Angels Page is an introduction to Yahweh Gabriel (Moroni), an "angel" or UFO alien being. His statement follows below, and then he has a Facebook Page at www.Facebook.com/YahwehGabrielMoroni.

Yahweh Gabriel (Moroni), a famous Angel PAGE B-1

He is about 12,000 years old and of a species that lives 25,000 years. He was hatched on Earth, and his species evolved on Earth. They took off into space when an asteroid was about to destroy the planet, forming our myths about their culture, which the Ancient Greeks called Atlantis. The bible called him Noah, and the ark was a fleet of spacecrafts. The great flood was rocks, not water. This individual has been involved in religion among humans, inspiring Moses, Jesus, Mohammed, Krishna, and even Joseph Smith of the Mormons.

The bible refers to him as the Angel Gabriel, as does the Quran of Islam, and Moses asked him for the name of God. Since God has no name, Yahweh used his own name. He is not God.

A new drug is invented. It permits a young child to acquire a doctorate degree level of intelligence in several subjects at the same time, prior to age 7. It is hailed as a boon to learning, teaching, and education. One of the experimenters, however, sneaks some of this drug out of the lab and administers it to a gorilla. The gorilla studies for two days, and then passes the exams both for Doctor of Medicine and Doctor of Law.

Does the gorilla get full rights as a human being, or can it still be considered personal property, sold, enslaved, and even put to death by its owner taking it in to a veterinarian? Or, has the gorilla crossed over into what would be considered an Intelligent Life Form (ILF)? This is precisely the problem that the other 149 space-capable cultures have with us.

The whole NASA program under John F. Kennedy was to prove to them that we could become space-capable, by visiting another planet. We did seem to miss the fact that intelligence is not science, per se. Science is the process of control, using the power of knowledge. Control of environment, people, processes, and so on. Much more important to the process of intelligence is the ability to get along without war, hatred, rape, murder, greed, poverty, lying, cheating, and stealing. That, of course, is what Moses' Ten Commandments were all about.

We are considered a very warlike and backwards space-capable civilization that has not managed to kill itself off yet. Yahweh Gabriel and his fellow ILF beings do admit that there have been fully intelligent beings, including Moses, Jesus, Buddha, Gandhi, Mohammed, Confucius, Krishna, and more.

If a hog wanted to talk to you, would you talk to it? What if the hog was so stupid that it made no sense at all, except to another hog? What would happen if the hog also kept insisting that it was smarter than you, and better than you? Would you lose patience with the hog? Now you see. You do not understand, you just think you do, but you do see. You and I are the hogs, trying to talk to an Intelligent Life Form.

Yahweh Gabriel Moroni: Please excuse my outspoken host and his outlandish methods. It was difficult to get anyone to go out on a limb, risking death, to sponsor my communications efforts. Before Jan. 20, 2012, all of us "Grays" (military term) were a secret, and contact with us meant death for both the human and "alien" involved. President Obama, much to his credit, de-classified some of our UFO secret existence. This can begin normalizing relations with your planet.

Kitchin is being used to translate this page, but this is myself speaking. Kitchin's humor would say, "A space alien with a blog? There goes the neighborhood!" He tries to make life less serious, giving it more meaning, which also makes you humans less violent, less threatened, and less hurting when you laugh. Good medicine, and someday your churches will employ stand-up comics. As for the humor of Kitchin, I find it too negative. My primary blog will be on Facebook as Yahweh Gabriel (Moroni), and I am the Moses figure Angel of Yahweh, and the bible figure Angel Gabriel, and the Mormon Angel. I was younger then. Whatever I cannot place on Facebook (they give me hundreds of regulations) can maybe go here. That way Kitchin can take the heat over it, which he is used to. Per NSA rules, I am permitted no photos (except humor), intelligence information, nor e-mails, and may not visit sites unless invited. This keeps PAGE B-2 people from becoming frightened. The truth is beginning to come out, a first step. Kitchin is perfect as most humans have no problem not believing him, thus none of their beliefs violated. [his actual words are "none of their memories disgusted".] I understand about being unusual, so I understand Kitchin. I agree with much, but not all, of what he has to say.

I am an angel, fairy, leprechaun, troll, elf, munchkin, pixie, martian, or one of the little green men or little people. I am about twelve thousand years old and very real. My page will tell the truth about UFO secrets.

Born (hatched) around 10 thousand BCE (Before Current Epoch) near what is today Cancun Mexico. We are created in a laboratory and then hatch. Worked with many religious leaders, including Moses, Jesus of Nazareth (he was real but Jesus Christ is fictional), Gandhi, Confucius, Dalai Lama, Mohammed, Krishna, and several lessers. I like cherries, berries, dairy products, and honey, all of which are uniquely found only on Earth. Strawberry ice cream or blueberry yogurt, especially if sweetened with honey, are the ultimate Earth food. We do not normally eat, being green and photosynthetic, like plants. We sit in the sun to eat.

April 26, 2013 - I do not have access to Moroni right now, but post a conversation I had with one of his alien friends.

Me: What are your beliefs?

Alien: Are you calling me an ape?

Me: What do you mean?

Alien: Animals have beliefs, while intelligent beings do not. Beliefs go along with desires, dreams, aspirations, conjectures, and other non-realities. Hypnosis is the usual source of beliefs. Intelligent beings either know, or formulate a plan to find out because they need to know, or they do not care. Apes are curious where they came from, where the universe came from, and all sorts of other nonsense with no practical use. So, human apes invent all sorts of idiotic notions we call "beliefs".

Me: Okay, sorry to insult you.

Alien: Religion capitalizes upon ape-logic to hypnotize human apes into beliefs of God, heaven, hell, and other utterly ridiculous notions, in order to control, take advantage of, and make easy profits. Very evil.

Me: So you "believe" in evil?

Alien: It is a concept, not an entity nor a belief. When humans cause harm to the lives of others to enrich themselves, that is evil.

Me: So religion is evil?

Alien: Religion is the root of all evil.

Me: I thought that was money.

Alien: Yes, but religion is the source of all money. You need slave workers who think they are free, brainwashed consumers who think they are getting a good value, lots of lies and propaganda which you apes call "advertising", an underlying disdain for economic fairness, and a willingness to make others poor and suffering so that you profit from hoarding money. That is called Capitalism, survival of the richest and most corrupt.

Me: So, what do we need?

Alien: Since the planet now contains over 10,000 times its maximum capacity of humans, most humans need to die. Your "society" was warned back in 1962 when we gave you the birth control pill. Now it is too late to prevent births. After most humans die, you will then need a pill that makes females sterile in one dose.

Me: What about men?

Alien: It only takes one male to make thousands of females pregnant. Men do not make babies, only contribute genetic material.

Me: They also contribute support.

Alien: Many do not, because your society makes love and sex difficult to obtain without forcing more overpopulation via such institutions as marriage. The men wanted sex and love, not children. Add the competition for jobs and money due to your extreme excessive population, and you get the chaos which your society is currently going through. It is your extinction or you could have scientists invent a sterility pill. Most will still need to die, however, at this point. We will help with all of this. We help take care of those species we created.

Yahweh Gabriel (Moroni): Long ago, hominids from Earth were exported to be used as slaves. This was not all that successful, so they were crossed with the DNA of more intelligent species, producing humans and many other similar life forms. Humans were transported to Earth from (name of planet censored out as Top Secret) which is (location of planet censored out as Top Secret), and encouraged to populate the Earth. Was this wrong to do? The objective was to hold Earth as a breeding grounds, a kennel, to produce billions of humans for export.

Many of us feel that humans have made advancements, especially considering their very violent ape DNA, but never stopped overpopulating, never eliminated ape-violence, never PAGE B-3 eliminated ape-selfishness called greed, and never took proper care of poor humans. So, humans never became an intelligent species. Will they ever? Were humans a mistake, or will technology someday accomplish these things?

August 28, 2012 - If you lived thousands of years ago, the bible would be an excellent, accurate, and current guide as to how to live at that time. The world changes, society changes, science changes, religion changes, and even what "God" wants from us changes. Keep up with what God wants NOW, not thousands of years in the past. It is nonsense to use any scripture written over 50 years from the present time.

Intelligent Life Forms (ILFs) have knowledge, while mere animals pretending to have intelligence have "beliefs". If you have beliefs, you are an ape. If you have "faith", you are even less, a hypnotized ape. Know and investigate, but never speculate. Trying to answer questions that there is no answer for is animal stupidity. It is also a huge waste of time, but a valid amusement, like watching a kitten chase its tail.

Earth is the land of milk and honey, the place that has mammals (milk) and insects (honey). It has also been called Atlantis, Ice Planet, Hell, Hades, and the Human Cockroach Farm. It is an experiment to see if humans can become intelligent life. All 149 intelligent species have no crime, murder, war, rape, poverty, hatred, jails, prisons, police, nor military. Humans? Maybe in another 2 million years if they last that long. Elections are where candidates win and the people lose.

