REGULAR EDITON - STREET EDITION IS NOW CALLED
"HOMELESS CITY NEWS"

OUR FIFTH YEAR:

2010 - 2011 - 2012 - 2013 - 2014

SEE OUR WEBSITE FOR ARCHIVES OF ALL EDITIONS, WWW.NZ9F.COM.

No one WANTS to be homeless, and no one CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will.

Once homeless, people will need to use booze or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. SelfServatives (Conservatives) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

New Propaganda Site Imitates Our Name

"Homeless News San Diego" is operated by County & Federal Govt.

Site is okay for Government Help, but info is mostly false

The Veterans Administration, in conjunction with San Diego County Mental Health, operates both a Facebook Page and a Twitter Page with this name, and posts the latest things that our government wants everyone to believe. Then, they solicit comments, and respond to those comments. Your posts are welcome, and they will say, "Thank you. Your item has been posted", but it does not actually go onto the site. Discussions are all entirely controlled by the military, another use of Facebook to control behavior. Not a bad site to get help from, but realize that these are professional liars who work in the propaganda (psy-ops) business. The Las Vegas Rule: Big wealthy casinos mean that lots of people lost a lot of money there. Powerful nations did terrible things to get that way, too. They also covered it all up. Support Eric Snowden, freedom fighter, who made the US more honest. Lies are what causes military suicides. New Mayor, Police Chief

Next Mayoral Election 2 yrs., 9 mo.

My initial analysis is that it would be difficult to work with David Alvarez as Mayor, plus impossible to work with Kevin Faulconer. Fortunately, my inside elves told me the "Fix" would produce a Mayor Alvarez, no matter who the voters voted for. This made no sense, because the News Media and the super-wealthies who decide who really wins are all Republicans. So, did the votes actually get counted, even in notoriously-corrupt San Diego? Or, did my elves lie to me so that I would not worry? And, why did the voters in just 14 months go from a Liberal Democrat to a Conservative Republican? What is it that the voters want? I have a few answers and a few maybes.

The votes were really counted in the election of Mayor Bob Filner, due to an enormous amount of pressure and undercover agents. This election didn't matter, with both candidates nearly identical: Both from the City Council, and their votes there on a huge variety of matters were almost always the same. My take on it is that there WAS a Fix for Alvarez, but it never materialized. The election of Filner changed the playing field for voting in San Diego, and now votes are actually being counted. Even in San Diego. Voting does not matter, anyway, because any populist candidate will be thrown out by the Mob and their News Media anyway, just like Filner was.

So, how did the voters go from extreme Left to extreme Right in 14 months? Was Alvarez deemed "too Mexican" or "too Union"? No. In both the Filner-DeMaio election and the Faulconer-Alvarez election the voters voted for the older, more mature, more experienced person. Liberal, Conservative, Democrat, or Republican had nothing to do with it. Campaigning for the NEXT Mayoral Election begins in 20 months, with the Primary in 27 months and the election in 32 months. Liberals need not apply, unless they want to be charged with crimes they did not commit, and forced to plead guilty, like Bob Filner.

Being optimistic, at least Carl DeMaio did not win, and at least Todd Gloria is no longer Mayor. Having a SelfServative (new word for Conservative) Mayor will probably shorten the time that our poor are suffering from the Crime of Poverty. Working families, military veterans, the homeless, the retired, the disabled, the unemployed, the fast-food workers, the janitors, the waiters and waitresses, the taxi drivers, the street cleaners, the security guards all suffer from poverty every single day. At some point it is likely that this will produce rioting, burning, looting, and killing, and a very SelfServative (Conservative) Mayor will hasten this eventuality. My preference would be to do all this differently, but I am just an advisor, not a power-player. If Mitt Romney had been elected President, all of these problems would have already come about, nationwide. Unfortunately, the other Republican, Barack Obama, won the election, posing as a Democrat. I promise to decency, and dignity, and provide my rare, truthful insights into the blood and guts (some of it in our food) that is politics. John Kitchin, Publisher. P.S.: We are the City of the Most Homeless, except for New York City, hence we are America's Homeless City.

