

San Diego Homeless News

November 3, 2015 • San Diego's Underground Newspaper

Donald Trump, Bernie Sanders, and a critical election for our nation's future (or lack of it). See Editorial. City Hall Concourse had 3 nice picnic tables, now removed. Park grills can be used to cook a TV dinner (see Hints and Kinks). Personal shopping carts can cost as little as $13.

Holiday Woodwork Time: This time of year many folks come out of the woodwork to have feelings for the poor and homeless. Where were you the rest of the year? You do know that this year there are no rubber tents, not even for the veterans, right? You didn't know? Maybe our news media forgot to tell you. Keeping things secret is what they do best.

IN THIS ISSUE:

Editorials: No Adjustment for Inflation? Nonprofits or Direct Help? Page 2: Trump vs. Sanders. MTS should not charge fares. Page 3: Hints & Kinks, Food Stamp Fraud, San Ysidro Problems, Other Ideas, Meetings. Page 4: Alternative History, Bananas Republicans, Financial Advice, Why Me?, Homeless Classifications. 5: Masthead, Snide Comments.

No COLA for Seniors?

Ridiculous! 300% Inflation in 8 years

COLA's (Cost-Of-Living Adjustments) compensate for the effects of higher prices (Inflation) yet fail to account for same by Social Class. We Indigents use only the least-expensive foods, transportation, entertainment, and other goods, yet the threefold increase in same is not resonating with our corrupt governments. 8 years ago the least-expensive knock-off lunchmeat, similar to Spam, was 75 cents. Now it is over two dollars. Other meats did not go up, or may even have gone down, but those were never meats we could afford, anyway. Only the least-expensive ones count in our Market Basket. Eggs? 35 cents a dozen, purchased directly from egg grower stores, most of which are now no longer in business. $3 a dozen is now common. Coffee at a mini-mart? Was 65 cents, now close to $2. Gasoline? Not relevant, as we cannot afford cars. What about Senior medicines not covered by MediCare? What about the cost of MediCare pharmacy coverage? Even the least-expensive chicken (legs and thighs) is up from 20 cents a pound (on sale) to now 70 cents a pound (on sale), and lightbulbs were 4 for a dollar, now 1 or 2 for a dollar, unless covered by some form of utility rebate.

The reason the real Inflation story is not told is that if it was, it would be obvious that investments such as real estate, the stock market, and bonds are actually not profitable, for the most part, because the number of dollars that they are worth increases, but the value of those dollars declines. We are still in the George W. Bush 2006 Second Great Economic Depression, and the only way out of one of those is a World War or a Revolution. Iceland had a revolution and came out of it very well. Bernie Sanders may offer a solution.

My Proposal: $30 an hour Minimum Wage, and all US Citizens are guaranteed at least 10 hours of work per week. Triple-pay ($90 an hour Minimum) for working over 30 hours in one week. This compensates for technology eliminating workers. Since this could fuel Inflation, a COLA (Cost-Of-Living Adjustment) every 12 hours, 7 days a week. There would be corporations getting free employees, of course, and all new costs or taxes would be paid for by those corporations and the super-rich folks who own and/or operate them. Socialism? No, Responsible (Socialistic) Capitalism. All of this avoids Civil War, Revolution, Sabotage, Mutiny, and a whole lot of mess, which is the way the Soviet Union went down, gently.

Nonprofits: Help, or Organized Control?

Many folks have weighed in on direct feeding of the homeless in the media lately, including outreach programs, and more. All of these have value, but are administered by those with an inadequate education in homelessness. This is a problem, and it is just as big as ignoring the intelligent homeless, like myself. I have been certified as 100% sane, with no mental illness, and that could cause a problem with your beliefs. Sorry. All super-intelligent have that mess. Homeless need adequate services, staffed by people who understand what homelessness is, and what can be done about it. Unfortunately, there are currently NO qualified persons to administer this in San Diego.

Governments need to do many things, including street cleaning, feeding orphans, providing medical care for the poor, and much more. Often, some of these government needs are done by Nonprofit Organizations, which are either part of the government (established as a unique entity in legal status only) or independent of the government (rare). Supposedly, those who want to help will either donate money or their time as volunteers. Very few know that their time and money goes to the government. Every dollar you donate is one less tax dollar the nonprofit gets, and every hour you donate is one less hour of work that the government needs to pay for. Plus, of course, both volunteers and nonprofit organization employees are far less expensive than Union government workers. This system in use actually helps to break government unions. In addition, legal liability for injuries is covered by the nonprofit, not the deep pockets of the government. Pretty cute, eh?