Years ago, the traders used wampum, worthless glass beads, to buy things from the Native American (and other) native cultures. We from the other planets use gold, diamonds, silver, and platinum, in huge supply and totally worthless, to purchase what we need from the humans today. Most planets have tons of this stuff, free. No value at all.

The San Diego Comic Convention has come and gone, with HUGE support for the most famous fictional character of all time, Jesus Christ. This super-hero, created about 320 AD, is worshipped by little girls and boys everywhere. Unfortunately, while we eventually teach our children that there is no Easter Bunny, nor Santa Claus, nor Tooth Fairy, we forget to teach them that there is no Jesus Christ, either. They suffer as a result of not knowing this.

Television is a marvelous tool designed by the Radio Corporation of America, RCA, and transmit initially by its program division, the National Broadcasting Co, NBC. Humans see at about 60 frames per second, which is 60 hertz, but continuity between frames (motion) can be maintained with as little as 9 frames per second. 13 frames per second was used for TV because it is the optimal for causing mesmerism and hypnosis in humans. Unfortunately, many mental diseases can also be traced to using this scan rate. Seeking greater hypnotic control, the new digital television format affords 5 or 6 times more hypnotic control than the old analog television format. This means more ability to hypnotize, socialize, preach, sell products, and persuade. Good or bad, some nations banned the new digital format, but the US now requires that format by law.

I was asked a question about music on other planets, and held off a month without answering it because I did not want to offend humans. We do not have music, and cannot hear as wide a range of pitches as a human. Noise is a warning such as thunder or an explosion, and an irritation. All noise is impending danger. Music is a hypnotic ape tool that meshes well with entertainment, dancing, hypnosis, religion, dreams, aspirations, love, lust, and other animal pastimes that we do not experience.

PAGE B-4 Our language is a telepathic one, not sounds.

Some humans can communicate with us quite well, and others cannot. Those very fluent in our language lead tough lives as they overhear our thoughts, and then know much that a human should not. This is, however, where advancements in science come from. In our society, being able to hear each other's thoughts means that no one can lie.

Avoiding animal protein avoids the two proteins that code for death and old age, which is why a tortoise lives 300 years but a cat lives 13. Humans ought to live 35 years, as they did in most of history, save when they were vegetarians millions of years ago. A human can live 250 years and a few Vegans from a long line of Vegans do. What your parents and grandparents ate is far more important than what you eat. Today the problem is that even the Vegans get human blood and semen added to their food, giving them the death proteins, added for religious reasons.

The process of not eating meat eventually (generations later) puts humans in touch with their intelligent side. You look around you and wonder why you are here with a bunch of stupid, stinky apes. Humans smell extremely bad, even after a shower and lots of perfume, but have their sense of smell genetically almost eliminated, so that they can tolerate the smell of other humans. Survival tactic, as most carnivores will not eat human meat as it stinks too much, like a skunk. Humans also emit radio waves called LOVE, since they are mammals, used in mating and social class. Helps them overpopulate like cockroaches with billions of babies. Humans are in constant child production due to this "love", which causes mating behavior all year, not just at a few times of the year. Humans kept as pets on the 149 planets with intelligent life have their scent glands in the crotch and armpits removed, and most are spayed or neutered to avoid over-reproduction. Proper diet eliminates foul odors from their feces, as they have scent glands there, too, but those need to stay active as they are part of digestion. Humans born in captivity never get subjected to garbage food, and so do not emit constant fecal stink.

I want to see whales, since they are far more intelligent than humans, have torpedoes to attack whaling boats. Religion is Satan's way of using people, by pretending to be God. Satan is fictional, of course, as is God, but his ministers are real.

It was recently decided that human society does not deserve to exist in its present form, nor do the humans deserve possession of such a fine planet which they continue to pollute and overpopulate. What has not been decided is what to do. Could be a beneficial thing in the end.

Religions should be entirely separate from money, businesses, tithes, politics, political organizations and stands, governments, nations, secret political (but not religious) societies, and similar. Keep money, politics, and government entirely out of religion. As society itself is at stake, it may take force, even deadly, to accomplish this. Iran and Israel, for example, combine government and religion, but so does the United States, which is Judeo-Christian.

People ask me about "alien abductions" as if such a thing exists, which it does not. This was made up to make humans afraid of us. Anything we do is by consent, unless it involves such a thing as quarantine of a new disease or taking a DNA sample. We need to properly maintain those species that we created.

Only apes have "beliefs". Intelligent Life either knows something, or needs to know it and formulates a plan to find out, or does not give a shit. Humans, like dogs, cats, and monkeys, are curious. Who made me? Where did the universe come from? Is there a God? Apes like you humans have dreams, desires, aspirations, and beliefs. This is what you would LIKE to PAGE B-5 believe is true, even though you know deep inside it is a delusion, not reality. Getting in touch with your inner self helps you to realize that there are real truths, as opposed to all that ape nonsense we call beliefs.

So, the next time you are asked what your beliefs are, say what all the space aliens do: "I am not an ape, therefore I have no beliefs." You can talk to them about it, but if you are caught, our military will kill you. Be careful. Those who know too much are terminated.

And, if you believe in God, He is on vacation right now, with the Easter Bunny and the Tooth Fairy. The Easter Bunny exists, because she sold me some jello shots at the Playboy Club. As for the Tooth Fairy, I heard he was a dentist in gay Hillcrest. He might exist, but God sure doesn't, and every minister knows that. It is their job to make YOU believe bullshit.

HERE IS A "GOD" AS OPPOSED TO AN "ANGEL":

This one is in custody in the Interplanetary Detention Center, basement of Spa(ce)Wars, Old Town San Diego, for unlawful entry to Earth. This photo has been intentionally distorted, in accordance with National Security Agency guidelines for actual alien photos.

Intelligence Page

Intelligence...How do we tell truth? And, how do we deal with the flaws in the Scientific Method?

The more "proof" that somebody had to come up with on something, the less true it is. Almost all truly valuable information has NO proof that you will ever find, and if you do, you will get into trouble and that proof will be destroyed. Continue, and you will be destroyed.

All websites that are Search Engines are a jumble, even Google. My site culls out the bullshit, and allows folks to get info. Abortion Page, for example, at NZ9F.com/Abortion eliminates the bullshit and the fake providers, thus getting to the point without distraction.

We all started out very stupid, but school taught us things that the government paid those schools to teach us. In college, we learned that what we learned in High School was all bullshit. In Graduate School, we learned that all we learned in College was bullshit, too. After Graduate School, all Ph.D.s know that ALL studies are bull, but we make money promoting whatever the government wishes to "Prove" is true.

Religion works the same way, where a minister goes to seminary school, learns the particular bullshit that a religion wants promoted, and then gets paid to teach it as true, despite knowing better themselves. All ministers are smart enough to know that God, heaven, hell, spirits, life hereafter, and all that nonsense is total bullshit, along with the bible. Yet, they get paid to make sure you never know that.

College teaches us the "Official Bullshit" that the government wants us to know and treat as the truth. Those of us with a Doctorate Degree know it is all bullshit, but get paid to conduct "studies" for government money to prove whatever the government wants to be accepted as the truth. In discussions, we need to cite other bullshit proven by other professors, as the Official Truth, even though we know it all to be lies. We depend upon all this for our money, same as a minister.

There is a Scientific Method that the Ph.D.s use, but only amongst ourselves. We are entirely aware that if we "discover" something that violates the cash-lines set by the government, our jobs will be history, and our universities will lose funding. Nonetheless, sometimes the REAL TRUTH, not the OFFICIAL BULLSHIT must be known, and kept a secret. So, here is how we get the Real Truth:

- 1.) Read what is purported, proven to be true, and accepted as the Official Bullshit. Then, read what disagreements there are with this. It is in these disagreements that you will find truth.
- 2.) Using the thousands of Secret Societies, locate those dissenters within the studies who can give you the secret inside info on what is wrong and why. If you need to know how to find the Secret Societies, ask any Professional. Their system of operation is described at www.NZ9F.com/Gnosis. If you do not know the information on that web page, you are way too stupid to talk to in the first place!
- 3.) Weigh in the persons or governments or corporations who paid for the study findings to be purported as true. Find out what results they wanted proven. Look at the money-line. Governments provide much research money, and want things to be "proven" their way.
- 4.) Lastly, ask the Extraterrestrial Aliens to give you their take on it.
- 5.) Never assert anything as true without the above 4 steps. If you are not able to do that, ask an intelligent person to do this for you.

Want to know the real truth? Get an education to learn the Official Bullshit, then get a Doctorate Degree, then get sponsored by one or more of the Secret Societies, then get into message communications with other Doctorates. Caution: All such communications are considered a US Government Top Secret, so if you do not maintain secrecy, you go to prison.

