San Diego: America's Homeless City

Home of America's Finest City Slums

Papa Gambino and the First Families of Organized Crime welcome you to their Flagship City, San Diego

OUR SIXTH YEAR: 2010 - 2011 - 2012 - 2013 - 2014 - 2015

We represent the world's fastest-growing ethnic group, the homeless, the only group that gets NO protection from discrimination in employment, housing, education, or hate-crimes. We are those who suffer because the wealthy own everything.

Published by San Diego
County's 11% (330,000) Homeless Rotation, 15,000 to 40,000 (on any given day) Un-housed, and 2 Million+ Nearly-Homeless* *(Official HUD Statistic for what THEY call San Diego's "Cost Burdened". The State of California calls them "Financially Stressed.")

We go out to 180,000, usually in the first ten days of every month, more often when necessary, plus 200 of the 2-page paper street edition, "Homeless City News".

No one WANTS to be homeless nor CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will. Once homeless, people will need to use booze or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. Self-Servatives (ConServatives, Con Artists that Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

San Diego PoopFest!

Due to the City of San Diego having been repeatedly shown in court to be 100% at-fault for all of its homeless problems, the San Diego homeless now have the RIGHT, 24/7, to live on any and all City property, not just 9 PM to 6 AM. Loitering laws do not apply to the homeless, because they have a legitimate reason to be there: They LIVE on that sidewalk. The City can move them, if they give them a place to live. And, because San Diego has eliminated toilets for many years, promising 8 additional downtown toilets in 2009 but instead eliminating 9 existing toilets, only adding one or two recently, the Courts have given the San Diego homeless the RIGHT to defecate and urinate (piss and shit) on all City property, without any arrest for Public Waste Excretion, Littering, or Indecent Exposure. The City plans to arrest homeless for doing this anyway, but will have to pay very extreme penalties for False Arrest, ranging from $40,000 to $150,000 per person, like the City of Oakland just had to pay (already paid).

On toilets, the homeless have cooperated with the City for over 5 years, via the Mayor's Committee on Toilets, to no avail, and so have called for the "San Diego PoopFest", where they intentionally excrete wastes in the vicinity of diners in the Gaslamp District and Little Italy. NBC News has already expressed an interest in covering the event. The City was asked for its cooperation and to be given one year to install more toilets, but it refused. And, before any PoopFest actually happens, the homeless will be asking the restaurants to donate toilet usage instead. "You may use the toilets in this restaurant without the need to make any purchase. This is a Public Service to keep our neighborhood cleaner." We homeless also need to sue the City for cash damages for our having been homeless at its cause.

City Handling Homeless Better

It took lawsuits giving us the right to live on the sidewalk, exemptions for the homeless regarding loitering laws, and even a lawsuit giving us the right to pee and poop on the sidewalk, right in front of everybody without being punished, but the City is now giving housing to those on the sidewalk. You see, once you have housing, you are no longer homeless, and no longer have those rights given to the homeless. The City is being forced by the State to spend the Homeless Abatement money that the CCDC (Centre City Development Corporation) crime syndicate gangsters cheated the taxpayers out of, which has been sitting untouched in a bank account, some $12 million. Those homeless given housing still complain about being forced out of their "home" neighborhoods, and forced to comply with all sorts of rules and inconveniences such as what hours they must be in by, costs of transportation to their old neighborhoods, and the like. The upside is that storage, toilets, showers, and heat are now provided. Many would rather be back on the street instead. It is all about Opportunity Cost, OC. This is an Economics term regarding how much something actually costs, not only in cash, but also in inconvenience, time, pain and suffering, risk, and many other factors. Someone asked me if I wanted a place to live, and I asked what the OC was. Do I have to live in an area that I do not want to? Do I have to follow rules about who I can see? Do I have to be in bed by 9 PM? Do you think you are my mommy? I can see the point of the sidewalk being a better alternative, depending. A similar Opportunity Cost paradigm arises regarding working while collecting Social Security. I do not make enough money to survive, but if I work I make even less money, based upon OC. For the homeless, it is Location, Location, Location. Find me housing in MY neighborhood, not in Ghetto City of the Machine Gun Alley Complex. I don't have enough bullets for my gun to live there.

