RESOLVING THE ECONOMIC CIVIL WAR AGAINST THE POOR

State Legislature proves the homeless problem is just another Cash Cow. All new plans combined would only house a small % of homeless. America's Fine-ing-est City.

Format: Editorials on pressing issues or big problems, Other editorials stressing solutions, Help and ideas for dealing with the homeless situation (both for the homeless and the public), Important meetings, News often censored out of the media, News Media News, and interesting political impact, maybe a cartoon, and ending with Snide Comments. Contributors usually demand anonymity, to avoid being targeted for loss of their job and/or housing. This is done by re-writing stories to conceal the identity of the author, per their request. In This Issue: (1) Cash Cow Mentality, Results of this scam • (2) Feedback, News • (3) Election Scams, Meetings, Education, Snide Comments •

State Proves Homeless Issues a Cash Cow Scam – Real Solution Rejected, in favor of a more-expensive temporary fix

Assembly Bill 932 charges taxpayers billions of dollars to continue the present Cash Cow political system surrounding homeless issues, without doing anything significant to improve it. It provides massive tax money for construction firms, materials suppliers, labor union dues, attorneys, bank financing, architects, housing factories, engineers, tradespersons, public relations agents, the news media*, and political re-election funds, all a staple of the Cash Cow political system regarding the homeless of California. (* Campaign ads)

Why solve the homeless problem entirely with one-tenth the money when we can get political cash contribution money flowing? The "Bridge Housing" solution of "Tiny Homes" SOLVES the homeless problem at a reasonable cost, but will not be considered because it kills the huge Cash Cow we have now.

It provides immediate shelter to the homeless, which avoids the costly mental illness, alcoholism, and drug addiction problems which result from becoming homeless. And, it costs about a thousand dollars per person for a permanent solution, instead of our current spending of $300,000 to $600,000 per homeless person housed. With no annual recurring costs of dealing with drug addiction, alcoholism and mental illness, it is a clear better choice. Part of the current Cash Cow is to provide jobs for caseworkers, substance-abuse counselors, psychiatrists, psychologists, and other professionals.

In Tiny Homes, each homeless person gets a garden shed with a skylight but no windows, and a secure lock, to keep their possessions in, instead of having same all over the streets. And they can sleep there, too. You want the lucrative furniture contract, providing beds, tables, and chairs? None. That would be Cash Cow politics. There is no furniture included, just a wood floor instead of a sidewalk, a little bit of privacy, and a shed to protect against sun, rain, wind, and cold.

These sheds would be at the Chargers Practice Field, or the parking lot of the Qualcomm-SDCCU Stadium, each of which have toilets, showers, and trash dumpsters as well as laundry facilities. End of homeless problem except for security and transportation. I have ideas to handle those, too. There is also the issue of San Diego not admitting its (at least!) 11,000 unsheltered homeless, in addition to the 4,000 currently in shelters. At a thousand dollars each, that's $11 million to make the problem go away. Nobody wants that, because there is too much money to be had doing it our present way. Solving the homeless issue kills the Sacred Cow that funds our political campaigns.

Dr. John Kitchin, NZ9F, Ph.D., Publisher. To respond, write to nz9f@hotmail.com.

30-year Scam Exposed: Homelessness is a Political Tool and Nothing More!

The only other scam that had me fooled that long was about Human Spirituality, but being born in the 1950's goes along well with that. The homeless Cash Cow scam began long ago with City handling of real estate, and it goes like this: A maximum amount of money can be had locally by ignoring the homeless problem until they become alcoholics, dope addicts, and/or mentally unsound. Direct money into Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) systems like Father Joe's Villages, Veterans' Village, PATH Connections Housing, Salvation Army, Alpha Project, and similar. This causes the largest grants from HUD, which pays for case managers, psychiatrists, and many other professionals. San Diego gets from $78-$82 million a year on this social services scam, ruining the lives of many poor folks in the process.

All else costs too much? Nope. We need immediate housing for all those becoming homeless, but this is not costly at all. Developers of Low-Cost Housing make money on same, and taxpayers need not supply any tax money at all. All of their plans have been rejected for so many years, that none of them will do business in San Diego anymore. Karma?

