoming a Subcontractor for the new Homeless Storage Center on 20th and Commercial. The old "Skydiving" enterprise at 13th and Commercial will now be operated as a homeless center. Think Dignity is advocating for those in Outreach to have Crisis Management training mandatory.

We represent the world's fastest-growing ethnic group, the homeless, the only group that gets NO protection from discrimination in employment, housing, education, nor hate-crimes. We are those who suffer because the wealthy own everything. No one WANTS to be homeless nor CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will. Once homeless, people will need to use booze or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. Self-Servatives (Con-Servatives, Con Artists that Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

These are the same people who invented God, so they could control you and make money off you. They fill your head with propaganda from the day you are born. The Bar (Democrats and Republicans of the British and Italian Mafias and the Jewish Cabals) licenses attorneys and runs the court system, religious system, and news media. Welcome to Reality! They make money by expanding the population, with major holdings in both real estate and food production. They hate population reduction, and have forced women to have babies, even though herbs for both birth control and pregnancy termination have been available for thousands of years. That is also why they hate same-sex marriage, as it does not automatically produce biological children, and why they hate suicide and birth control, both of which reduce population. They also hate war, unless they can make money on it. "They" is the Middle Templar Bar of London.