Police Agencies Misconduct: Update on MTS Sting of April 1

Always pay for your MTS transit pass or ticket using an ATM card. Instead of having to pay a PAGE TWO $200 fine, my bank supplied information that I had paid my transit fare, and the MTS had to throw out my ticket. It looks like they "expired" a lot of the Senior and Disabled cards early, earlier than their on-line posted expiration dates, too, but in the end, they now have agreed to print the expiration date on each Compass card, so this will no longer be a problem. A lot more questions remain unanswered, such as Racial Profiling, Racial Discrimination, ignoring the Americans With Disabilities Act, and terrorizing elderly handicapped transit riders, but some progress was made.

The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) is currently investigating MTS regarding violation of Civil Rights and has a pamphlet to help victims of their "sweeps". It advises you to show your ticket, and then ask if you are being detained or free to go. If asked to show your ID (other than for reasons of using a discounted pass), say "I do not consent to showing my ID." Persons on Probation or Parole do not have this right, and may also be subject to search. If your trolley ticket is not valid, wait to receive your ticket, and DO NOT answer any questions. If they search you, say "I do not consent to this unlawful search." In all cases contact ACLU at 619-232-2121 X7, to give your information and join this lawsuit, or got to www.aclusandiego.org/YouHaveRights.

Other police are also being investigated, so have you had problems with law enforcement officers? Have you been profiled? Has your car or home been searched? Did you feel FORCED to give consent? Did an officer either ask you or force you to give a DNA or blood sample? Did the officer have a warrant? Did an officer use excessive force? Contact ACLU right away!

The latest story I heard was from a woman in Alpine who was targeted by the San Diego Sheriff's agency when she asked for a ride from Viejas to her home in Alpine. They took her to a mental hospital on a 5150 instead, typical of the way the "Mental Health System" is abused in San Diego. This was to teach her not to use the Sheriff's transportation system for stranded people. Attempts were made to give her incorrect psychiatric drugs, she was given an incorrect diagnosis (she is 100% normal), and she was harassed and mentally abused. I understand this, as it has happened to me, and I write about it on Mental Health Page, www.NZ9F.com/MH, in the article "Strike Three".

Meetings:

The Girls Think Tank (GTT) met April 2, with 11 present. The new thrust of this group containing many attorneys is the Decriminalization of Homelessness. • New storage lockers are being constructed to replace the current homeless possessions bins. • There are 100 waiting for bins at 16th and K. • Providing bicycle storage was suggested. • GTT is working with WRAP, the Western Regional Advocacy Project. ♦♦♦♦♦