Nonprofits are tax shelters formed by wealthy people in order to funnel money to their friends and relatives in the form of salaries. They also presumably accomplish some objective, such as helping poor people, but usually do so in very inefficient and ineffective ways. These are the ways set up by the thinking and beliefs of the super-wealthy folks who control the nonprofits and their funding, and the Bar (Mafia) overseers who want all things done their way.

Creativity in help options is disallowed. I did not know that, and operated a heating and air conditioning business which taught poor folks how to sell, install, telemarket, service, estimate, and maintain heating and air conditioning equipment. Selling is selling, regardless of the product and format used, so many of my employees eventually got great jobs selling insurance or automobiles. The Bar was extremely upset, and it knowingly unjustly convicted me of fraud, and, well, that caused a whole lot which still goes on concerning myself to this day. So, I have been sent to prison and lost a $40 million (arguable) business for running an efficient nonprofit. I did nothing wrong, unethical, nor unlawful.

On the other side of the coin, if you give poor folks food or money yourself, that uses 100% of it effectively. Giving instead to charities has your money go for office rent, accountants, utility bills, employees and supervisors, insurance, taxes on those things taxable, photocopies and copy machine costs, vehicles-fuel-repairs-car payments, refrigerators, cooking equipment, advertising, postage, internet fees, other transportation costs including shipping, parties for staff and/or donors, and far more. And, you get no accounting for money spent. That is the "Beauty" or the "Beast" of the Nonprofits, depending upon your perspective. If you are super-wealthy, you know what your nonprofits are up to, and otherwise, none of your business.

Combine all that with the use of Human Spirituality (the use of human blood and/or semen in food and drink) plus the assignment of Professional Privileges (same thing), and you have the Nonprofits as Cabals, secret conspiracy groups that biologically control society for the Bar (Mafia or MOB). Compare that to direct donation of money or food to needy persons. Food is paid for by you, cooked by you in your home, delivered by you, and handed out by you. Wastes no money on rents or salaries. And, if you give out cash, is any of that wasted? Some of it could be used for drugs or alcohol, but homelessness is so awful, so demeaning, so violating of Free Will and the will to live, plus involves being insulted hundreds of times a day, so those mistreated by becoming homeless need drugs or alcohol (or something) just to survive and to keep from becoming mentally ill. Eventually they lose that struggle, too, and once mentally ill there is no way anything helps except death. Taxpayer money will be needed for life, plus the mentally-ill former homeless person will be in continuous grief for life. Not a pretty scenario.

Suicide? Most homelessness ends there, with a direct suicide, or an indirect suicide. Indirect suicide involves not seeing a doctor when sick, not taking shelter from rain, or not getting out of the way of a truck, things like that. Once you lost the Will To Live, you are gone. Hitler viewed death as more humane than being alive and an outcaste. In the end, Direct Money helps. Direct Food helps, too. No money is wasted on overhead.

"I'm not seeing anything from the Nonprofits that does anything but perpetuate our old, long-broken system of handling poverty. Did Society learn nothing from the 1960's? I tried being creative with poverty solutions in the early 1980's, but there was such intolerance for it that the Bar knowingly unjustly sent me to prison. It's different today? Yes, it is worse. Somebody tell the super-wealthies that 50 years of failure does not justify their handling of poverty as a reasonable course nor worthy of being repeated." Dr. John Kitchin, Publisher.

The conventional thinking, going back hundreds of years, is that the Bar needs to have people become desperate, get help from the religions, join the religions as a Believer, and similar. Okay, but what about in a society where only stupid folks believe in God? They're committing Indirect Suicide instead. Society also wants to blame drugs and alcohol, rather than Social Intolerance, Repression, Media Lies, Recession, and similar, for its underclass of people created. Pretty neat, eh? Nonprofits assist the transition from Desperate to Believer, but the only one who really needs to Repent is God Himself.

Presidential Politics: Vote for Trump if you want World War 3, or Sanders if you want Socialism. A Compromise?