CORRUPTION

Religious Victims

Fighting a battle against the secret groups that run and control society does involve exploiting their weaknesses. First, learn all about how corruption and religious victimization works, by reading the pages suggested at NZ9F.com/Organize, especially NZ9F.com/Gnosis. By far the biggest weakness of the religious "Mafias" (nothing to do with the Hollywood Sopranos or Hollywood Godfather) is that their process of debriefing and decision making takes a lot of time. Countering them, then, involves meeting OFTEN and then acting QUICKLY. They cannot keep up.

Even with cell tech, they can come up with lots of warm bodies, lied to, who heard on the Flash News that your group is child molesters or whatever, but their rank-and-file is too unintelligent and hypnotized, just like the General Public, to do much damage. They do know that love feels excellent, and you get that from obedience to "religious" leaders. By "religious" is meant any gnostic group, even the local garden club, that uses secret conspiracies involving the placement of their blood and/or semen into the food of others to control them. PAGE B-7

They cannot usually come up with high-ranking members at a moment's notice. Too busy. Even FBI agents need time off to raise a family and rest.

Tips on Avoiding Hypnosis:

1. Avoid any fast-food, church food, free food, television, and radio. Avoid church sermons and activities. Television, including YouTube contains hypnosis pulses to make you believe that what you are seeing is true. It results eventually in Television Disease, a sort of absent-mindedness. As far as foods go, fish has often been used to feed menstrual blood because the smell of the fish disguises it. This is the source of the Christian "fish" symbol. And, all taverns place the DNA of the bartenders into the drinks, to help control drunk people, much like the DNA of flight attendants is in the airline food and drinks. These cause hangovers, and jet lag (same thing). In some bars, notably in Mexico, a napkin is shoved into the bottle of beer because that makes dried blood and semen that was placed on the end of the bottle go inside it. Mexico also places blood onto the limes used in bars. All bars add human blood to the final rinse so that it will dry on the glassware. Chinese restaurants generally add blood to their food, and remind you with a statue of Buddha, because that is the way their religion gets holy. Eating blood is also a good way to make you feel full much more quickly, so it is used in many buffets. Kosher food contains DNA and bears a food label such as the letter K or a U with a circle around it. Many bullshit stories are told about what kosher means, too. That is what it REALLY means. Snack foods contain much more blood or semen than other foods. The word "delika", with a k, is sometimes used when semen must by law be on the ingredient label, such as in Canada. A U with a circle around it means semen if in a list of ingredients, especially if followed by a D. M is fish, meat, which means menstrual blood. ALL dairy products contain semen. That even includes powdered coffee creamer!

Restaurants that are Italian tend to use more semen and blood in their food than most, like the Chinese. Eating food containing blood can cause hepatitis, but not HIV.

2. Make sure everyone in your group, without exception, understands all principles regarding eucharistics, right down to the fact that most internet "studies" are bullshit.
3. Do NOT allow anyone to participate or become your friend unless they know these things!
4. Those who refuse food or drink at your meetings may be police agents.
5. Donate YOUR blood and/or semen for use in the food of others, and set up ways for your group to do that.
6. More tips on Organize page, NZ9F.com/Organize. (This was in Package A.)
7. It takes 3 months for DNA consumed (blood or semen) to leave your system. In the meantime, it will harm you every single day!
8. The secret organizations that conduct "Conspiracy Theory" work are who victimized you, and I list them and explain what they do and how they do it on Gnosis Page, NZ9F.com/Gnosis. (This was in Package A.) Read that page again and again, study it, and know it entirely. This is the "bible" for religious victims.

Now that we have had "Faith Based Ministries" funding ruled Unconstitutional under Separation of Church and State, we NOW need to file criminal charges against governments and politicians who continue to give religions and religion-based groups taxpayer money, as that is Felony Misappropriation of Public Funds.

Some good groups fighting the fight against religious victimization include the ACLU (American Civil Liberties Union) and the Freedom From Religion Foundation.

MASONS

How the Masons control the other Mafias, and the legal system itself

A handbook on government corruption

What the Masons did to me, lifetime, would take several thousand pages of reading that would turn your stomach faster than you could turn the pages. It is the most evil bunch of things imaginable. If I ever got my very "fair and square" and "on the level" settlement of 2 billion dollars in damages from them (fat chance!) I would still spend all of it, and the rest of my life trying to put them out of business. I would end up with zero, but they would get their ass kicked. I need to prevent their victimization of more people like me. Can anything short of nuclear weapons do that? And with a whole lot less collateral damage? Hence, this book.

You Masons took away my entire life from me, from birth until now, and now there is not enough of my life left for you to ever repay me what you fairly owe in damages. For many years, I never used the name of the Masons, but, well, eventually that had to happen. I have two blogs on them, for starters, here. (From my blog for Christmas Eve, 2011:) Blog is very serious, on the Knights Templar and its Masons (FreeMasons). Saul Solez, Chief Deputy of the Knights Templar in Mexico, where they are considered a terrorist organization, is currently imprisoned and facing charges of money laundering, homicide of federal agents, drug trafficking, terrorism, bribery, extortion, forced prostitution of minors, and he is a 33rd Level Mason, the highest rank. I called them the "White Mafia" in several of my books, not using their real name because they run the U.S. Government, including the FBI and Supreme Court. They are how the CIA sells heroin.

They are also the "scapegoat finders" that fabricate evidence to unjustly convict people of crimes, resulting in 80% (or more) of prisoners in our prisons having been unjustly convicted. We are just realizing the extent of all that, on crimes where DNA evidence was collected. The only thing worse than being a major crime victim is never knowing who did it, so they provide a scapegoat, giving the victim somebody to blame. Yes, the courts often let guilty people go free, too, but 4 out of 5 guilty verdicts were incorrect, based upon perjured testimony and fabricated evidence. I have called for a Public Exonerator to be mandatory for that reason. Currently, any lawyer who bucks the system or even talks about it is disbarred instantly.

I did not go looking for the Masons. They found me when they decided to use me as a scapegoat, knowingly having me convicted of fraud that they knew I was not guilty of. The whole story would turn your stomach, and has been eliminated from my biography for that reason. Many have been unjustly convicted of crimes accidentally, but I was intentionally unjustly convicted, losing a business worth $20 million in today's money. As an intentional and not accidental victim of the legal system, I indict the Justice System itself, which is worthy of my disrespect for being the piece-of-shit that it is. The Masons victimized me dearly, and that continues to this day. I have sought a settlement, but even a billion dollars would not be enough for this Obstruction of Justice. I do not have enough time left in my life for anything they could possibly give me in payment.

The Freemasons are the PUNK street gang that has its graffiti on the backside of the dollar bill, and their strong-arm boys call themselves the FBI. J. Edgar Hoover's G-Men.
PAGE B-9 I've written this before, but as bad as the bad guys are, the "good guys" are far worse. Another phrase for the Masons is the "Good Olde Boys".

John Kitchin, Ancient Greece's "Plenne the Elder" regarding the fall of the United States. (If you do not believe this you are very rich, very brainwashed, very stupid, or combinations.)

Conspiracy Theory? Anyone using those words is a lunatic, hypnotized, or they are part of this mafia, trying to cover things up. There is no conspiracy, just how all governments have always been run. You either know that, or you are extremely stupid.

The largest problem the Masons have is that members give false intelligence information to aid their own personal futures. A good Mason says that his hardware store opponent (competitor) across the street is selling dope, so there is an effort by undercover agents to buy some there. Not being able to buy any, because he does not sell any, they continue to believe their fellow Mason. At some point they give up, and instead have the hardware store opponent convicted of murder, rape, child molestation, or worse. They call this "Justice". This results in prisons full of innocent people. Happened to me, twice, just this way.

In my initial case, the Mason who lied to the group was eventually murdered by them in a hospital, Milwaukee City Councilman Terry Cullen. He had his wife, TV news reporter Gale Garbarino run an article about my supposedly evil furnace repair business. The Jewish Mafia (Better Business Bureau) helped convict me and fabricate evidence. The media blitz "Furnace Scam" was actually a scam itself! (Technically a "hoax".) Since that time, expert witnesses who testified against me at my trial have come to me to apologize for lying under oath.

Two expert witnesses were to testify on my behalf, but backed out at the last minute, saying they were threatened. My lawyer, Robert S. Sosnay, knew about all that, and even more sordid information such as jury tampering and bribery, but told me that I could not pursue that avenue, because, "I want to continue to practice law after your trial is over." At least he was honest about it. I was formerly a police detective, and found wiretaps on my telephone lines, a shotgun mike eavesdropping system across the street, and way more. I generally figured that I had nothing to hide, plus we do not intentionally convict people unjustly. Very wrong.