Up until now, my view of the homeless issue had to do with the 4,000 low-cost hotel rental units torn down to build Petco Park, and how the City drained the swamp but ended up inundated with homeless alligators (people). Nope. It was all planned by Brian Maienschein, Todd Gloria, Kevin Faulconer, Tony Atkins and her wife Jennifer LeSar, and way more folks in the real estate planning business.

Now the same group wants to tackle the homeless problem using the same tactics of massive construction. All of the current homeless plans combined would house less than 10% of the homeless, total. So, it's all a scam to show that tons of great stuff and zillions of dollars are being spent, without actually really doing anything significant. It's the same crap with the deck reshuffled.

Are the politicians sincere? Not a chance in the world. Does Chris Ward want to end homelessness? It does not look that way, because he voted against Barbara Bry's proposal to limit the conversion of housing into vacation rentals and time-shares. It was brilliant of him to propose lots of homeless abatement measures, though. Brilliant politics, but not sincerity. He has spoken of the Mayor's "great plans" and the excellent work of his predecessor, Todd Gloria. Both of them outrageous Gentrifiers and Classists, too. Most of the public is still scammed by all this trash.

The homeless situation spends huge money in ineffective ways, making sure it goes to specific construction firms, nonprofits, and other companies, in return for huge campaign contribution kickbacks. Even the news media are involved, because they get to sell political message advertising with a lot of that campaign money. There are many other scams, but the homeless issue is the biggest Cash Cow of all.

Resulting Action: Limitation of coverage of the political meetings dealing with the Homeless-Scam issue, as those meetings are neither sincere nor are they effective nor relevant to reality. Just part of the big Cash Cow, mooing and stinking in the wind. Litigation helps some, but how does David take on Goliath? What does your (feeding, showers, legal, help, outreach, medical, etc.) program have to do with housing? It all just helps perpetuate the scam!

Housing? Yes, but only housing litigation and housing legislation. From there, emphasis on incomes, and Spirituality. Nothing else important. And, yes, the feeding programs are part of the problem because the abuse of Spirituality causes the degeneration of good people into alcoholics, dope addicts, and nut-cases. Are you solving the problem or creating it, with the insertion of your DNA (usually blood) into the food of those you would hypnotize?

-----The Nov. 13 edition in its entirety-----

Publisher Poisoned Intentionally in Local Restaurant

John Kitchin, Publisher of this newspaper, was poisoned by the manager of a McDonald's restaurant, San Ysidro Blvd. at the Trolley, using an insecticide in a cup of coffee, Wednesday, Oct. 25.

Unsure of whether or not I could write this story, I spent over a week unable to do so. Sorry to become incapacitated at a time when I am needed most. Intentional poisonings do happen in the news media, and particularly at the editorial level. I have not trusted the food at the San Ysidro Trolley McDonald's for years, but what can go wrong with coffee? I had coffee there every day for a long time. On Wednesday, Oct. 25, I attended the MAPSS (Metropolitan Association of Providers of Social Services) meeting, then bought some food for my Tijuana mission, and got a coffee at McDonald's, per usual. The manager handed me my coffee, I drank some, decided it was all wrong, and the employees there started to laugh.

This was not only intentional, but a conspiracy, and an intentional attempt to silence a member of the press. I have been poisoned in a restaurant in the past, 22 years ago in the Atlanta airport, so I knew what to do. That, too, was related to my published material, probably my humor. I will be speaking to a group of attorneys today (Nov. 2) about what can be done. If I told you about the whole list of "coincidences" that have happened the past 3 months, you'd not believe a word of it, but I've dealt with these things before. 50 years as an Editor. I try to avoid becoming the news. Rough time, because my commentary (and even guidance) is critical at this time. I am 75% functional presently, using Psychiatric drugs NOT prescribed and much Spirituality.

A friend said that it is not safe to eat in most restaurants at this time, but probably more dangerous for me than you. I prefer buffets for reasons like this. I am writing an editorial on something like the sacrifices Journalists make for their work. At least I wasn't slammed into County Jail and murdered making it look like a suicide.

My related editorial, "Taking Hits For Journalism" is so far tabled, and edited out of this edition. Too much "me".

Feedback:

The Homeless (Editorial) Board was asked why there are no "Umbrella Agencies" dealing with the homeless problem. Well, there are, at least sort of, such as the RTFH, Regional Task Force on the Homeless, but they really don't count, because they are the reincarnation of the Mayor's Task Force on the Homeless, designed to bring money into San Diego. There are two or more groups called "San Diego Coalition for the Homeless" or "San Diego Homeless Coalition", but neither is a coalition OF Homeless PEOPLE.