Clinton-Sanders might be that, a Liberal Democratic respite from both of those, and Vice President Sanders is only the Speaker of the Senate, with no other particular powers. We've had a Black President, so it's time for a female President. We must avoid a Conservative, to rule out nationwide rioting, burning, and looting, plus the use of US nuclear weapons against our own cities via a Military Mutiny. The only thing that frightens me about all this is that our leaders apparently do not already know this. Elections in powerful nations enduring hardship are never pretty. People must learn, above all, that the conventional news media are liars, as if they don't already know that. Throw the Conservatives out of Congress, and there will be hope to make our nation great again. All this will take is much higher taxes on the Wealthy, plus much higher wages for everyone. RAZE THE BAR!

MTS: Save money by no longer charging fares

Currently, MTS gets 60-67% of its money from Federal, State, County, and City taxes, the other 33-40% coming from the fares it collects. Collecting, accounting, processing, and keeping track of all the fare money costs nearly all of the fare money it collects. So, could MTS save a lot of money by not collecting fares? These costs include the Trolley Ticket Machines, which involve the cash to purchase the machine, installation costs, maintenance and supplies such as register tapes and Compass cards, repairs, internet connections, bank fees for the acceptance of bank cards, trucks and persons to empty and process the cash, and more. Cubic bus fare machines, on all the buses, have comparable costs, plus greatly slow down bus loading. Also consider the cost of persons to check fare compliance, sell tickets for events, kiosks and stores (such as the Transit Store), accounting costs, electricity, insurance on the cash money collected, and this is only a partial list. Not having the expenses related to fare collection greatly decreases MTS costs. The downside is that many within MTS would have to be laid off, or found other jobs. The upside is that Public Transit would be free, to go to work or look for work, and a great incentive not to pollute the air with your car and spend money on gasoline.

If MTS still needs additional money, I propose a tax on parking. Each day you can choose to use your car, spending money on gasoline, wear-and-tear, and the parking tax, or you can use a free bus. And, you can handle that differently each day, as you wish. As far as a parking tax, meters would get that money added to how much you pay, and private lots would collect it, too, with certain exemptions for age, handicap, and distance (such as commuting from Borrego Springs). You can drive your car to a Park-and-Ride lot, park it free, and continue via Public Transit, too. Brains rule over idiotic nonsense. Or not. 2

Hints and Kinks:

HOBO (HOMe-BOy) Cooking

Find a park grill, collect some twigs, and cook a TV dinner on it by wrapping same in aluminum foil after eliminating the paper and plastic. Best deal on foil is the 50 sq. ft. (not the 25 sq. ft.) rolls for a dollar at the 99 Cents Only stores. TV Dinners can be had for a dollar or less at most large grocers. Spread some foil on a picnic table, and then whack the frozen dinner components onto the foil, still frozen. Wrap it up good, add one additional complete wrap around it, and place it onto low-to-medium heat, turning as necessary. You can, if desired, wrap each component in a different foil, if desired, to keep them from combining.

Thanksgiving Dinner without all the added blood and semen of the Nonprofit Org. Volunteers! Beer, wine, or liquor helps, too (very small amounts) to lessen the food abuses we always get subjected to. There are a handful of parks which do permit alcohol, and you can learn about that on-line.

http://www.thebrewproject.com/San_Diego_Craft_Beer_Blog/wh-at-parks-can-you-still-drink-alcohol-at-in-san-diego/

Eventually, we need "public" microwave ovens, to cook our own food, but Health Dept. rules would require that the containers of food be unopened, and cooked by personnel such as the desk employees at Neil Good Center. Maybe we can get City Recreation Centers, Balboa and other parks, and the Beaches to have ovens for us. Else is to have us all become Bipolar eating the tainted food that we are generally given, and that becomes a liability for the taxpayers treating same. Neither the rich folks nor the politicians want to deal with this problem, but a very large number of homeless and poor eventually become Schizophrenic from the "free" food given to us, and at that point will need lots of taxpayer money for life. Not a good solution. Hitler's solution (possibly not any better) was death with no suffering involved. I went to 2 Jewish universities, so we can argue that.

Food Stamp Fraud

Called SNAP, EBT, Food Stamps, Cal-Fresh and many other names which vary by state, the Federal Nutrition Program gets abused to this day. Safeguards are in place to prevent the buying of energy drinks, but many buy cheese, candy, coffee, and soda pop, and then sell same for cash. EBT should have a dollar-limit on how much of these particular re-sale items can be bought each month. I think the poor receiving EBT should be able to spend a very small amount on energy drinks, too.