Regarding the resignation ("retirement") of Police Chief Lansdowne, Mayor Filner tried to throw him out, and his second-in-command, Boyd Long, took the hit, stepping down as Chief of (Patrol) Operations. He was guaranteed a higher-paying job elsewhere. Now, Mayor Faulconer has already thrown Lansdowne out, before even taking office, probably for being too liberal as opposed to too conservative. You can't win if you are the Police Chief in a Police-State. Our comments on the Lansdowne Administration being "Nazi" are found at www.NZ9F.com/Police. They mostly have to do with WW2 German Nazi sayings and rhetoric on the San Diego Police website.

Homeless Course 303, Part 5 Suicide

Far from being cowardly, Suicide is a very courageous act, and most lack the courage to do it. Society helps people wimp out, too. It is selfish, because it hurts your friends and family, but they are equally selfish in not letting you go. You may be suffering from poverty, and every day is hell, but hell here on Earth can be escaped. And, if you believe there is a heaven, hell, God, gods, Satan, and all that crap, you are a hypnotized human-chimp nut-case. Humans were assembled by inserting 18% species Gd DNA (an Intelligent Life Form) into the DNA of chimpanzees. Since chimps and Gd have 15% overlap in their DNA, we only got 3% different. Get used to it. We are curious, just like apes. We have "beliefs" which we WISH were true, we have "dreams", and we are very curious. Who made me? Where did all this stuff come from? Well, Gd (pronounced God), an alien species DID create us, but all the rest of that God stuff is bull to make you obey. Chimpanzee curiosity is not "God".

Three-quarters of all military deaths are suicide, the other one-quarter caused by The Enemy or an accident. Many military commit suicide when they find out they were lied to and used, and that the US is just as "evil" as our enemies, and probably more so. If you are really pissed-off, you might make a bigger statement killing your Commanding Officer rather than yourself. In any case, before you do anything like that, you should read how Suicide REALLY works at www.NZ9F.com/Suicide. As usual, I cover all the bases. Is Suicide really for you? Are you bright enough to whack yourself without ending up in pain and still alive for another 20 years? There are things to consider, and, of course, if the Mafia learns you want out, they will prevent it, even if they have to turn you into a vegetable. As a minister (ALL ministers work for The Mafia), my take on it is that if your life is a gift, enjoy it. If not, change it. If you need help changing your life (never mention ending it), ask. In the end, if life is hell, and a curse instead of a blessing, opt out. Tell God to go fuck himself. Suicide is the ultimate escape, and also the ultimate act of defiance, short of starting a nuclear war. You might also consider staying alive and making life miserable for the assholes who made you suffer.

Who will Prosecute D.A.?

Bonnie DuManis accused of felonies

We consider her relatively honest, for a District Attorney

Does she get to prosecute herself? Will her employees do that? Nobody? Far more honest than any of her predecessors, the problem is that honest Mayors and District Attorneys get sent to prison, so that crooked ones can help the MOB rule. Any honest lawyer is likely disbarred. I want to propose that in order to run for District Attorney, you must have NEVER been a member of the Democratic or Republican political parties, nor the terrorist Mafia "Good Olde Boys" of the American Bar Association. This would help clean up the stink of Gangster Rule where our prisons are overcrowded with innocent people who pissed off the Godfather. We need to take one step at a time if we are to keep our once-great nation from continuing to flush itself down the toilet.

Remember to tell them that you have NO income, because disability, retirement, and military pensions do not count, and you have NO way to get to any appointment, because you have no money for the bus, and no one to guard your belongings, which are too much cargo to legally carry along. Ask them to take your application by telephone. You might also ask them if they take Food Stamps to pay for healthcare, because they are trying to SELL you insurance. Before you call, check around for a good doctor and clinic, and you can use the fancy doctors that the rich people go to if you want, instead of the stinking, filthy, long-wait, poor peoples' clinics. ASK what insurance they take, and tell the State that is the company you want. Do NOT be pressured and accept wads and wads of bullshit. Dental now covers almost everything, except root canals to back teeth, and cosmetic dental implants. Eyeglasses, see Announcements, below.

Priest Pedophilia Worse Than Ever:

UN Blames New Pope For Same

<http://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/politics/vatican-kept-code-of-silence-on-paedophile-priests-claims-un-report-9109363.html>

Independent Daily News, London: UNITED NATIONS objects to continuing Priest pedophilia:

Following their interrogation of senior Holy See figures on 16 January, UN children's rights experts have lambasted the church for allowing clerical abuse to go on unchecked for decades, for its continued refusal to admit the extent of the problem, and its failure to adopt adequate measures to prevent further crimes. The investigators estimate that "tens of thousands of children worldwide" have been sexually abused by clerics.