Daniel Beeman wrote about this: NOTE: Beeman was on the North Park Planning Board, and was also Treasurer of "Stop C", the plan to stop a new Chargers stadium (he won that one). He was also on the North Park Landscaping, Lighting, and Maintenance District Board, and got new solar street lights installed that are still used today. He has also been a Contributing Writer to the San Diego Homeless News, as well as the Homeless-Owned Website.

Daniel Beeman writes: "November is supposed to be national youth homelessness awareness month and hunger week. I'd like to see what things we can bring together during this month. Much of the coalition might need to be in stealth fashion as we are regularly cut off at the pass if it is not what the establishment wants or is looking for. Sadly, it looks like even with dozens dead, many hundreds in the hospital and even more sickened, they are still dividing and conquering while shipping people out of downtown, out of region/state if possible, rather than dealing with the real long term problem, lack of affordable available permanent housing.

It has not gotten better in the last 3 decades...Millions and Millions, now nearing Billions are spent in the region to deal with the problems (that) lack of affordable housing and living wage incomes cause. When a worker no longer has a home to live in then that worker will not be able to have income or even be productive in society. And going to school/college/training can last only so long...without meaningfully advancing work, (so) more & more will be on the street and/or forced to leave the region. Maybe this is their hope. But incomes & spending bring tax dollars...Thanks for all you do, and keep connecting the dots!"

I continually see the "talking heads" speak, use OUR Tax Dollars, say this and that, push a few things around (like a deck chair on the Titanic), yet never seem to include the really struggling homeless and poor. They have the same rights, if not more due to circumstances, than those that are privileged do. How can we get these people included? Why are they only getting token seats at the table(s) to solve the problem? How do we get them encouraged to speak up, help out, and join-in? How do we get the people to stay? Yesterday the North Park theatre was packed! Then after the movie, ("Tony The Movie", about homelessness in San Diego) when it began to become a dialog, half the crowd left. Then the back lot had a good amount of people, and the tent about 1/5th of the crowd. And how many of those will we see again? How do we connect that dots...IT IS YOUR Tax dollars, YOUR resources wasted rather than really fixing the problems...and with it GROWING, it CAN get worse not just better! Look at Tony's story, 2+ years trying very hard, working, struggling to "get by, not high", to survive in San Diego. Regularly asking: Do I matter? Can I matter? Will I matter? I want to, and should be able to, but will I be able to? Yet I am still un-housed, and even more importantly, un-homed. All in "Americas Finest City", which for nearly a decade I've called Americas FINE-ING-EST City, because fines, fees, laws, rules and abuses have been more the norm than the true community I used to see in the 80's, 90's and into the 2000's. Do you think we can move the tide? Do you believe a San Diego Homeless Coalition could help? I think we need to really connect the dots. Let's keep us all connected...and not just facebook and twitter, but a few emails explaining the situations, actions, needs, desires, wants; rather than just letting the media tell our story; too little, too late, without much of our input. Thank you for ALL you do! Changes can only be made if you know those who need help, what help they might need, where they might be found, when found, how found, when they could be whole, how they can help, how they have helped, what they want to help! Because no one is an island, and we are all part of the greatest people alive! HUMANS! Okay, please pass this around! Would be nice to have Dennis Stein & Tony Rodriguez & Michael McConnell involved in the Coalition.

Martha Sullivan Replies:

Daniel, I'm a big fan of the "swarm" approach to grassroots organizing. The more organizations the better, doing different actions at different times and places. Periodically coming together, ala the March of Voices last spring, the HEMA Speakout in August, and National Hunger & Homelessness Awareness Week Nov 11-19, for which HEMA is also planning actions. A lot of coalition work happens behind the scenes. I consider this better, because our opposition can't shut us down by targeting one entity. ### Jeenie Criscenzo Responds:

I think Ellis is also doing something like this (I've added him to this email). I am personally pulling back due to health reasons, but Amikas will be in good hands. Please keep your brain on full alert - they are about to pull a fast one using the new bill AB932 to put up manufactured home developments without requirements for zones, codes and liability. They figured out how to make a killing on this and have asked me to forget about the sleeping cabin communities because the politicians can't focus on more than one thing at a time. I am really really tired and overwhelmed by the ruthlessness of a system that is purely profit driven and has created the very problem they pretend to be solving using the same methodology as the cause of the problem.
Jeenie

NOTE: Criscenzo operated the nonprofit Amikas, which provided housing for female veterans, and also ran for Congress against Darryl Issa. Her input is usually the best, most truthful, and most correct. She is considered one of the principal spokespersons for the homeless of San Diego.