San Ysidro Border Backup

Mexico now requiring passports and tourist visas has a lot of Americans no longer visiting Tijuana, plus many poor folks are being denied access to the $1.80 U.S. per night Tijuana hotels. If you need to cross, but have no passport, cross by car and you do not get asked for one. Or, cross at Otay Mesa. Try to beg a ride at the Border freeway on-ramp, a block north and a block west of the San Ysidro crossing. It's on the bridge where they park 20 or more taxicabs, the bridge connecting Camino de la Plaza to East San Ysidro Blvd. I believe it is your right to escape your country if it abuses you.

Other Ideas & Suggestions

Bernie Sanders should propose a $30 an hour Minimum Wage, with each American guaranteed at least 10 hours of work per week ($300), which is comparable to SSI or current full-time Minimum Wage jobs. With technology eliminating most jobs, the workforce has too many not-employed persons, including in the tech jobs. Triple-time ($90 an hour minimum) over 30 hours per week. If the effects of other countries' prices need to be neutralized, import taxes. There should also be a 15% tax on CASH (only cash) taken out of the U.S. This will shut down tax scams offshore. Foreign investors can take their money in gold, or goods and services, or keep it in a United States bank, or whatever else they want, but if they take it in cash, they pay the tax.

Any Inflation should be neutralized by a COLA (Cost-of-Living Adjustment) twice daily, 365 days a year. Inheritance Taxes should be very high, and there should be Net-Worth Taxes on the wealthy. All this would return the US to the prosperity of the 1950's and 1960's, when we had super-high taxes on the rich, so they had to establish new businesses and hire millions of people to avoid losing a slice of their wealth to taxes.

Project Homeless Connect should become Project Help Connect for the poor, veterans, homeless, and all others who feel they may need government or charitable help. The first to arrive will be given a free tote bag with personal hygiene items, and some will also get a coupon for food. Temporary child care and pet care provided. Most homeless do not admit same, so calling anything a "Homeless" event makes lots of folks stay away. Homeless are in denial for years and say things like, "I live under that tree, and that is my home. I am not homeless." Be sure to read the 12 Classifications of the State of Homelessness, which is near the end of this issue.

Meetings:

The Metropolitan Area Providers of Social Services, MAPSS, an umbrella group of many Nonprofits and government agencies, met the Fourth (not last) Wednesday of October, with a whopping 36 present, 80% above average. • Escondido may begin General Relief casework, and it would need Nonprofits to provide volunteer work programs if that happens. • A new organization was present, CIE San Diego Social Service Network. They are a data-sharing network of over 4500 poor, seniors, and/or homeless, involving 11 agencies. Data is only shared on the network with the permission of the people involved, in order to facilitate non-duplication of things like intake screenings. Imagine asking 30 agencies for help, and each one demands you take a VI-SPDAT, for example. Marina Baroff, V.P of Programs spoke, and will be the Featured agency next month (November 18th, the 3rd Wed. instead of 4th, to avoid interference with the Thanksgiving holiday.) More information at their website, www.CIESanDiego.Org. CIE stands for Community Information Exchange. • Today's Featured agency is the Interfaith Shelter Network, which maintains winter shelters from October thru May in area churches and synagogues, and has a staff of 4,000 volunteers. Using seven different regions in Metro San Diego, those needing shelter are temporarily housed in church halls. This involves 113 congregations, and those houses of worship also provided 27,000 meals in the past year. This shelter is temporary, nights only, and includes career planning workshops, personal budgeting workshops, and ongoing case management. "211" maintains a list of available locations, and 7 different agencies screen participants. The Network Office is (619) 702-5399, and their website is www.interfaithshelter.org. Two of their branches are already open, San Diego Inland, and North County Coastal. This agency also operates El Nido shelter for Domestic Violence, including for Undocumented Immigrants. They include job training or educational programs. Phone (619) 563-9878 if you are a Domestic Violence victim needing housing. Interfaith Shelter Network also has a very small Rapid Rehousing Program, that can pay your rent and security deposit for a few months if you qualify. You must eventually be able to pay your own rent. • The upcoming StreetLinks program in Dec. or Jan. is still being discussed, but may involve mental illness. • Next meeting is on the third Wednesday of November, instead of the usual fourth Wednesday, to avoid interference with Thanksgiving.