According to the report published by the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, "well-known child sex abusers" were for years "being transferred from parish to parish in an attempt to cover up such crimes". As a result of moving rather than reporting paedophiles, "... in many countries... dozens of child sex offenders are reported to still be in contact with children".

Any remaining moral authority clinging to the walls of Vatican City was thoroughly and permanently shaken off by today's report, which captures a level of cover up tantamount to collusion in the abuse of minors by church leaders.

"The Holy See has not acknowledged the extent of the crimes committed, has not taken the necessary measures to address cases of child sexual abuse and to protect children, and has adopted policies and practices which have led to the continuation of the abuse by and the impunity of the perpetrators," said the panel, the Committee on the Rights of the Child.

The New York Times complains that Catholic Church authorities, including the Pope, explicitly rejected cooperation, imposed a Code of Silence on clergy members, and has adopted policies which increase, not decrease, the amount of pedophilia in the Church. This was echoed by the United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child, quoted above.

Help Provided (One of many)

Subject: Homeless Info To: nz9f@hotmail.com

QUESTION: Hi...I have two questions. First, is the City of SD still allowing tent sleeping on city land and two, is there still a General Relief-type assistance program? I am a SD native contemplating a move back to SD for respiratory reasons...I just can't hardly breathe up here in Denver.

Thank you!

REPLY: San Diego has NEVER allowed tents in the past 9 years, but has two winter tent shelters which we call Concentration Camps. The rules would make you puke. Homeless Activists like myself went to court against the City for three years, proved the homeless problem was their fault entirely, and we now have a Court Order (Permanent Injunction) saying that we cannot be disturbed, much less ticketed, on City property, from 9 PM to 6 AM, seven days a week. This was modified to exclude the Downtown Area. Parks are okay, except Balboa Park, which is Downtown, and the other Downtown parks. I like Presidio in Old Town.

Pretty. Weather has been 80 to 85 degrees almost every single day, but 50 at night. We had two 90 degree beach days last week where everybody took off work.

General Relief is a loan, not a grant, and must be paid back. It is about $10 a day, $300 a month, and you also get $200 a month in Federal Food Stamp money, also called Cal-Fresh, SNAP, EBT, or various other names.

You are issued a debit card, and it can be used in most grocery stores, convenience stores, and even at McDonald's and Jack-in-the-Box PAGE FOUR 7-Eleven sells whole large pizzas on EBT cards for $5.55, for example. Most people who get welfare (GR) also automatically qualify for SSI, but that takes 3 months to be approved. Everyone in the world qualifies as Mentally Disabled, Bipolar Type Two. That means homeless. SSI is $960 a month, which includes your Food Stamp money in CASH instead of on a limited card. If you have cooking facilities, it is $80 less. If you worked 5 or more of the past 10 years, your SSI is SSDI, and you get about $1,600 a month. W2 forms and tax returns are absolutely needed to apply. So, does that answer your questions? If not, write me back. Dr. John Kitchin, Ph.D., Chairman of the Homeless Board of San Diego. I am homeless.

QUESTION: Thank you John for your detailed info. I very much appreciate it.

I am a recently released Federal prisoner who has lived, when not locked up, in Colorado. I am a San Diego native who due to my COPD/asthma is actively seeking a permanent move back to SD.

I have not found any detailed info re: GR. Is this a monthly lump sum...not sure on the distribution.

Thank you again, John!

REPLY: The bottom of page E, at www.NZ9F.com/E, lists ALL companies that hire persons with felony convictions. Other than Small Businesses, and we have none of them in San Diego. General Relief is a loan, not a grant, and must be paid back. It is about $10 a day, $300 a month, and you also get $200 a month in Federal Food Stamp money, also called Cal-Fresh, SNAP, EBT, or various other names.

NOTE: We automatically withhold identities unless you specifically state that you want the information to be public. That is because very few even ADMIT that they are homeless, and there is a huge stigma attached to it.

Meetings:

The Emergency Resources Group (ERG) met early in February and disbanded. Many will join MAPSS, next meeting listed. • MAPSS, the Metropolitan Area Providers of Social Services, met Wed. Feb. 26 with 27 present. They will present a Resource Faire, free, March 19 at Father Joe's Dining Room or Patio, 15th and Imperial, Downtown. Your organization can get a free table and talk to the poor and homeless at this event, as well as networking with other organizations, by contacting James at 619-233-8500, X1150, or james.buczowski@neighbor.org. Orgs need to respond by noon on March 17. Event March 19, 1:30 to 3:30 PM., 1501 Imperial Ave. • The Rapid Rehousing Program has hotel and motel vouchers. Phone 211.