Beeman also addressed concerns or questions by Lisa Halverstadt, regarding his qualifications. He has been a homeless advocate longer than I have, and served on the North Park LLMD (Landscape, Lighting, and Maintenance District) before there were MADs (Maintenance Assessment Districts) in San Diego. He speaks of the abuses where lands were taken by the City, sold at discount rates to the friends and families of the Mayor and Council, and then huge amounts of State Redevelopment money was added to sweeten the pot. What was built? Housing for very wealthy people. He also gives the history of the Cortez Hotel, and writes of ethics gone wrong in San Diego. He knew all of the folks involved in development and the creation of our present homeless crisis, since the 1980's. He does need considerable editing, but still volunteers. The editorial comment from John Kitchin, who prepared this column, is that Daniel Beeman does have a lot of experience regarding the housing and homelessness situation, and should therefore be in on whatever happens.

My response:

Many are too young to remember when San Diego was America's Finest City, instead of the rotten SLUM-HOLE it is today. Shit-City has seen much better days. We don't listen to those who know, instead calling in brand-new people from outside, who have never lived in San Diego, and we fill their heads with the bullshit we want them to preach. When they start to "know too much", we bring in somebody else, and teach them the propaganda. The news media get rid of those who know too much, too, and help to maintain our fake history. How's THAT for Reality?! It's Classic Real Truth, the stuff that the press makes sure is kept Top Secret.

Several folks suggested that I go undercover into the new shelter program at 26th and Pershing, but even if I could get in, which I cannot, there is no way to effectively disguise me, so we need to use our other "elves" to do that. I got a good photo in our Oct. 25 edition, though.

News:

This is NOT an editorial: The Gateway Motel at the San Ysidro trolley terminal has been torn down, resulting in as many as 100 homeless, and we only build 300 new low-rent properties per year in San Diego, so that is a major loss. There were plans to double the number of new low-rent housing units to 600, but now those plans cannot occur, because the City has taken $6 million in new housing construction funds to establish 3 new tent shelters and several sleep-in-your-car programs instead. Typically, Civic San Diego (Downtown Partnership - Clean and Safe) tears down 1,000 low-rent housing units per year, replacing them with only 300 new low-rent units, for the past 16 years running. Also, about 4,000 additional units were torn down to build Petco Park, for a total number of low-rent units destroyed of 19,500 and these were replaced with about 3,000 units (some say 4,500 units) of new low-rent housing. The difference in the numbers and perspectives is this: Do shelter institutions count as low-income housing, or are they some sort of institutional housing for drug addicts and the mentally ill? View this situation any way you want.

Any way you slice it, 1,000 units torn down per year, and replaced by only 300 new units per year, for 16 years, equals an increase in homeless (via more shortages of housing) of 700 additional homeless per year. That comes to 11,200 homeless, approximately the same as the 4,000 in shelters, plus 5,000 on the sidewalks, plus 2,600 in jail. Recent increases have been way over the 700 homeless increase that we've seen the past 16 years, however, leading to our present crisis. Keep in mind that all of these numbers are just the "Class One" clearly visible ("Zoo Display") homeless, and not the full number. These are just the ones found by the PITC, the annual Point-In-Time Count mandated by HUD. The rest of San Diego's 35,000 urban homeless have never been counted because they are too well-hidden. About half of them, 17,500, came out of hiding to ask for help, and gave their names, personal data, social security and driver's license information, etc. We also have photographs of these 17,500 people.

New Extortion Grocery Scam in Tijuana:

When you enter the store, the security guard places a damaged item in your cart, and says you damaged it and must pay for it. If you refuse, you get arrested and spend two weeks in jail before getting to see a judge. The economy is so bad that major chain stores are losing money. Other scams include not posting prices, called "Mystery Pricing", and the UPC scanner is marked "Out of Order". If you find a scan error, the store takes an hour or more to both correct it and refund you the overcharge. This is the wave of the future for the United States, of course.