Getting back to the expert witnesses who lied under oath, I very much know how that is. Years earlier, as a police detective, the District Attorney asked me to lie about evidence in a specific case. I refused to lie, which is how all this started. I will someday get into what happened in the burglary of Hank's Pub, on Milwaukee's South Side, and why I was asked to lie as an expert witness. In the end, I had to get out of the police business, so I went into Heating and Air Conditioning instead. Cops who fail to lie are forced out, but I did not know that they are also sent to prison!

So, who is the brainless knob who did not understand how all this would come out? You say it has not, even now, 30 years later? Point made. The bigger hole the Masons dig for themselves the more difficult to dig them out. They did not know who and what I was? I didn't either, and that is a great point. I was naive. I believed in the law, religion, the truth of the news media, and all that, until one day the media started to lie about me, and the lies continued. I was very upset, especially because something I held sacred had been compromised. I always depended upon the television news to tell me what was going on, and what I needed to know.

I do have family in the media, and my uncle Ray Engelhart of WITI-TV6 in Milwaukee eventually showed me a thing or two about the news media. They were the CBS affiliate at the time, and he ran the station as Controller. That made him, essentially, the Executive Producer (financial overseer), but not the Station Manager. PAGE B-10

Armed now with the knowledge that not everything is so rosy, I went on to learn about our corrupt legal system, found out that most people in our jails are innocent, just like they claim to be, and I eventually made a mistake, too. I sought solstice in faith and Jesus. I joined the choir at Gesu Church, on the campus of Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Bad mistake. It did not end well, but years later it ended with my becoming gnostic. A very unauthorized, disgruntled, and often-raped-by-the-process, losing everything, gnostic. I became a religious victim in the process, and write about that on Gesu Page, NZ9F.com/Gesu.

I didn't even have any friends for years because they heard what a scoundrel I was on TV. I went to get a muffler on my car, and the shop owner refused to do business with me, citing my being such a criminal. The things that happened fill nineteen thousand pages!

My Experiences with the Masons

I originally drew the ire of the Knights Templar back in 1970 when I pushed for less-ridiculous marijuana laws. I was never an advocate of legalization, just reason. I do not use marijuana. Back then, the State of Texas gave people Life Imprisonment for the possession of a single marijuana seed. Hard to believe nowadays. Call me a visionary? I call me that on Home Page, in my intro. Anyway, I got placed on the Mason Do Not Hire List, and so had to earn a living thru self-employment my entire life. I was also prohibited from going to graduate school in a conventional way, but circumvented that, too. I was listed as an undergraduate. I took graduate courses. I did doctoral-level research in psychology, and that is actually on my "undergraduate" record.

My company, Home Police Co. (residential), also known as Milwaukee Alarm Co. (businesses), paid my way thru college, with help from my parents. It was a police agency, which protected homes and businesses with silent alarm systems, guard services, and all types of investigations, mostly burglary and holdup. As the Chief Detective, I carried a loaded .357 magnum most of the time, despite having long hair and a beard, plus scruffy clothes. I had to not look like a cop. If you ever saw the television show "Dog the Bounty Hunter", well, that was my format. It worked well for me, because the hippie down the block had no problem telling me what he saw. I was myself conservative as all shit. Don't tell anybody. Bad for the undercover police business. Let's smoke a joynt, and tell me all about that half a ton of heroin for sale. Great stuff, you say? Let's see it.

Eventually there was a push (probably my appearance!) to put me out of business, which involved my refusal to lie under oath for District Attorney E. Michael McCann as an expert witness. I left the police biz, selling out to a Mormon (John Black) for peanuts. That, I know now, was their plan all along. I switched jobs to the heating and air conditioning business, since I was already an expert at very complex wiring, both radio-television and alarm systems. I knew nothing about the sheet metal business, but those guys are easy to hire. I did engineering.

I got befriended by a Mormon named James Ross Ossoinik, who worked for a competing heating company (Northwest Heating and Home Improvements, in Milwaukee's Bay View community), and he wanted to become a salesman for me. Around 1980, I started to sell furnaces. I also started to use extremely tiny amounts of cocaine, not enough to get high, which I learned while studying pharmacy and psychopharmacology might help me with an emotional problem I was having. My use was therapeutic. I suffer from ADD, Attention Deficit Disorder, because of being abused as a child by the Catholic Church. I learned about cocaine and ADD in classes taught by Dr. Khalil Khavari, professor at the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee. No other ADD drug had yet been invented. Of course, if I had known about Spirituality, that would have worked better. PAGE B-11

Cocaine never made me high, just made me highly functional as a human being for the first time in many years. I actually had a normal sex drive, for one thing. Imagine that! There were, however, issues of Depression, so cocaine does not fix absolutely everything in ADD. Right about that point, Rice-Blake Real Estate Management decided to kick me out of luxury apartments in my hometown of Greenfield, Wisconsin, a suburb of Milwaukee. I went from Piccadilly Trace to a derelict tenement in West Allis, a less-prestigious suburb. I did not know it, but I had made it onto the Mason Do Not House List.

My new address, 6505 W. Greenfield Avenue, West Allis, was occupied by derelict drug addicts, a strip club, and much more of the same nearby. Bad neighborhood, high-crime, downtown in a working-class city. I was not permitted to rent any residence, but I lucked out as I was trying to rent a business, and so I lived in my business for several years. I established a telemarketing business, and sold new furnaces, repairs, and maintenance. I hired down-and-out people and the neighborhood was full of them. I was basically Goodwill Industries, of a sort. Much more avante-garde, however. Picture an internet pioneer, the sort that has a huge swimming pool in his office, instead in the Homeless Advocacy business.

I continued using tiny amounts of cocaine, the only thing keeping me from becoming a hypnotized basket-case, sometimes with low levels of alcohol such as half a can of low-alcohol beer. The two helped straighten out my ADD head enough to be highly effective. Zany, yes, and look at my humor today, which was the same back then. Zany is me. I didn't know it, but my ADD all along was because I was way over the maximum limit of human blood and semen that had been secretly added to my food since grade school. I knew nothing about any of this.

I actually had telemarketing people who were gnostic secretly feeding me their blood and semen in my own office, making my ADD worse, and increasing both my cocaine and alcohol use to compensate. Not being gnostic, I was an easy target. About this time, there was even false information given to the Masons that I was gay. Never been so. I worked as a male escort in college, and I was very handsome, but female clients only. Never had sex with a man, and the idea is not in my future, but I do support the struggle gay people have. I certainly wouldn't want anybody forcing me to be gay, so how can I ask any of them to be straight?

I would end up losing my family, all my friends (ADD people do not form friends easily), my job, my place to live, and mostly my life, just by being accused of wrongdoing very publicly and in a media blitz. Never mind that I was guilty of none of it. It has never gotten better to this day, once the media hype hit. This is critical, because I have estimated my damages at over a billion dollars.

ADD, of course, is caused by ingestion of too much human blood and semen, lifetime. Going to Holy Communion daily for many years in Catholic grade school, I actually suspected at age 10 or so that there was some sort of a drug that caused obedience involved. By age 14, I was an atheist, but knew nothing about my having been right all along. I reasoned that if the eucharist was an obedience drug, then the whole system of religion was lies and Satanic, not just ministers helping people and telling their truths.

My regular (non-psychiatric) doctor asked for my psych diagnosis, and this is it: ADD (Attention Deficit Disorder) caused by prolonged and repeated abuse spiritually, (the medical technical term, ingestion of human blood and semen, rather than the religious word.) Lifetime huge infection of DNA from other people since age 8. Caused systemic developmental disability, and is technically terminal (suicide).

Treatable palliatively, but this is an area of research that is PAGE B-12 forbidden out of respect for the religious profession. As a result, treatment must go outside of all known and published studies and research, necessarily. My comments:

I went into psychology as a part of the future influencing the past, perhaps. It appears now that even UW-Milwaukee realized it. Explaining medical spirituality to me, which I argue that they should have done, may not have helped my case in development (I was badly damaged), but would have enabled me to have more time in my life that is of use to me. It cost me 20 years wasted, from 1970 to 1990. The question is not whether ADD is caused by abusive medical spirituality. The question is to whether that is its ONLY cause. If so, that would at last indicate both a causation and a remedy for this unknown disease.

This results in my Orders as Pagan Bishop, that you teach your children how that all works, before the age of 5 or 6. Because of the wrongs done to me, I have called the Masons a street gang that uses addiction to human love instead of heroin to control its members. That would appear only too true.

