If elections do not accomplish anything, and all protests are considered criminal behavior, what do we use for positive social change, grenade launchers? Does anybody realize how stupid it is to have to go thru such extreme difficulties just to get some basic dignity for fellow Americans? We treat rats in psychological labs better than we treat some humans.

Today's Harry Potter trick is how to turn yourself into a cat, and check into an animal shelter. The drawback is that you start to like cat food. We take far better care of our pets, and even our prison inmates, than we do our un-housed homeless. United Nations Inspectors said that people are better off in most refugee camps than in Downtown San Diego. Condemned to Human Rights Abuses: Some foreign dictator? No, the City of San Diego! Thinking of committing a crime, so you get a nice, warm jail cell, with no stray dogs pissing in your face, a bed, a sink, a toilet, a blanket, food, and even laundry service?

David Alvarez a Poor
Choice for Mayor

Mike Aguirre the ONLY Liberal Candidate

Mandate of the voters was a Very Liberal Mayor

Alvarez opposed the Winter Shelter for the homeless, more than once, helping tie up the process, and also objected to having it in Barrio Logan, when that was in his district. He also did not volunteer any City money to deal with the storage of homeless possessions. If Lori Soldaña endorsed him, it only proves that she would have been a bad choice, too.

Marty Block will not run, as he realizes that he would be ousted by the Gestapo Mafia News Media, same as Filner. Perhaps our Ruling MOB will hire some really good child actors to accuse the next Mayor of child molestation. Welcome to Reality! That is how San Diego became America's Stupidest and Most Corrupt City! Mike Aguirre brokered the legal deal between the City and the homeless that we can sleep unmolested overnight, 9 PM to 6 AM only, but cannot sue the City in the hundreds of millions of dollars for failure to provide adequate housing, as required under the California Constitution.

Of the Mayoral candidates so far, we may attempt to recall anyone except Mike Aguirre, who has shown in the past the willingness to stand up to the Real Estate and News Media Mafia, which steals about 40% of your money each month when you pay your rent or house payment. All of us predict that if Bob Filner were on this new ballot, he would be re-elected Mayor! Only around 30% of San Diegans want him out, yet around 40% voted against him. The polls said otherwise? Filner supporters did not take the polls, but his opponents flocked to them, some voting 20 or more times to remove Filner.

Mike Aguirre is the only one speaking the truth, and the rest of the candidates have people hypnotized by the blood, semen, and Rohypnal added to all of the U.S. food. Why do we have to put up with this? The voters were intelligent enough, for once, to mandate a Very Liberal Democrat, to oppose the Real Estate Mafia, Oppressive Police-State, and their Fascist News Media, and help to finally unionize San Diego. How about if we move half a million homeless to San Diego, register them to vote, and recall the Mayor, City Council, and City Attorney? It beats guns, bullets, and a civil war. We might settle for Marti Emerald, a compromise.

Important Lawsuits Pending

Occupy, Encroachment,
Unlawful Arrests

Permanent Restraining Orders requested against City

San Diego City Attorney Jan Goldsmith used trash receptacle ordinances and business-sign ordinances summed up as the "Encroachment" laws, to file charges against Occupy San Diego and other protesters, such as Activist San Diego, for their tables, chairs, signs, and even tents on the San Diego Concourse at City Hall. Never mind that area is traditionally used for political speeches, rallies, and protests. Over a year later, the Statute of Limitations on the Encroachment laws, no charges have been filed, although the arrests were quite painful, according to the legal papers.

As a result, a handful of San Diegans who were unlawfully arrested for trying to peacefully protest are suing the City, the Police Dept., and even other related alleged co-conspirators for violation of their right to peacefully protest. Evidence suggests that the police conspired and gave direct orders to ignore the First Amendment, intentionally taunt and roughly treat the protesters, administer handcuffs in a way as to intentionally cause injury, and detain for nearly 24 hours with no food, water, telephone call, etc., in as uncomfortable a position and setting as possible. According to a police officer informant, this was to set an example that protests will not be tolerated, and show the public that they do not want to be caught protesting anything in San Diego.