The San Diego City Council met Tuesday, April 7, and did not take me up on my offer to keep secret some of the above news about sidewalk-pooing, in return for more toilets downtown. Blame the City Council, not the homeless, for any poop mess. 8 more toilets were promised in 2010, and instead we got 9 taken out. Now the City will arrest homeless anyway, having to pay millions for improper arrests, just like Oakland did. No wonder our government is so broke. • Rapid Rehousing, the primary homeless abatement program in the US, is over 90% effective when it is a 2-year program, at causing a permanent end to homelessness. It is also 80% effective as a one-year program, but as a six-month program is probably a waste of taxpayer money. San Diego proposes a 45-day program, which will not work of course, so why not flush all that taxpayer money down the toilet, instead? Our government isn't broke, it's high on crack. ♦♦♦♦♦ The Metropolitan Association of Providers of Social Services (MAPSS) met April 22 with 19 present, a poor showing that happens whenever there are 5 Wednesdays in the month. The meeting is on the FOURTH, not LAST Wed., and that confuses people. The City and County government folks were not present. • Most agencies are now hiring, including YWCA, Third Ave. Charitable Org. (TACO), and PATH. Jobs are for a non-profit, and so do not pay well, but carry excellent Professional Privileges. • Fundraiser for TACO May 9 at 6063 La Jolla Blvd. 11 AM, $20 for a designer bowl to keep and designer restaurant food in PAGE THREE it. • Featured guest speaker is from the Veterans Administration SSVF Program, Supportive Services for Veteran Families. Agency helps any veteran (or spouse is a veteran) that has been discharged other than dishonorable. They will even go to you if you have no transportation and problems such as being in a wheelchair. Covers help with rent, utilities, security deposits of any kind, moving costs, transportation, medical care, and child care. All services are free, included in your veteran benefit package. Your income must be only half of what the average San Diegan makes, or less. Right now, the average San Diegan makes $56,700 a year, which is $28.35 an hour, full-time (40 hours a week). Half make more, half make less. So, you qualify if you make $14 an hour or less. That's a lot of money? The average American, based upon IRS records, pays taxes on an income of $50 an hour, full-time, or $100,000 a year. San Diegans make only 56.7% of the American average wage. One of the reasons that San Diego is considered such an awful place to live. Note that child support, alimony, tax refunds, court payments, disability income, and military payments such as hostile-fire pay DO NOT count as income. Contact ssvf@vvsd.net, or phone 619-961-2165, X8652 or 2033. • Problem-Solving Forum: 1.) Many families are becoming homeless, with no funds available to stop that. In San Diego, funds are only appropriated after a family hits the sidewalk first. San Diego is disorganized and not taking advantage of Housing First, and ESG (Emergency Solutions Grant) funds. 2.) There is a massive influx of new homeless persons from everywhere, or it seems that way, even though that is NOT true. Dis-information providers (PR firms) have circulated rumors that San Diego has lots of beds and help for those who travel here and are stranded or new, but no money for any San Diegans in trouble. So, nobody admits being from here, just like they do not admit being homeless. The man from San Diego who moved to New York for 2 years gets back here and says he's from New York. A bit of psychologist elbow-grease and conversation, and you can straighten out things that the surveys show erroneously. You were born in La Jolla, but you are from New York? Just where in New York is La Jolla? The reason for PAGE FOUR the Public Relations lies is that

San Diego wants federal money for all the “billions and billions of people who move to San Diego to take advantage of all that wonderful weather and sunshine!”, as if this is any sort of a reasonably good place to live. The homeless know better and stay out of here. Low wages, super-high prices, super-corruption, deep slavery, and a local Nazi regime in charge, headed by Jews. I tell tourists to be thankful they're just visiting.

Brainstorming:

Great ideas often reign, and you better take cover to keep from being all wet

The Bunny Count: How to accurately measure the Homeless Rotation, using psychological techniques. Often asked how I get the figure of 300 thousand (now 330 thousand) homeless in San Diego, I deal with a realistic group of definitions for what a homeless person is. If you are on the sidewalk one day in six months, you are homeless. What did you do with your stereo, and couch, and appliances, and clothing? If you need a storage space for your furniture and stuff, I consider you homeless. You are living without all that stuff. Some homeless rarely hit the sidewalk, but we all do once in awhile.

There is a huge rotation, and when the roulette wheel stops on your number, all the musical chairs are taken and you do not have a bed. If this happens to you at all, ever, you are homeless. One man I know lives in his aunt's garage, with no heat, no hot water, no electricity, no toilet, and the back seat of an old Pontiac car for a bed. Is he homeless? Does he get to use his aunt's shower? No, she died long ago, and left him the garage, but the house had to be sold to pay her medical bills. A few folks I know live in Tijuana and have no toilet, no shower, no water, no electricity, no bed, and a room slightly larger than a telephone booth. Are they (we) homeless? I am in this group. Sidewalk? Not often. You are homeless if you do not earn enough money to pay rent, unless you are a spouse or minor child living with family.