These can also be obtained from the Alpha Project, and other providers. Nonprofit Orgs are listed on our Home Page (icon) at www.NZ9F.com. • The agency highlighted this month was Family Health Centers of San Diego. They have many branches, and specialize in healthcare for the poor, homeless, and uninsured. This includes mental health, dental, and vision care. They also have case management and support groups, as well as drug or alcoholism counseling. They can sign you up for Medi-Cal, ObamaCare, and even whatever is left of CMS (County Medical Services) or LIHP (Low Income Health Program). Phone 619-515-2363 for any and all services. Their Downtown location is at 140 Elm St., 7 blocks north of Civic Center Trolley, phone 619-515-2520. They take care of diabetes, asthma, high blood pressure, breast cancer tests, cervical cancer tests, pregnancy tests, family planning and birth control, and sexually transmitted diseases, as well as general prescription and infection visits to a doctor. They DO accept patients with no insurance at all. Their hours are 8-5 Mon. thru Fri, closed noon to 1 PM. • The Problem Solving Forum featured the difficulty that it is hard to find shoes for people to go to job interviews in. Many people donate used shoes to FOR-PROFIT drop boxes, not knowing that companies sell these shoes to make money for their investors. It was mentioned that East County, particularly El Cajon City, has a good selection of used shoes at McAlister Thrift, next to the Salvation Army on Main St., as well as the Purple Heart thrift, First and Main.

Announcements:

MILITARY

Report on US and Israeli Terrorism in Syria: On March 19th, 2013 sarin gas was used in Syria near Aleppo. Many of those killed were Syrian government soldiers. Israel and the U.S. immediately blamed the Syrian government for the attacks and the Obama regime began talking about the event as a red line that had been crossed. The U.N. insisted on investigating the issue themselves and on May 6th, 2013 UN investigator, Carla Del Ponte, went public stating that evidence from their investigation indicated that it was likely the Syrian rebels that had used the gas. There was no indication that the Syrian government had launched any chemical attacks. "I was a little bit stupefied by the first indications we got... they were about the use of nerve gas by the opposition," she said. Russia's U.N. ambassador, Vitaly Churkin, agreed with Del Ponte after Russian experts took their own samples from the site, which were analyzed at a Russian laboratory certified by the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons. Unable to drive up public support for a military strike against Syria, the U.S. backed rebels had attempted to frame the Syrian government in order to build support for a NATO invasion. This means that the U.S. and its allies were willing to commit a blatant war crime in order to justify toppling Assad. (Not permitted to provide links or this website will be shut down by NSA.)

Venezuela revolution being backed by US, but failing miserably. Venezuela is also a key figure in the emerging block of Latin American countries which are beginning to speak out and resist U.S. interference in the region. In this block are Bolivia, Uruguay, Argentina and Ecuador. Remember in 2013 when the Bolivian president gave the U.S. government a piece of his mind after his plane was grounded due to his visit with Edward Snowden? Well this is part of a general insurrection that is taking place in South America right now. The U.S. government is rapidly losing control of the region and they aren't happy about that, but the fact that U.S. forces are bogged down in the middle east and Africa makes the kind of regime change operations carried out during the cold war impossible (the CIA coup that toppled Allende in Chile for example). To complicate things further China has been rapidly expanding its influence in South America and the Caribbean. This means that Washington's waning influence isn't leaving a power vacuum. Homeless Man Locked in Taco Bell Dumpster Intentionally

From the Huffington Post: Redding, California: Jacob Cook, eating breakfast at Taco Bell, overheard an employee tell restaurant manager Darrin Hailey that a homeless man was sleeping in the waste receptacle. Hailey laughed and told the employee to put the bar over the container and close the gate around it. Cook followed the Taco Bell employee outside and was shocked by what he saw. "He didn't even open the Dumpster, talk to the guy or anything, he just closed this bar, latched the gate and then walked back inside," he told KRC-TV. Upset, Cook confronted Hailey, who told the teen not to tell him how to do his job. He then ordered Cook off the property. Cook complied, but called Redding police and waited offsite until they arrived. (No one was prosecuted, and Taco Bell took no action except to defend their manager.)