Alternative History:

In 1962, President Kennedy made a deal with the Alien (ET) planets: They gave us the birth control pill, silicon technology, space war tech (REV's), and increased magnetic recording technology. We promised to leave Vietnam immediately, give birth control pills to all women on the planet who wanted same, and land an astronaut on the moon plus safely back to Earth within 8 years. Instead of these accomplishments, Kennedy was killed in a coup involving Richard Nixon and Lyndon Johnson, both wanting to become President. Kennedy's legacy was the completion of the Apollo moon program, but when LBJ quit the Presidency, Nixon would go on to become President, kill Robert Kennedy and Martin Luther King, and get involved in Watergate. Nixon had to be pardoned to avoid all of this coming out. Proof? Many have died for having it. Over 100 died for having wide-angle video of the John Kennedy assassination. Kennedy's death both spawned the call to action in the 1960's, plus prevented it from ever becoming successful. We got a few great changes, but nothing fundamental. Race riots followed 2 years after Kennedy died, but the Catholic-Mormon-Baptist-Italian Mafia (The Bar) held, with the wealthiest Jews (but not all Jews) complacent.

Bananas Republicans

Eleven Republican Governors involved in scandals, 9 intend re-election!

<http://aattp.org/scandalous-11-sitting-gop-governors-indicted-under-investigation-or-serious-scrutiny/>

Links (underlined) left in, if possible. I've not been to all the links nor read their content. We covered Faux (Fox) News and scandals of the Democrats, so here's the Republican Governors:

This includes Terry Branstad (Iowa) for firing state employees for "political reasons," and then offering hush money to keep them quiet. Sam Brownback (Kansas) for fundraising and lobbying tactics. Chris Christie (New Jersey) another subpoena concerning the Bridgewater scandal. Tom Corbett (Pennsylvania): $987,000 donation from a billionaire casino investor who is barred from making campaign contributions in Pennsylvania. And other lavish gifts from dubious sources. Nathan Deal (Georgia) cost Georgia's taxpayers nearly $3 million dollars in payments to the state workers he fired while they were investigating irregularities with Deal's 2010 campaign. Nikki Haley (South Carolina): Tea Party Governor Nikki Haley's so determined to eliminate government waste, she allowed dozens of children to die while her Department of Social Services failed to investigate reports of child abuse and endangerment. John Kasich (Ohio): JobsOhio debacle, in which board members doled out tax breaks and other goodies to companies with whom they have ties, ongoing FBI investigation for taking bribes. Paul LePage (Maine) issued a "no-bid" contract to his cronies, who in turn botched the contract, held meetings with a right-wing terrorist group, federal probe found LePage's administration guilty for tilting Labor Board hearings in favor of employers. Rick Perry (Texas): Two federal felony counts for abusing the powers of his office. Rick Snyder (Michigan): awarding contracts to his cousin's company, eliminating a background check program, misusing money from the Detroit Emergency Manager's New Energy Reinvest and Diversify (NERD) fund. Scott Walker (Wisconsin): Two investigations: Four of Walker's cronies got jail time for stealing from charities meant to benefit wounded veterans and fallen soldiers' families, while two others received lighter sentences. And a criminal investigation for coordinating illegal fundraising activities on a national level.

Financial Advice:

Good Investments: Trailer and RV parks, Used RV sales, Low-end used cars and trucks, appliance junkyards, hydrogen technology converting oxygen atoms into hydrogen, water purification, security cameras and services, thrift stores, dollar stores, discount and thrift food outlets, shared office providers, nonprofit organization ownership, class action law, discount pharmacies, dehydrated vegetables, international tourism, soft adult-porno broadcasting, new cell apps for embedded machines and on non-cell radio frequencies (freezer failure alarm, transmission of video of locked lobby, GPS location tags, etc.), home canning gear, solar chargers for cell phones and laptops that are briefcase-mounted, body cup-holders for walking, pet urine scan strips for nutrition. The best advice is to invest in yourself, by starting 5 or more companies using no time nor money of your own. Keep what works, and sell or dismantle (or change) all else. Making money in an awful economy is very difficult unless you are already wealthy, and then you need to try not to lose what you have. Real Inflation has been 300% in 10 years, so those increased stock or real estate prices are mostly just imaginary, not real. Now that almost every big business cooks its books, we need mandatory annual IRS audits.

Why Me?