Attention Deficit Disorder, ADD, is in its extremes the inability to relate to other human beings on an emotional level. The inability to bond, feel love, or give love. In lesser doses of ingestion of human DNA, its only cause, the person is scatter-brained, absent-minded, and said to be "their own worst enemy". You cannot pay attention, because paying attention spends or "burns" love, and you do not have any. The "vampires" have sucked all of your love out of you (see Gnosis, NZ9F.com/Gnosis.) So, your thinking and concentration drop off. Often there are underlying self-destructive tendencies, subconsciously. ADD is a disease of affect, emotion. Root word of affection is affect, as in love. To be stricken with this disease is to be emotionally castrated. To be intentionally sticken is the worst abomination of human behavior imaginable.

Added Feb. 22, 2012: When unjustly convicted of Felony Fraud in 1982 thru 1984, three members of my jury were heating and air conditioning competitors. A jury of my peers, for sure, but they had a vested interest in my being put out of business. I only know that because I functioned as a Member of the Bar when preparing legal cases for inmates in Wisconsin, and asked for my own case records. I could have thrown them into the trash, losing them forever, but I did not. I wear my unjust conviction proudly, as an example of how truly evil and corrupt the system is. I requested a pardon, twice, denied, but will never again do that. My trial itself was fraudulent, not my behavior.

Somebody needs to run this by Hon. Fran Wasielewski in Milwaukee, who was my attorney for years until being charged herein. I could not use him as a lawyer, because he had recently become a judge. If I had him for a lawyer, likely none of this would have ever happened.

As it sits, I seek to have the Masons found to be a terrorist group, like they are considered in Mexico, and to have their funds siezed and members monitored as enemy agents. That would help end government corruption a whole bunch.

Added Feb. 24, 2012. One of the times I almost got apprehended as a scapegoat is an interesting story. Around 1987, I had just finished a week of installing a huge heating and air conditioning system for one of Milwaukee's suburban police chiefs, and took off for a weekend of camping in Northern Wisconsin. Three hours into a five hour drive, I needed sleep and could find no rest areas. I pulled over in front of a rural home, and slept. I got woke up by the police, who accused me of killing a little girl there a day earlier. The lady who lived in the home even identified me as the culprit. Fortunately, I had been with a whole lot of cops a day earlier, who were playing cards while I installed the Chief's furnace. They had to let me go, but the police who arrested me that day said, "It's sad when people like you get away with murder." They did not believe my story, nor even the Chief and his men.

Regarding my difficulties with the Masons and other Mafias, what happens now is that Society gets punished for its crimes, I PAGE B-13 suppose. I have argued that punishment of society itself is inappropriate, because there is too much collateral damage. Restitution would be sufficient punishment for those crimes committed against myself. As this will all likely get ignored, well, it is not my call to have a city vaporized, or all of the communications satellites fall to earth, or nerve gas killing millions. It would be inappropriate for me to be involved at all, nor call any shots there. The point, however, is that society will still owe restitution, even after it receives whatever punishment is handed out. I seek to make any punishment unnecessary and do not wish harm. Call that a plea bargain. I do not look forward to any of this. I clean things up.

Feb. 25, 2012 Preliminary findings of GB are that I am within my rights here, there is no court of law that would be appropriate, and they will help get justice. I am arguing for no punishment, just restitution. Since that will almost certainly not happen, that means punishment will occur. And, after punishment, restitution would still be due, but I will actually be blamed for the punishment, making restitution even less likely. That results in another round of punishment. We apes are so stupid that it is a wonder we still exist. Wise up, guys. I am only asking for what would have happened without your interference.

The whole thought of the Gnostic Brotherhood operating as a terrorist group, like the Masons do, frightens the piss out of me. I have been careful never to speak of how we communicate, lest Al Qaeda or other terrorists learn something important.

Gesu Church

First a complete history of my victimization, then a letter to my former pastor, and a summary including what good came out of it all. John Kitchin, NZ9F.

The Gesu Story (for an explanation of Gnosis, see NZ9F.com/Gnosis.)

When the Masons, Protestants, and Mormons put me out of business by unjustly convicting me as a "scapegoat" to protect their people who really were criminals in Milwaukee's heating and air conditioning industry, they used a Media Blitz to bias any jury I might receive, also losing me all my friends. Gnosis was used so heavily upon me that I developed mental problems, saw a psychiatrist who made everything worse, and at trial the use of gnosis was so extreme that I could not even think straight, much less properly advise my lawyer.

It has often been said that most people would have committed suicide. I didn't. I was crushed to discover that the news media is corrupt and mostly lies, but I still believed in God. I sought comfort in religion, joining the Gesu Church Choir at the Roman Catholic Church on the campus of Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. What a mistake!

I auditioned for the choir, showing them my rich Baritone voice. I had played piano, and so could already read music. I attended many choir practices, sometimes 5 a week, performed free in public shows, and sang the 6 choir Masses each week, going to Communion at all of them! Nobody warned me about that.

Gesu was reeling from a scandal where Pastor Doug Leonhart became replaced with a new priest, Andy Alexander, who had a beard. He openly dated women, and even visited the choir at my invitation, which no pastor had ever done. Good public speaker, good liturgist especially baptisms, and well-liked.

Due to the choir, and getting fed a lot of Holy Communion, I was having sexual and emotional problems. Some of the same difficulties that happened when I had been charged with crimes I did not commit, years earlier. Some members of the choir thought I was gnostic, being educated and well-groomed, so they either gave to me or took from me a huge amount of love. Since I was swallowing a huge amount of eucharist, that was easy. It was a roller-coaster, though, so I thought I might be bipolar (manic-depressive). As it turns out, there was nothing PAGE B-14 wrong with me except becoming victimized by Gesu, which was overloaded with gnostics because of being on a university campus. And, their eucharist was both over-powerful and over-crowded. In time, it made me quite crazy.

Ultimately, Pastor Andy had a talk with me about my craziness, thinking I might be high on drugs. When he found out that I was not gnostic, he sent me to an abusive psychiatrist to cover things up. On probation from the unjust conviction years earlier, I had to comply or be sent back to prison. He needed to cover up the fact that his church had severely and extremely victimized a member of its choir. I was even hypnotized sufficiently by the eucharist and prescribed drugs that I brought $145,000 into the choir loft, and lost it. I also forgot all about it.

I knew that the church, and especially the choir and Pastoral Council, were a huge sex club. I did not know why or how, but I knew that everyone was having sex with everyone else. I did not know that Andy had been sent to Gesu to put a stop to that.

His psychiatrist prescribed anti-memory drugs, and now I know why. He was trying to keep my Genetic Memory from coming out. That did not work. Choir Director John Weissrock, who had a sexual relationship with a cat, had his hands full one feast day, perhaps Easter (Christian Passover) or Christmas. Enormous liturgy, he had his hands full with passing out sheet music, turning pages, adjusting microphone volume levels, and playing his huge pipe organ at the same time. I stood at First Tenor position in the choir, so I could be seen by everyone, and helped him direct.

I prescribed the beat, keeping time for the singers, musicians, and even the hundreds of Jesuit priests up at the altar. All eyes on me, the focal point of the liturgy. Since there were spiritual heavyweights wall-to-wall in an enormous church, focusing on me, that jolted my Genetic Memory. You see, my DNA was never in food or eucharist consumed by them, but I had consumed a huge amount of their DNA for years. The process does work in reverse. Their love flowed to me. Massively.

I started to remember "past lives" and how gnosis and ministry work. Trying to make sense out of it all, as it was gradual, I played around with a scavenger hunt. I found an empty box that altar breads (hosts) come in, and into that box I placed a new and unopened condom. I knew that had something to do with what was going on, but I did not know what. Honestly. I took the box into Andy's office to ask him, and he had me arrested on a Probation Hold. Back to prison.

Andy had had me arrested quite often, as he was trying to prove that I was crazy, stubborn, something like that. Anything he said got believed by the police. He got believed by the news media, too, and had a Front Page News article written about me, called "Mentally Ill Cause Problems For Churches", by Marie Rhode, Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel, June 10, 1990, Metro-Milwaukee section. Not one word of it was true. It said I was throwing fruit at the altar. Any friends I had were quickly lost. People believe what they read in the newspaper. The affections of my family were lost, too. This sort of thing is why Rev. Andy Alexander, S.J., warrants being chewed out in public.

I ended up fighting in court, only to be arrested on a Probation Violation each and every time I made a court appearance. Along about this time I learned that I could be cured or at least treated for my emotional problems if I could manage to get into the eucharist, even at a different church. I went back to the only 2 other churches I ever attended in my lifetime, Blessed Sacrament (grade school) and St. Aloysius (as a baby, baptism). Aloysius told me they could use me in their choir.

I sung there a year, and they knew I was gnostic, so they had me explain gnosis to any new person who was to be added to the eucharist. Myself, however, they did not permit to participate in that. Ultimately, I was insulted and left. What I knew then about gnosis was only 5% of what I know now.