News Media News:

Gary Warth in the Sat. Nov. 4, 2017 edition (Front Page, A-1) of the San Diego Union-Tribune reported that the San Diego Housing Commission will use $6.5 million of its housing construction money to instead fund 3 homeless tent shelters that together will house (my words) 3% to 10% of our unsheltered homeless. • The following day, Sunday, Nov. 5, Warth had an article on the Candlelight Walk, the only funeral for 117 homeless who died this year. Hepatitis A victims are an additional count. This is more than double the dead in 2014. Page B3. It contains a reminder of the San Diego Rescue Mission meals on Nov. 18 for Thanksgiving and on Dec. 16 for Christmas. I have previously warned about eating at those meals.

Jeanette Steele also writes (Local, Page B-1) in the Nov. 4 edition that the old downtown library is to be sold, although we insist it would make a good homeless shelter. The new library cost $185 million, which would be enough money to keep our homeless in jail (like currently) for 75 to 92 days.

Another Town Hall Meeting? How many of them have we had? 200? John Wilkens at the San Diego Union-Tribune covers the UT Downtown Town Hall Meeting, and quotes Alpha Project COO Amy Gonyeau as saying that the free meals are not helping homeless people. There are petitions to ban feeding homeless, and the City of El Cajon has banned same. Wilkens uses the extremely-flawed PITC (Point-In-Time-Count) to specify the number of homeless we have, 9,000, when data also suggests 17,500 specifically-identified individuals asked for help because of their being homeless. In my take on all this, free meals are permitting homeless folks to survive, and that is not in the Adolph Hitler playbook. Wilkens also uses the "Mental Health" and "Substance Abuse" excuses as to why we have so little housing. • In the same issue, Business Section, an article on how Starbucks Coffee produces job training for the homeless, although in more than one article, Starbucks managers intentionally locked homeless people inside their dumpsters when they were scavaging CRV bottles and cans, resulting in successful lawsuits against Starbucks.

Jim Vargas, CEO of Father Joe's Villages, and Treasurer of the RTFH (Regional Task Force on the Homeless) wrote an Op-Ed in the SD Union-Tribune on Sat. Nov. 4, Page B7, mentioning that average rent in San Diego is now just shy of $1,900 per month. He also said that one-third of all San Diegans spend 50% or more of their income on housing. That's one of OUR definitions of being "Homeless".

Good to see an issue of CityBeat (Nov. 1, 2017) dedicated to Kelly Davis. She is now an Independent (as of last check on that) and also writes for Voice of San Diego.

<https://www.voiceofsandiego.org/author/kellydavis/> •

CityBeat had an ad for Clean and Safe, the homeless-causation machine, in its Oct. 25, 2017 issue. Clean and Safe is a part of Civic San Diego and the Downtown Partnership, which tears down an average of 1,000 low-rent units each year the past sixteen years, only to have the Housing Commission replace them with one-third as many units. •

ABC News reports at least ten West Coast cities have declared disasters due to increased homelessness out-of-control. <http://abcnews.go.com/Technology/wireStory/homeless-explosion-west-coast-pushing-cities-brink-50956034> Source: Voice of San Diego Morning Report, Randy Dotinga.

Election Scams, National

https://www.theregister.co.uk/2017/10/26/voting\_server\_georgia\_wiped/ According to the UK Register, a British newspaper, the server which was handling information about elections corruption was wiped clean and entirely erased. "Nothing to see here, comrade, move along."

EDITORIAL: It is now clear that Russia helped the Democratic National Committee block the nomination of Sen. Bernie Sanders, via hacking, and may or may not have contributed to the 4 people involved murdered during the Primary Election season. • And, with the Donald Trump aides indicted it looks clear that hacking was conducted during the regular November election as well. Treason? The Constitution provides for the Death Penalty without a trial. Will that help us get a new Supreme Court Justice, though? It is likely that Presidents are exempt from being charged with serious crimes, or many of them could have been charged with War Crimes.

Election Scams, Local

Regarding the San Diego elections hacking, this is the current lawsuit on that. Looks very clear to me that our elections are 175% totally RIGGED. It appears that the Good Old Boys of San Diego County will continue to run everything for the foreseeable future.