When the Bar in Milwaukee stole my $20-60 million business, with hundreds of them collectively knowingly convicting me unjustly of fraud, one of the things I did is to apply to Canada for Refugee Status. I paid about $5,000 in today's money, Canadian Intelligence investigated, agreed with me that my conviction was unjust, and erased my Criminal Record. I argue that going from living well to 33 years of poverty entitles me to the $4 billion I seek in Damages. Some folks think I should vaporize London, instead, but the ET guys already told me that any such action like that would cause me to lose all claims for any Damages. It sure would make a point, however. Our Legal System in San Diego recently refused to prosecute me on a jaywalking ticket; I was afraid they might treat me very badly, so I was upset. I still have 2 matters pending, one involving Healthcare, and the other has to do with Disability Insurance. Neither is likely to kill me outright if I lose the cases, but over time, getting SSDI instead of SSI is likely necessary for my survival. Employment? No interest in me, as far as I can see, except abusive. Way too intelligent for that. My Consultant Service? Still testing the waters before beginning any marketing.

Proposed Classifications of Homelessness:

We propose using these Classifications for types of homeless:

- 1.) Un-housed, living outdoors, in plain view (on display).
- 2.) Un-housed, living outdoors, hidden in parks, sewers, canyons, on rooftops, unsheltered.
- 3.) Un-housed, living outdoors, well-hidden and sheltered (tent, car, cave).
- 4.) Semi-indoors in inappropriate location or circumstances (garages, Tijuana slums, rooftop air conditioning units).
- 5.) Indoors very temporarily (one day or night).
- 6.) Indoors, with motel, friend, relative stay of one week or less.
- 7.) Eviction Notice received, with less than 14 days to vacate.
- 8.) Evicted and now has stove, refrigerator, bed, couch, television, clothing in a storage locker.
- 9.) Longer-term couch-surfing, motels, campgrounds.
- 10.) Living with relatives other than a spouse, as an adult child or parents with their adult children.
- 11.) Living in a homeless shelter, jail, prison, hospital, mental hospital, hospice, care facility, subsidized (Section 8) housing, free Reservation or Ejido housing, transitional housing, or permanent supportive housing.
- 12.) Household (whether a family or roommates) earns less than the HUD Minimum to live in San Diego. Income includes all housing subsidies, SSI, Food Stamps, SSDI, pensions, Social Security, wages, etc., for the entire household. HUD Minimum for San Diego was listed at $32 an hour, $64,000 a year, which is $1,280 per week, or $5,500 a month. Inflation has raised this amount over 20%, however.

I am a Class 4-8 Homeless, and went in 2007 from a Class 12, to a Class 7-8, to a Class 2-8, to my present 4-8. I have been Class 4-8 for years and will accept any help that does not just shift what Class I'm in. No luck. 4

Snide Comments:

You know it will be a rough day when the trolley arrives, pulled by 16 donkeys. • Do you have News Media Disease? Do you believe the lies told on television, radio, and in the newspapers? You can get help! • I think they're using kittens to make hot dogs, because my cat won't eat 'em. • Always remember that Jesus Christ is a swear word used a lot by lunatics. Belief in God does not make you a nut-case, just hypnotized and brainwashed (Socialized). Extremely strong belief, though does make you a nut-case. Beliefs are a cancer upon really good but naïve people. Feel sorry for them, and try to oppose the ministers who perpetrate "Faith", each one knowing that it is all lies. Will we ever punish ministers? We don't even admit that the really lucky babies become abortions instead of people. • Homeland Security said, "You're a homeless man with a Ph.D.? It was Spain, and not Mexico, that came up with many unusual Spanish words. The word "housefly" is derived from the word "mosque", the word "junk" (yonke) is derived from the word "yankee", the word "American" is derived from the words "garbage" and "drunk" (gabacho, garbage and borracho), and the word "church" is derived from "English house" (Iglesia). FREE-O, or FREE-A, means Cold. It does not mean free. You can still get a $1 Corona or Pacifico at a sidewalk café, compared to the same for $9 in San Diego, and the typical rent for an apartment is $100 to $250 per month. A 42-ounce Pacifico beer is currently $1.85 US, plus the bottle deposit. • 5

We represent the world's fastest-growing ethnic group, the homeless, the only group that gets NO protection from discrimination in employment, housing, education, or hate-crimes. We are those who suffer because the wealthy own everything. No one WANTS to be homeless nor CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will. Once homeless, people will need to use booze or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. Self-Servatives (ConServatives, Con Artists that Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

Being homeless on the sidewalk is a lot like being at the zoo, except you're the exhibit.