Still looking for participation, I joined an Ancient Pagan Church of the Gnostic Brotherhood. The Bishop immediately recognized me as a religious victim. However, instead of shunning religion, as most people do when victimized, I wanted to become a minister and help straighten out the church business. So, at a major meeting of clergy, I was unanimously elected Bishop, 208-0. They explained to me that the primary function of clergy supervisors is to prevent the public from becoming victimized, and who better to do that than a religion victim. Sort of like the crime victim who becomes District Attorney.

This was the consolation prize, of course, as everyone present knew that what I all went through could not be survived, long term. So, is the loss of myself and what I might have become a great loss? What about my 30 years of suffering followed by 20 years of partial recovery? I am not as bad off as I thought, but still under 1% of what I should have been.

The real kicker, for good or bad, and believe it or not, is that this whole ordeal angered a group of UFO aliens (Atlanteans), who risked their lives and landed to talk to me in rural Wisconsin. That is an extreme violation of both their laws and our own. I watched the Mormon Men Of Black (MOB) investigate and clean up the following day. Lots more that I cannot say.

So, are the Catholics going to kill me? They would anger 65 million Ancient Pagans, all of them gnostic and well-positioned undercover in society. Might start a whole new religion. I do not care about that, but do not want it to drag the Gnostic Brotherhood into the mud with the other religious mafias. I am proud to represent the one religious "mafia" with ethics! (for a discussion of the religious mafia groups, see Gnosis Page, NZ9F.com/Gnosis.)

I am not the only victim, either. John Tulley, their religious education minister, ended up in a mental hospital over what was done to him, and he was their employee!

My judgement in this matter is that the Jewish Cabal, Mason Knights Templar, Roman Catholic Church, and Latter Day Saints pay two billion dollars in Criminal Restitution. You refuse? Okay, but my best bet is that the GB will tear your guts out. Anyway, whatever money I get always goes to feed and clothe the poor people and starving families, anyway. I do not even feel pleasure from money anymore nor what it can buy. Just makes things easier to do. I would give myself a nice vacation, but that is along the lines of recovery, not greed, and recovery buys more ability to be effective.

I am not ordering anyone to do anything, but I have ordered parents to explain gnosis to their children before they enter the First Grade. This will minimize the number of people who suffer my fate.

As for the homeless, Gnosis causes ALL homelessness. I cover that on Gnosis Page and in the February 2012 edition of the San Diego Homeless News, NZ9F.com/SDHN. It is befitting that I should be homeless, and fits right in. I served 16 years as Chairman of GB before becoming homeless for 4 years now. Anybody know what that means? Take a guess. I am not the only prophet out there, you know. You need to have somebody else tell you, not me.

I understand the public being out of touch, but why are the gnostics also out of touch? Has stupidity become our national pastime? John Kitchin, NZ9F, Chairman of the Gnostic Brotherhood.

This is written to Rev. Andrew Alexander, S.J., former pastor of Gesu Church, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on the campus of Marquette University. It speaks of my becoming a serious victim of religious abuse there.

Andy, it's been 22 years since you and John Kitchin at the choir of Gesu Church. You thought my "craziness" had something to do with dope, but it did not. It was all eucharist, although the problem was only exacerbated by Gesu's powerful eucharist, and not caused by it. Causation goes back to Catholic Grade School, and daily Mass for 8 years, ages 6 to 13. This caused PAGE B-16 extreme ADD (Attention Deficit Disorder) making me particularly sensitive to DNA. It also ruined my life, and I am getting treatment for it to this day.

I never suspected that Margi Peterson might be in a lesbian relationship, as she spoke so well about wanting a husband. Credit her with being a good liar, key to any ministry. You were the one who taught me that no one in the profession believes in God, an important lesson to learn, when you told me that I was welcome at your church (near the end of the whole debacle) and then told a judge the opposite, under oath.

You had a real problem with me, as I could not at that age and with my extreme intelligence be brought into the Gnostic Brotherhood, especially at a church with far too many gnostics. The question I ask myself is if I could have done any better, because if not, then I have no right to lecture you. I think so. Here is an even better and more productive question:

How do we keep people from becoming extremely well-educated and intelligent, plus also knowing nothing about gnosis? People like myself put an end to that stuff as a secret, because we need to expose the lies of society, and that is the best starting-point. It does lead to the Cynic Philosophy being correct, however. So a pastor lies in order to get people to have children, thus damning more poor souls to Hell which we call Earth. My opinion? No, reality that we all try to avoid.

Involving my mother was not a particularly good move, and could have gotten you hurt at that time. Other than that, all of the "violent scenarios" are and were, as you know, ridiculous. I was so sheltered by my gullible and not-very-bright mom that I never even realized that the news media was lies and a scam until they started telling lies about me. And, of course, the moment I objected to it all being untrue, I got "accused" of the "crime" of being mentally ill, and thus not seeing it clearly. Gee, that would actually be a lot better than the truth. All of these things happened before I ever entered Gesu, but eventually the entire corrupt and nightmarish structure of society became exposed. You actually helped, but also helped instill enough anger and resolve in me that you created a major problem for society itself. And also for me? Could have been handled a lot better, even by me, knowing what I know now.

You learned by the experience, but getting back to the relevant question, how do we keep this sort of thing from happening? Society cannot survive in its present form with real many gnostic victims out there. It becomes in our best interests to be the whistle-blowers, even to the extent of explaining gnosis and corruption to everyone, in a believable way. And, to de-fuse the eucharistic hyper-gnosis (hypnosis) to the hypnotized.

What should you have done? Obviously you needed to explain gnosis. The huge problem is that all sorts of other things would have come out, and at age 37, having been convicted unjustly of felonies and losing a million-dollar company merely because gnosis was used extremely abusively upon me to do so, well, that is probably terminal (suicide). A lot of other things I knew about, such as the choir and church being a big sex-club, and I even knew about the anti-eavesdropping device you activated in your office. I have installed those.

Clarence, an investigator for LDS (the Mormons) was using a listening device, and you thought I was using dope and wanted to protect me from knowledge like that getting out. So, thank you, but I was not using dope. I often used a very small amount of alcohol, continuously, to minimize the effect of eucharistics, and even cocaine has been therapeutic. I learned of cocaine while studying psychopharmacology, the psychology of drugs that are psychotropic, at UWM. Both drugs are potentially highly addictive (alcohol and cocaine) so the dose level is critical.

Your primary incorrect behaviors as Pastor of Gesu were to not explain gnosis when your church victimized a member of its choir using same, and then trying to cover it up with the involvement of my hypnotized and brainwashed mother, lies told to enlist the cooperation of the corrupt side of the Mental Health system, and, of course, your crowning glory, the involvement of PAGE B-17 the corrupt press and Marie Rhode of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, in her article containing no truth whatsoever and making me look like a basket-case. Nice work, fuck-head! You were a reign of terror! (Local News section, front page, June 10, 1990, "Mentally ill cause problems for churches.") Behavior like that warrants you being chewed out in public by a Bishop, and that be me, nowadays.

What would I have done? Well, I would have had a better evaluation of the situation. Your intel was abysmal. None of it correct. If you have a bunch of gnostics at your disposal, it is not that difficult to assign them to tasks in return for their participation. What I did is to join an all-gnostic religion, so that is no problem anymore.

The only thing more evil than the Whore-of-Babylon Roman Catholic Church is perhaps the Baptists, Jehovah's Witnesses, or Latter-Day-Saints. Truly Satan in action! In all fairness, however, it should be you, and not me, that lives on a sidewalk in San Diego. I could have had a better life if my parents were not so stupid, and without people like yourself causing that to happen. Holier than thou? Much obvious. The good that came out of it all is that I got angry enough to lobby the news media and make the priest pedophilia scandal hit the news.

Summary, including the good things resulting:

It took me 22 years to recover from Andy and Gesu, but I was pretty damaged before I ever met them due to the Catholic Church feeding me a huge amount of "Holy" Communion for years. Gesu merely made that damage worse, plus refused to help repair it, and instead intentionally made it worse, nearly making me a real nut-case. The church was a sex club, the choir even worse, and the Choir Director was having an affair with a cat. They did have their hands full, because of the presence of Marquette University, and the excessive knowledge of Gnosis (how blood and semen are added to food in order to benefit those who it belongs to). PAGE B-18

When excessive eucharist victimizes a member of the choir who knows nothing about the process, it becomes the duty of that church to straighten it out. Instead, the use of gnosis was used abusively in order to intentionally create mental illness, in an attempt to cover up the abuses which were rampant. In addition, a crooked psychiatrist was used, under threat of jail for not cooperating, to intentionally prescribe medications to increase the eucharistically-induced mental illness. Even the family of the victim, myself, was told lies about what was going on. There were failed attempts at committing me to a mental hospital as well.