So, we can use IRS Records to determine how many homeless we have. Take the census, figure in the costs of housing, and incomes based upon IRS tax filings, and that can determine our number of homeless. HUD says you need $32 an hour (which is now $38 an hour) per household to live in San Diego. Since the average (median) wage in San Diego is only $30 an hour ($50 an hour average nationwide), are half of all San Diegans homeless? No, because a husband and wife can each earn $16 (now $19) per hour to arrive at the necessary money to live here. And, three full-time wage-earner roommates can each earn $11 (now $13) an hour. That happens to be Official Poverty Level, too. So, how do we measure the Homeless Rotation?

The Bunny Count keeps in mind that 70% of homeless do not admit same, and are trying to HIDE from you. Obviously, we cannot call this "Homeless Connect" or "Homeless" anything. Here is the method:

1. Use seasoned homeless to count, who know who many of the homeless are personally, plus hiding places used. 5 years minimum experience.
2. Dress the count people unusually, such as in a big green "bunny costume", and have them hand out color cards of a green bunny rabbit that say "You were counted by the big green bunny rabbit".
3. If anyone asks, we are counting intelligent people. You look like you are intelligent enough to know what is going on. Homeless are intelligent enough to not sweat to pay rent that they cannot afford. They know that, too.
4. Each person counted must KNOW that they were counted. Take as long as you need, even weeks, to count.
5. Stop and rest 2 or 3 weeks to allow the rotation to rotate and proceed.
6. Go back in plain business clothing and ask the homeless only, "Were you counted by the big green bunny rabbit?"

First count in 2010, 15,000 homeless. Second count, for verification, 20% say they were counted. So, 15,000 is 20% of the actual homeless rotation number, 300,000. This is a scientifically valid psychological experiment. We went up to 310,000 by 2012, and are now at 330,000 homeless in San Diego. A 10% increase in 5 years, but two-thirds of that increase in the past 1.25 years. So, the rate of acceleration of homelessness has gone from 10,000 per 3 years to now 20,000 in 1.25 years, an increase of how quickly folks are becoming homeless, 4.8 times more rapidly. If this continues, we will go from 330,000 to 600,000 homeless in two years.

Solutions: A shopping mall tax. A tax on vacant housing that is extremely high, forcing the rental of whatever housing exists at market value prices. A technology tax, since tech causes homeless. Lots more jobs at much higher rates of pay.

Hints and Kinks: Phishing

All persons who promise you a job, but are connected with some sort of school are "phishing" for suckers to waste time in classes and never get hired. DO NOT give them your name. Many "free cell phone" companies are doing the same thing. They clean out your bank account, order fraudulent credit cards using your Social Security number, file fraudulent claims on your Medi-Cal, get free telephones in your name, and even hack your internet accounts. They look really official, too. Facebook identifies who you are whenever you make a comment, and that information can often be shared with everyone, including potential future employers. What you write on Facebook CAN cause you to be listed as DNE (Do Not Employ) or even DNH (Do Not House), the two blackball lists that most homeless suffer from.

Part 3: College course on things taught young Ruling Class children:

The Medical Secrets

1.) Medical schools do not admit students on a basis of ability, but rather Social Rank. Certain college students in pre-med classes have the test answers in advance, for example. To get into a medical school, petition the Godfather PAGE FIVE who controls them and make a deal. If somebody is in the hospital and the Godfather wants them "whacked", you use your skills as a doctor to do that, and make sure nobody knows it was murder. This means that the Mafia does not need street hit-men with guns, as that is rather messy. They can just wait until somebody enters a hospital. Over 90% of all hospital deaths are intentional. You knew that, right?

Doctors rank very high in the Bar, as Knights, and get personal use of cocaine and unlimited Spirituality privileges. They give a blood sample every day that is taken to the hospital kitchen. Been that way ever since the first hospital.