Woodwork Time!

Turkey Day brings out those who suddenly want to help the poor, every year. A reduction in brain Serotonin brought on by less sunlight each day, people actually think about the less fortunate, even though they ignored us the rest of the year. Been thru this 30 years as a homeless advocate, plus it is now my tenth anniversary of being homeless myself. Should I get myself a gift card with a coupon for a free can of tuna? I wrote about it several times, but one year on the sidewalk all I had was one can of tuna for dinner on Thanksgiving. Chicken of the Sea, I dubbed it Turkey of the Sea.

Previous years I had gone to the El Cajon, Chula Vista Salvation Army, Golden Hall, Father Joe's, or the San Diego Rescue Mission, but the food always made me very sick Spiritually, sometimes taking months to recover. Makes me feel sorry for the poor folks who have to eat at such places. They must get to be mindless and brainless. I do feed people in Tijuana, and years ago when I had money, my Nonprofit gave away free turkeys. Nowadays, I can do very little with my tiny Social Security check, but I still help the best I can. Why? Well, the US has lots of places that help, but Tijuana is run by the Republican Party with NO competition from the Democrats, so, largely there is no help. To me, it is like parents watching their kids open Christmas presents that Santa Claus has brought them. Much of my fun has always been vicarious. Proud to be an elf.

Meetings:

Metropolitan Association of Providers of Social Services, MAPSS, met Wed., Oct. 25 at the CARE Community Center, 12 N. Euclid Ave., National City. 26 present, an average showing, with a lot more government-related and church-related persons than in the past. • Announcements:

Homeless Court is now the first two Wednesdays of every month, for Misdemeanors or Infractions (NO Felonies) and is a one-time deal to wipe out tickets. • The San Diego Rescue Mission will have an event for Thanksgiving on Nov. 18 and Christmas Dec. 16 at 120 Elm St. • CARE, this meeting center, is a DA Outreach Center for the Rescue Mission and 15 contractors, an assessment hub. On the First Tuesdays, 1 PM, a Stakeholders meeting is organized. • The Featured Agency, Interfaith Shelter Network, a non-profit that borrows the parish hall of various churches and synagogues to provide overnight housing for homeless families. Joe Zivlinis, COO, made the presentation. The three main services provided are a Rotational Shelter, Transitional Housing, and Rapid Re-Housing (RRH). The Rotational Shelter is nights only, Nov. thru April, using Social Service Agencies to do screening. Contact 211. Lately, the Hep-A problems have lost this group a lot of churches that used to serve as family shelters. The Transitional Housing program has 11 apartments for Domestic Violence victims, providing a year of housing and possibly 2. There are work skills and educational skills also taught. No government funds are used, so clean and sober is required. The Rapid Re-Housing component is subcontracted from the San Diego Housing Commission, and provides 6 months of case management, and pays rent and a security deposit for only a few months. • Next month, Jewish Family Services will be the featured group. • There were no problems discussed in the Problem-Solving Forum. • I mentioned that my "Tijuana Rescue Mission", which has no official name, is the only known service in Tijuana for the LGBT Community, and we are located in their homeland area. We are also sometimes the only shelter for Domestic Violence, too, of all Sexual Preferences. I gave the group a tiny tutorial on Indirect Suicide, which is when a person loses the will to live, and just no longer cares if they seek shelter from the rain, or see a doctor when sick, or get out of the way of a fast-moving truck. Last year there were only 3 Direct Suicides of homeless folks, but there were an estimated 100 Indirect Suicides. • Next meeting is on November 15th at CARE (same place), which unfortunately is the same time as several other important things, and the December meeting is scheduled for Dec. 20, location unknown.

Coalition For Basic Dignity, a service of Think Dignity, met Thurs. Nov. 2, at the Monicker Warehouse, 705 16th St., downtown, with ten present, average for

November. The main items of concern are listed as announcements, above. There is a Class Action lawsuit to overturn the Ordinance prohibiting sleeping in cars, and a protest is planned. There will also be homeless suing the City for stealing their belongings.