Gesu repeatedly had me thrown into jail, disrupting my life, for no other reason than it wanted me to obey anything it demanded and shut up about the abuses. The apogee of the abuse occurred when Gesu had a completely false and slanderous newspaper article printed on the Front Page (Metro Section) of the Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel, claiming that I did such ridiculous things as throwing fruit at the altar, a complete lie and fabrication. I was made a scapegoat for the many things that were going on at a whorehouse that pretended to be a church.

The good things which also resulted are that I got so angry that I helped write and publish news articles about the unrelated Priest Pedophilia problem of the Catholic Church, lobbying the news media for years, and that the victimization process at Gesu made me quite gnostic. The Masons offered me a job as a jailhouse snitch within their Courthouse Group in Milwaukee, which I turned down as too demeaning and beneath my station in life, because of how they had previously victimized me (see NZ9F.com/Masons). I got befriended by a group of UFO aliens as well.

The victimization at Gesu also resulted in my going into ministry, becoming elected a bishop in Ancient Paganism, and I even have a marvelous web page on "God's Holiest Sacrament" of Abortion. Always credit those whose horrific behavior also results in good. Some of this is the legacy of Pastor Andy, who, for example, taught me that no minister believes in God. Important thing to learn.

John Kitchin, NZ9F

ME, and ME2

I present the condensed version of all this, as it is lengthy.

From the San Diego Homeless News, Feb. 2013:

How Intellectuals Become Homeless

My Personal Story, Ruled "Typical"

There are many of us, but none as public & outspoken as myself

Note that it took 30 years to be ABLE to write this.

The Story of How I Became Homeless, by John Kitchin, NZ9F

Called A5A Services (or A-AAAAA Services), patterned after Goodwill Industries, I operated a nonprofit sole proprietorship that was a place which employed 26 people who probably couldn't get a job anywhere else, for a variety of reasons. President Reagan had the country in a Recession, and many of these people were too young, too inexperienced, too old, or even too intelligent to get a job. Myself included. Nobody would hire me.

Appraised at $40 million in today's dollars, I ran it as a heating and air conditioning business, primarily to employ people as telemarketers, selling the cleaning of home furnaces. I learned something very disturbing, early-on. Certain elderly people became very disoriented in winter if they had exhaust leaks into their home from furnace equipment. Even extremely small leaks gave them some of the symptoms of Alzheimer's! I wanted to look at every furnace in Milwaukee and test for leaks. I believe it to be caused by oxides of nitrogen, NOx.

The problems with the heating and air conditioning industry in Milwaukee at that time (1982) were severe. Both Trane and Northwest Heating were selling furnaces, financing them at rates they knew the homeowner could not pay back, and then foreclosing on homes. President Reagan asked NBC News to cover that story, especially as it may concern the elderly. I had a lot of elderly clients because I tried hard to find which ones were choking on the flue gas of their present heating system and did not even know it. The NBC affiliate in Milwaukee was WTMJ-TV4, and Gael Garbarino Cullen, news reporter and the wife of Milwaukee City Councilman Steve Cullen, became assigned to do a story on it. It became a total all-out Media Blitz, called the "Furnace Scam".

I ran a very honest company, and never took anyone to court to obtain payment, much less foreclose on a home. A fair number of elderly people who desperately needed a new system, plus a number of Black churches, got one free. I was a nonprofit, in function. News reporter Garbarino made me look like somebody worse than Hitler. For example, "mug shots" of me were shown on television, even though I had never been arrested for any crime in my life. Made me look guilty. All that I found out makes me puke to this day, literally.

The Church Groups: To the Mormons, I was a business competitor, and convicting competitors unjustly of crimes is how they handle competition. They sent out agents to many of my customers to try to convince people that I had somehow cheated them. Mostly they failed, because although many of my customers were elderly and could be talked into a lot of things, the bulk of them were smart, not stupid.

The Jewish Cabal played a major role in this as well, in 3 ways. PAGE B-19 First, the "Peer Review Board" of the Jewish so-called "Better Business Bureau", which is a group of business competitors that have a vested interest against competition, started spreading lies about what I was doing and how I was doing it. Secondly, the Jewish television media made me look both unethical and criminal, demanding action from the local District Attorney. Third, the cabal themselves, in the form of such groups as Court Watch, jammed the courtroom at my trial, abusively interfering "spiritually" (medical term, not religious) so intensely and so extremely that I could not even think straight, much less advise my attorney. (For a discussion on how that is done, see Gnosis Page, NZ9F.com/Gnosis.) They actually had several expert witnesses lie at my trial! Two of them have since apologized.

I ended up being unjustly convicted of fraud, and could have been sent to prison for 50 years. It was a media circus, with many public lies told about me, causing me to lose all of my friends and the affection of my family. Abuse of the TV news media, and the press, and the Criminal "Justice" System, as well as the maximum possible abuse of psychiatry and extremely excessive abuse of gnosis were all simultaneously used, in conjunction with political corruption and abuse of power. For example, Spirituality was used so excessively that I could not even coherently advise my attorney at trial!

It came out in trial that I charged more than my competitors, but it never came out that I included the first 20 years of maintenance, repairs, and even air filters for the heating and air conditioning systems purchased. And, that this warranty passed on intact to any new owner of the home. Since 50% of a furnace purchase is the equipment, and the other 50% in cost is repairs and maintenance, my price was a very good deal. I personally came out annually to inspect, maintain, and adjust each one (I am an engineer). There was the idea in trial to make me look criminal, overcharging people for systems. It also never came out that my "business" was a non-profit sole proprietorship, which taught indigent and disadvantaged people to tele-market, sell, repair, maintain, and install heating and air conditioning systems. It never came out that I had 20,000 well-satisfied customers, either. I wanted to enter my entire business records, intact and unedited, into evidence, but that was denied.

I could have explained all this and been heard except for the abuse of gnosis. It also never came out that my original thrust was to find the elderly who were victims of breathing the exhaust from their defective heating systems all winter in a closed-up home.

Two expert witnesses were to testify on my behalf, but backed out at the last minute, saying they were threatened. My lawyer knew about all that, and even more sordid information such as jury tampering and bribery, but told me that I could not pursue that avenue, because, "I want to continue to practice law after your trial is over." At least he was honest about it. I was formerly a police detective, and found wiretaps on my telephone lines, a shotgun mike eavesdropping system across the street, and way more. I generally figured that I had nothing to hide, plus we do not intentionally convict people unjustly. Very wrong.

I did my own investigative work, and I realize that people are considered guilty until they prove their innocence. I found illegal wiretaps, abuse of Spirituality in my office (although I didn't know what that was, then), bribe money paid to news producers to purport lies, and way more. Very extensive corruption, right down to sexual favors.

I did spend time in prison, and that was an education unto itself. At least 80% of everyone in prison did not commit the crime that they were sent there for. Minimum! How do I know? I volunteered as free legal counsel, and found that many had absolute and irrevocable proof that they did not commit the crime: Things like ATM receipts, picture included, that prove they were someplace else. And, when I contacted the press, they always made matters worse. They were in on the corruption. In fact, they were often responsible for the corruption!

The Masons are society's "scapegoat finders" that fabricate evidence to unjustly convict people of crimes, resulting in 80% (or more) of prisoners in our prisons having been unjustly convicted. We are just realizing the extent of all that, on crimes where DNA evidence was collected. The only thing worse than being a major crime victim is never knowing who did it, so they provide a scapegoat, giving the victim somebody to blame.

Many have been unjustly convicted of crimes accidentally, but I was intentionally unjustly convicted, losing a business worth $40 million in today's money. As an intentional and not accidental victim of the legal system, I indict the Justice System itself, which is worthy of my disrespect for being the piece-of-shit that it is.

One of the times I almost got apprehended as a scapegoat is an interesting story. Around 1987, I had just finished a week of installing a huge heating and air conditioning system for one of Milwaukee's suburban police chiefs, and took off for a weekend of camping in Northern Wisconsin. Three hours into a five hour drive, I needed sleep and could find no rest areas. I pulled over in front of a rural home, and slept. I got woke up by the police, who accused me of killing a little girl there a day earlier. The lady who lived in the home even identified me as the culprit. Fortunately, I had been with a whole lot of cops a day earlier, who were playing cards while I installed the Chief's furnace. They had to let me go, but the police who arrested me that day said, "It's sad when people like you get away with murder." They did not believe my story, nor even the Chief and his men.

Lessons Learned:

Learning that all government, including the Criminal "Justice" System, is six million percent (at least) corrupt caused me to lose faith in everything I believed in. I saw corruption as early as the university, where many organizations wanted to get bogus research published to further their political goals, in return for million-dollar grants. I thought that to be the exception, not the rule!

I believed in the law, religion, the truth of the news media, and all that, until one day the media started to lie about me, and the lies continued. I was very upset, especially because something I held sacred had been compromised. I always depended upon the television news to tell me what was going on, and what I needed to know. And, of course, we do not unjustly convict people of crimes, do we?