Nowadays, medical school students will admit that the Mafia runs the medical schools. You are safest with a physician trained outside the U.S. When business is slow, hospitals cause patients to develop diseases and complications, to stay busy, treating the problems they created. Profits first, patients second.

2.) Everyone in society eventually becomes mentally ill from all the human blood and semen added to all foods that you can buy in a supermarket, and even more blood and semen added by restaurants. To counter this, you either need to work with food yourself, and insert your DNA into the food eaten by many people (such as working as a cook or bartender) or you need to make friends with someone who handles food. You can also pay money to a Cabal to do this for you.

Eating too much DNA first makes you tend towards alcoholism, drug abuse, and difficulty concentrating (ADD, Attention Deficit Disorder), with additional problems with sleep, memory, and organizational skills. Eventually you become "All Spermed-Out", and then even "Spaced Out", finally becoming Bipolar, and if not treated, Schizophrenic.

3.) Another medical secret is that antibiotics are used by the wealthy and families of doctors a lot, but prescribed only sparingly for poor and ordinary people. There are millions of harmful bacteria not even discovered yet. They may cause MS (Multiple Sclerosis) and even Leukemia. PAGE SIX

4.) All viruses were created in war laboratories, originally, millions or even billions of years ago, as weapons of war. The societies that created them, going back trillions of years in our 350 billion universes are usually no longer alive. Viruses mutate to other disease forms and species, and ALL Intelligent Life Forms have developed complete immunity to all viruses. Viruses only plague mere animals, not intelligent life, and so are not considered a major threat. They are how non-intelligent societies like humans wipe out civilizations they are at war with, including being at war with their own people.

5.) Most other nations allow people from all Social Classes to become Physicians, and the governments pay for medical school. In the U.S., it is assumed that having poor folks know too much is bad for Mafia control. Any doctor ranks high enough to cause intentional deaths without prosecution. Physicians are Knights of the Bar, and hold the same rank as Judges, Bishops, Mayors, and Godfathers. All of these can kill without being prosecuted.

Homeless Action: Cookies

Some things work very well, and others are a waste of time. A few things are actually counter-productive, and rob volunteers of time, sucker-donors of money, and cause nothing but a "feeling" that "billions of fine things are being done!" even though they are NOT. Good things that have worked the past 30 years include: 1.) New laws helping the homeless; 2.) Lawsuits, especially class-action, either for damages or for Civil Rights and similar; 3.) Cabals, Political Parties, and even Media Spin. Things that DO NOT help are Cookies, Band-aids, and Feel-Goods. National Homeless Day may help in the Media Spin category, but it is mostly a Feel-Good and a Cookie. Things like "Oh, Look at Me" and "How Wonderful This Person Is" and "Have a Nice Cookie" and "What Wonderful Things are Being Done" are all ugly shit, and above all, send Jesus to the nut-house where he and his whacko worshippers belong. All that "Cookie" stuff makes the homeless into the "Sidewalk Zoo Animals", the Human Exhibit. Trade places for a year or two and see how you feel.

News Media News:

Pressing the Press: No Wrinkles

I ran a video of the parking when the April 20 daily meeting of the press occurred at NBC-7-39 on Broadway, and trucks from all local broadcasters were there. Daily meetings are where they argue exactly what 10% of the news will be broadcast, and what 90% will be kept secret. What worried me is that the police propaganda-media team that deals with homeless issues, HOT (Homeless Outreach Team, or Homeless Obliteration/Obstruction Team) was present in the secret media meeting. More propaganda, less truth. Welcome to San Diego, America's Most Corrupt City.