The lawsuit seeks an unspecified amount in cash damages, expungements of criminal arrest records, punitive damages against the City, and an Injunction which would prohibit San Diego City from again punishing those who seek to protest the wave of mortgage foreclosures and enrichment of the wallets of greedy bankers at the cost of the General Public.

Copies of the original Charging Document have been circulated among the lawyers of our legal community, and if you are a lawyer in Civil Rights actions, are available from facebook.com/M.G.onFB#!/M.G.onFB. There are several related cases pending. The homeless have called for the recall or disbarment of City Attorney Jan Goldsmith over First Amendment Rights violations, among them the felony prosecution of a man for writing a non-obscene political message on a sidewalk, using chalk. Felony?

The Editor of San Diego CityBeat, David Rolland, has also been verbally assaulted by the City Attorney, which was clearly an attempt to silence or censor the Alternative Press. Obviously, we object to any censorship of the press that does not deal with pornography.

I have pointed out many times that the only checks and balances on the police are the police-controlled Internal Affairs process, or the useless Citizen Review Board, or the news media. So, censorship of the news media would make the United States a Police-State, not a Democracy. The San Diego poor and homeless challenge the Mayor and City Council as not being the legitimate government of San Diego.

My proposal: Mike Aguirre agrees to drop out of the Mayoral race, in return for being appointed City Manager and Chief of Staff for David Alvarez. Aguirre's job is to have authority over police corruption, police misconduct, ethics, homeless liason, and supervisor of the City Attorney. Guys and gals, this would fix everything. So would electing Marti Emerald, as she is both famous for being part of the establishment, plus ironing out matters with the poor, homeless, and average folks.

Water Man Suffers Stroke

David Ross okay, but resting

Per Judge Coates: Dear Friends of David Ross, the "Waterman": A week ago, possibly as a sequel of the elbow to the head David suffered some months' ago, as he came (as usual) to the aid of a homeless woman being beaten by a huge guy -- David suffered a small stroke. Occupy San Diego 2nd Anniversary Bigger than ever, with over 2,000 Occupy Facebook sites!

From Facebook:

Occupy San Diego, in solidarity with the Occupy Wall Street movement who began occupying Zucotti Park Sept 17, 2011 in New York City, began their local occupation Oct. 7, 2011 at Children's Park in downtown San Diego. OSD moved the occupation to the Civic Center on 3rd and B St. Oct. 8, 2011. Since the violent attack of the peaceful encampment by the local police and other govt agencies later that same month - as part of a coordinated nation-wide crack down of all Occupy groups in major American cities - OSD has continued to flourish and has diversified. The original group has branched off into many other Occupy and/or specialized groups around the County and Country. • "If you crush us...we multiply." •

Today, members stand in solidarity with multitudes of activist groups and other events related to the common goal of the OWS movement - social and economic justice.

Please join us in celebrating two years of activism and Occupy with an all day celebration in Children's Park Sunday at 11am, and a MARCH Monday at 6pm from Children's Park. Sunday we will have a day in the park at Children's Park of FOOD, MUSIC, AN OPEN MIC, DISCUSSIONS, ART, SIGN MAKING FOR the MARCH on MONDAY and other UPCOMING EVENTS--including an upcoming march focused on food justice, against Monsanto, on October 12, 2013.

The goal of the OWS movement is to UNITE the 99% in the current global movement for economic and social justice. OSD invites all like minded activist groups to UNITE in Solidarity with the Occupy Wall Street movement on this 2nd birthday of Occupy San Diego for a day of COMMUNITY and REUNION where we can share our successes and exchange news and information. Through out the history of human kind, "divide and conquer" has been the modus operandi of the global elite, who now control the worlds governments, rulers, banks, media and resources. • Let us unite on this day with a clear message to the 1%: "The people...United...Will never be divided". - Occupy San Diego Central Committee