My Ruling:

My judgement is that the Jewish Cabal, Mason Knights Templar, and Latter Day Saints pay Criminal Restitution, jointly and severally liable, for the crime of Intentional Obstruction of Justice. I ask a minimum of one billion dollars in very fair damages, all things considered, and an additional billion dollars, pro-rated over time, for each year past January 1, 2013, that it takes to resolve this. (This is $83 million a month.)

Sincerely, John Kitchin, www.NZ9F.com/Me.

Me2, The Story of My Suicide.

- 1.) Why am I committing suicide?
- 2.) What could have happened differently which could have prevented this?
- 3.) Can anything still be done to produce a different outcome?

Introduction: I am asking for help from attorneys regarding my homeless problem. The story on how I became homeless is at PAGE B-21 www.NZ9F.com/Me. I am a victim of religion, the press, and the justice system. This will probably require an extra-legal deal, the sort negotiated with the Mafia. The REAL Mafia that runs the churches, hospitals, and television stations, NOT the Hollywood Mafia of the Sopranos and Godfather. My deadline for suicide is in about 90 days (Oct. 30, 2013)*, and I am attempting to do everything I can to avoid it. Psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, friends, and ministers have all weighed in, and asking lawyers is the last resort. So far, we have lawyers giving me, a psychologist, psychological advice. That is like me giving lawyers legal advice! *(6 months overdue)

To go on my tombstone: "I did much for society, but society never did anything for me." This is both an epitaph and a cause of death, by the way. I would like my body taken out with the trash and buried in the city dump, to symbolize how useless and worthless human life is. I am actually in very good spirits, healthy mentally and physically, not depressed at all, and looking forward to getting this over with, one way or another!

1.) Why am I committing suicide? I am not getting whatever minimum needs I have, economically, and have thousands of problems which have accumulated over the years that I have been unable to do anything about. Also, I am now sufficiently damaged from homelessness, mentally, emotionally, and even physically, that suicide makes a good choice. Over 50 professionals agree, and you must consider that any of them can get into license trouble as a result of being honest. This is largely goodbye, so do not feel bad that you could not change that. My strong suit is ideas, with hundreds of thousands of my ideas adopted by society, which is why Girls Think Tank puts up with my flamboyance. After my death, it can be revealed what editorials I wrote, whose name was placed on them, and all of my ideas have an email date-stamp.

I may have a lot to offer, but society never gave me anything. What do you say to the man evicted from his penthouse, now penniless and living on the sidewalk? Find Jesus? You would have liked my boat. Above all, and the single biggest problem, is that I gradually found out how corrupt society is, more and more, and now what I know would make you puke.

Society and the human race have absolutely no right to exist, and helping society prolong agony upon the 90% that it causes to suffer makes you a Party To the Crime. I can go into the specifics of the hundreds of daily insults, and the whole story of damage, and what I do not get that I need to survive, but that is both boring and horrific. I wrote a book on that, sent it out to a publisher, and the professional agent they assigned to read my book committed suicide. I destroyed all copies of it. Your imagination cannot fathom a tenth of it, because you would have to have been victimized in this way to understand. I can be as specific as you wish, as distasteful as this is.

2.) What could have happened differently? I do not regret any of the many choices I made in my life. Every one of them was correct, the best of all possible choices available. Being excessively intelligent was my biggest drawback. When conventional I.Q. tests could not measure mine, the nuns in Catholic grade school called in several nuns who were psychologists to give me 4 days of special one-on-one testing. On the 3rd day, one of the nuns approached me in secret and warned me that if I was too intelligent I would be given drugs and surgery to make me less intelligent. Heeding her warning, I blew the rest of the tests, intentionally.

As intelligent as I was, I got fed a huge amount of human DNA (blood and semen) in my food, and even more in Holy Communion every day for 8 years of grade school. It made me a very strange person, shut down all feelings of love and emotion, made my memory awful, erased all ability to form interpersonal relationships, intimidated me, and worse. My memory for many years is so poor that I cannot even remember any fond memories of anything.

It would have been far more difficult for me to lose my criminal case (www.NZ9F.com/Me) and become unjustly convicted if I PAGE B-22 had known anything about Spirituality at that time.

I actually badly needed to know in high school, to recover from what happened in grade school! The priests all trying to take me to bed was actually a plus, because it taught me that God does not exist, a good thing for a religion victim to know. After grade school, age 14, I stopped going to church. Public high school did not require it.

The Early Developmental problems are Catholic Grade School with the abuse of Human Spirituality, my excessive intelligence, and never learning how Spirituality works. The last one led to 3 or more additional major religious victimizations of myself, unfortunately. I would not learn about Spirituality until becoming a major victim of a Catholic Church, and I write about that at www.NZ9F.com/Gesu. That victimization taught me, at age 37, what I needed to know about Spirituality 30 years earlier. That would have prevented much of this.

And, once I learned about Spirituality, I asked for help from an assortment of churches, and they all refused me help. It took 20 years, from age 37 to 57, to recover. But, by then I was penniless and 3 years homeless. The later Developmental Problems are the process of learning just how corrupt society actually is, which is something that you yourself do not know, because you have not experienced same firsthand, as well as my experiencing additional Spirituality abuse, and 20 years of recovering from same.

Now, I am sufficiently damaged from being homeless (not these other things) that I have no dreams, no desires, no interest in sex, no aspirations, nothing. Continuation will only produce alcoholism, drug abuse, mental illness, terrorism, and suicide. Not a good prognosis, and largely incurable. That damage done by homelessness cannot be cured nor reversed. Ever.

3.) What can be done now? Educating everyone who is young and intelligent as to how Spirituality works would be a good start for society, but it has too many other problems and would need to embrace worldwide socialism to have any redeeming merit.

I would much rather die than live in an institution, especially Father Joe's or anything like that, and the blood and semen in the food makes me extremely ill because I have eaten too much of same, lifetime. It is cumulative, and causes my ADD. Over generations, it can even cause Autism in grandchildren!

I need to live alone in an uncrowded area, free from cigarette smoke because of my extreme allergy to tobacco. I also need to cook and bake all of my own meals, partially due to cost-effectiveness, and partially due to my being a very good amateur baker and chef. I also need to periodically travel by car, bike, and hiking in rural areas, and some overnight camping, preferably alone. I am probably too damaged to hold a job or operate my own business, and so my website and newspaper are in trouble.

Time to retire, become a terrorist, or die. Retirement requires money, so that option is not open to me. As a pacifist, terrorism never suited me but I have asked that 3 or more US major cities be vaporized with nuclear weapons in my memory. I just do not want to be around to see that. I doubt it will happen, but old Soviet nuclear warheads are everywhere. When Reagan shut down the Soviet Union, over one-third got sold to the highest bidder!

If I were to get the very fair 2 billion dollars I ask for, it would prove that society does deserve to exist, but even that does not compensate me for 30 years of my life being extreme torture, nor for the youth and time lost. This is equivalent to 30 years in prison. So, even the billions are a token gesture. An important gesture, though, showing redeeming social value in society.

None of this is about me. It is about society. None of this is about money, either. I did ask the Interplanetary Council to terminate our species. I rather hope they do, because it would alleviate the maximum amount of suffering. Ending suffering is why I went into public service to begin with. At least 10 people PAGE B-23 suffer for each one person doing well.

Any questions? Any Legal (not Psychological) advice? Can you help? I rarely ask for help, as I am very bright. I do not regret any decision I ever made, and how many can say that? Dr. John Kitchin

I got overruled in my determination that Society should not be punished for victimizing me the way it did. I argued that merely paying proper Restitution would be in order, and that it is highly damaging to others to punish Society. No go.

A handful of US Cities will be vaporized by nuclear weapons, or so I have been told. Sorry. I have nothing to do with it, and know absolutely nothing of the plans nor who is involved.

I am extremely mentally stable, and can always find the best solution to any problem. Hence, I rarely ask for help. Like I have indicated elsewhere, not once in my life have I regretted any decision made. How many can honestly say that?

My "mistakes" in life were not knowing about Spirituality (blood and semen added to food) and not knowing how corrupt society is as a result. I learned that when the man from the Jewish temple tells you to pay $10,000 or he will send you to prison for things you didn't do, you need to pay the money! All of this begs the question of whether society deserves to exist at all, of course.

I thought UWM (University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee) was to blame for my never learning about Spirituality, but of course they must have known that when I began there I was already too messed up from the Catholic Church to ever enter any profession, self-employment excepted. The most recent thing I learned, which nobody for years would tell me, is where people learn about it. The answer, finally given me, is from their parents. Mine know nothing about same to this day. It cost them a son, too, me, and that was not even their fault! Yes, past tense, because even if this is resolved I will attain one one-hundredth of a percent of what I otherwise could have been and become. Even with 2 billion dollars.