San Diego CityBeat has a new Editor, Ron Donaho, and we would like to welcome him to the Alternative News media. As I have stated, although his previous San Diego Magazine is a sort of "Garden Club" publication, he is intelligent enough to head up an Alternative, without making it a Yuppie version of the old Union-Tribune. Until recently, nothing useful, but I have hope. An Editor is a person with the power to make lives better. An Underground News Editor is all about tearing down society's mechanisms of unfairness and suffering to produce a better society. An Alternative News Editor is all about making small changes to our existing system, that work out for everybody. And, of course, a Conventional News Editor is all about maintaining everything intact, ignoring and telling lies about suffering and unfairness. The more truth I discover, the more Underground I get. Occupy Wall St. (Anonymous) makes way more sense than all the Democrats and Republicans combined. Why CityBeat would want to become Disneyland Weekly is beyond me, but give Ron Donaho time, because a top-shelf Editor like David Rolland is a tough act to follow.

CityBeat also had an article in its April 7 edition on Abortion, or at least on the pill that eliminates unwanted pregnancies. Taken as soon as a woman fails to menstruate timely, RU-486 (Mifepristone or Mifeprex) blocks the blastocyst's ability to make a certain hormone that prevents menstruation, which would clean the uterus, eliminating it and any other parasites. Scientists studied native tribal cultures herbal remedies for pregnancy, some going back thousands of years, and developed this pill using the same active ingredients for the method having the fewest allergies, side-effects, and complications. There are five or six other formulae that also work well, and have at least a thousand-year track record.

Ontogeny Recapitulates Phylogeny, so all animals start out as one-celled, and proceed to become a virus, a bacterium, a fungus, an insect, then a reptile, a tadpole, a frog, a rodent, a larger mammal, then a lemur, monkey, ape, and finally a great ape such as a human (or as far as their species goes on this list.) Terminating a blastocyst that is one-quarter the size of an ant, and three times as ugly, is hardly an "abortion", the cutting with knives. Mifepristone also works with later pregnancies, permitting it to clean out larger blastocysts, the stage of development of a reptile, frog, or rodent. This requires a second pill to compete the cleanout. Baby? So far, only a cockroach.

Overpopulation makes money for the Catholic-Mormon-Republican Mafia, which controls real estate and food production. It also causes ALL problems of society, such as not enough food, too much overcrowding, real estate and food being too expensive, not enough housing, too much sewage, and of course, not enough jobs. Pregnancy test kits in most nations, available at a supermarket, contain a pregnancy "cure" pill. See www.NZ9F.com/Abortion.

The April 23 issue of CityBeat was excellent, and had Carly Nairn covering the fight for a Fair Wage (which is probably $23 an hour in high-priced San Diego) and Joshua Emerson Smith tackling the issue of taxi service. Only one editorial recently was San Diego related, on water, and Ron failed to mention that it is because of lots of new development. He did, however, publish my letter pointing that out. As for "prom" being an issue, my prom was in 1969, and we elected the ugliest and fattest to be king and queen, to show how idiotic and obsolete the whole thing PAGE SEVEN was. The one article I thought was lunatic was Amy Wallen's article about the schizophrenic hallucinations people have during near-death experiences. Our brains are wired to do that. That's "culture" in the sense of handing a sample to the medical lab.

In the Reader, which has had several great articles the past few issues, Dorian Hargrove quotes CityBeat, "What kind of racket is Civic San Diego?" The answer is simple, the Genovese Organized Crime Family. Ask Papa Gambino.

Underground Press History

Circa 1972, IHOP, the International House of Pancakes, was refusing in Wisconsin to serve Black customers. I helped get Black judges, lawyers, surgeons, senators, and FBI agents to try to get service, become refused, and then give me a story. Wisconsin revoked all of the restaurant licenses issued to IHOP for blatant Racial Discrimination.