Education Dept.:

The RTFH (Regional Task Force on the Homeless) is soliciting volunteers for the Jan. 2018 PITC (Point-In-Time-Count) and will unfortunately probably need ten times the number of volunteers as usual, because of how hidden the homeless are, due to the Diaspora from downtown. No valid count has ever been made, and this year instead of counting perhaps 25% (9,000) of the (35,000) homeless, expect the count to only come up with 20% or less, perhaps 7,000 is my best estimate. For the first time in my 30 years as a Homeless Advocate and 10 years as a homeless person myself, even I can't find them, but they're there, just hidden like their lives depended on it. You are probably fortunate to neither have been a homeless person nor a homeless news editor.

The deficit in count can be compensated for by holding a robust Rural East County count, as there are probably another 35,000 in that section alone. Of course, if we count the "Class 12" homeless as homeless, those who pay 50% of their income in rent, then there are over a million homeless, and some studies would indicate two million of our 3 million population. The Homeless Rotation (Technical Term) is 350,000 homeless, who either A.) Have been homeless recently enough as to still be considered homeless; or B.) Have a 100% chance of becoming homeless in the near future. Of these 350,000, only 10% urban (35,000) and another 10% rural (35,000) are physically on the sidewalks or outdoors at any one given moment.

So, we have 70,000 un-housed, at any one instant, of the 350,000 who qualify by our valid definitions as homeless. Society won't listen to people who know, and in fact continuously bring in new help when those presently working on the homeless problem begin to "know too much". New people are indoctrinated with lies about the past (before they were here) and their heads are filled with City-County propaganda. The media help maintain this fake history, too. Many are too young to remember the 1970's and 1980's when San Diego was America's Finest City, instead of the SLUM-HOLE it is today. This was one HELL of a great town.

I always wanted to know how booze, dope, and mental illness caused our lack of housing (homelessness). Now I know. In City-Speak, Substance Abuse (dope and alcohol) and mental illness cause our lack of housing. That must mean that all those Planning Commission and other politicians are high, right? Are they crazy, too? I get it. You can't fit 35,000 homeless into 3,000 available apartments, so the politicians decide to get high and mentally ill instead of building housing. Then they don't care. If this is the case, then our lack of housing (homeless) problem is caused by substance abuse and mental illness, just like they say. And, after being on the sidewalk long enough, we homeless eventually get to be dopers and crazy too, just like the politicians. This is a political recruitment plan, right? Become homeless, take up booze and dope, lose your mind, and then get elected, right? What a plan for our community!

We represent the world's fastest-growing ethnic group, the homeless, the only group that gets NO protection from discrimination in employment, housing, education, nor hate-crimes. We are those who suffer because the wealthy own everything. No one WANTS to be homeless nor CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will. Once homeless, people will need to use booze or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. Self-Servatives (Con-Servatives, Con Artists that Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

These are the same people who invented God, so they could control you and make money off you. They fill your head with propaganda from the day you are born. The Bar (Democrats and Republicans of the British and Italian Mafias and the Jewish Cabals) licenses attorneys and runs the court system, religious system, and news media. Welcome to Reality! They make money by expanding the population, with major holdings in both real estate and food production. They hate population reduction, and have forced women to have babies, even though herbs for both birth control and pregnancy termination have been available for thousands of years. That is also why they hate same-sex marriage, as it does not automatically produce biological children, and why they hate suicide and birth control, both of which reduce population. They also hate war, unless they can make money on it. "They" is the Middle Templar Bar of London.

The Bar of London is a franchise of the Swiss Nazi Knights Templar, which is descended from the Pharaohs of Ancient Egypt. They operate the World Bank, Freemasons, and Illuminati, as well as the Italian Mafia. Sometimes called the Pharistocracy, or Pharaoh Aristocracy, this group is responsible for there having been kings and queens, as well as the use of hypnosis to control the public via religion. They control the world's food supply, adding drugs to same in order to control and enslave the public. Many of them are not even from this planet.

A "Guild" is a secret conspiracy group that places their blood and semen in the food that everybody eats. In Hoc Signo Vinces, "In this sign you will conquer". Domini Nos Dirige, "Lord (a British Lord, not God) guide us", motto of the City of London, founded 43 AD, and Pagan until 1300 AD. The super-secret Jesuit Knights of Malta are a group that founded the Illuminati of the Rothschild-Rockefeller Family, and part of the New World Order. See the back of a dollar bill. Take some of this with a grain of salt. Below, some of the more modern agencies of these same above groups.