May 1, May Day, has been a Pagan religious holiday for at least 8 thousand years, but more recently is Labor Day, worldwide, except in North America. It was also a day of protest regarding some ridiculous marijuana laws, such as 30 years in prison for possession of a single marijuana seed, years ago. In use in Mexico since the mid-1800's, marijuana was originally used by the agricultural workers who were migrants in the U.S. Early nicknames for marijuana, which is "Mary Jane" in English, were Aunt Mary, (Along Comes) Mary (as in the song by The Association), Lady Jane (as in the Rolling Stones song), and Aunt Jane (Tia Juana, city named after the marijuana trade, back when same was legal.) One of my first articles written as an adult (I published a grade school newspaper at age 10) was called "May Day is J Day", written as John Schlitz in the UWM Post, the radical underground newspaper (at that time) of the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, circa 1970. Pot protests consisted of thousands gathered in a public park, smoking marijuana. I would go on to tell folks how to install their own telephone jacks (a felony when Ma Bell was the only phone company) PAGE EIGHT and how to brew their own beer, which was Felony Bootlegging.

If you understand the Cabal System, the Prosecutors are always in the Cabals, which are the groups committing crimes, and generally refuse to prosecute fellow "Good Old Boys", the Bar or Mafia. It takes media pressure, or a powerful opposing group (competition) to actually make a prosecution occur.

Snide Comments:

The news media in Tijuana reports restaurants being busted for serving dog meat. One restaurant owner said he was just trying to get the same taste as Taco Bell. I tell the joke that my friend says he's going to stop growing beef for the restaurants, because they bark too loud, and that disturbs the neighbors. • Gato Bell tacos come in Tabby, American Shorthair, and Siamese. • I found the best way not to be harassed by Jehovah's Witnesses Real Estate Corporation and Religion: Say "I already OWN a condo", and they leave you alone. • Sleep Sedation Dentistry: Your last Sleep Sedation dentist made you pregnant? Don't worry, now that we have DNA testing, dentists use condoms. • DOPE NEWS: Jimmy the Weasel's Gun Shop, Marijuana Dispensary, and Adult Bookstore has a new offer: Buy six thousand pounds of medical marijuana, and get, free, 2 grenade launchers, 8 ounces of heroin, an ounce of cocaine, ten adult movies, and a date with Bertha. Repeat customers get to have Shotgun Willie blow away one person of their choice. Jimmy the Weasel's Gun Shop. All your marijuana needs. Got grenades? • San Diego on the DT: Delirium Tremens, the alcoholic shakes, is what older San Diegans get after too many beerfests, and barfests, and chug-a-lugs at the local brewery. If your belly is big enough to join the National Association of Pregnant Men, wobble your man-boobs down here and join Alcoholics Unanimous. We have guzzler specials just for preggos like you. San Diego shoves more beer down more throats than anywhere else except Milwaukee, the Boozer Capitol of the World. "L'Chaim!" (I think that's Jewish for "bring me 3 more beers at the same time.") Germans say "Proust" ("My beer farts smell just like fajitas.") Enjoy San Diego on the DT, PAGE NINE but watch out for your "Salud" (I think that's the Mexican word for diarrhea.) Above all, never eat those Japanese "Karaoke" rodents that bars like to serve. They smell just like used fish. •

Stuck-up people have their heads stuck up their butts, which is why they are called stuck-up. Select the correct head-lube, and sometimes their butt can fart out their head. Butts do not like having such gross things as the heads of stupid people shoved up them. •

BEER NEWS: The Beer Boozers Association reports that women consider loud beer belches to be sexy, and even louder beer farts to be both sexy and smell nice. So, keep chugging until your penis falls off! • Jesus Slaves, and the bible is God's holy book of bullshit, the handbook on making slaves. • Always remember the Las Vegas buffet rule: If it moves under its own power, don't eat it, especially if it's trying to get away from you. • The police now get a recording of everything that everyone says on any telephone or on the internet, a part of the American Paranoia Act, which is a piece of legislation from the "Patriotic Nazis Opposing Freedom" series of laws. Hitler would be proud, and run over a few outcastes or poor with his jeep, on his way to a human barbecue down at the crematorium. •

FISH REPORT: Smelly fish have been reported reeking in all sorts of places, so watch out for super-stinky slime. •
