No one WANTS to be homeless, and no one CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will.
Once homeless, people will need to use booze
or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. Self-Servatives (ConServatives, Con Artists that Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God. PAGE ONE

Quotes: If you don't want homeless people living on the streets of the city you live in, then give them

"Snide Comments": Beer News: Quaffing brews is a great way to lose your lover, your liver, and your livelihood. Beer is artificial wine, made from cattle feed. Moo! You don't get big as a cow, just your belly does. Ace Liver Transplants reminds you that unless you guzzle 40 beers a day, you're not a real man. • When you're starving, remember that rich people taste

Wing-Rats spread 3 times the disease of regular rats, because they can fly and drop virus-and-bacteria poop bombs everywhere. • Reaching out to the homeless makes people feel that they are not as responsible for the homeless problem as everybody else, even though they are. • Vote NO on Proposition YES. • A semi-colon is a person with a colon as big as a semi truck. City Plans for Homeless Action Great Step, But Flawed: \(PDF Link\)

http://nz9f.com/yahoo_site_admin/assets/docs/New_Homeless_Plans_by_the_City.316123501.pdf

New Homeless Plans by the City: $30 million over the next 3 years for private housing projects that serve low-income people, 1500 Federal Housing vouchers for the homeless only, 25 low-income apartments designated as homeless-only, $40 million spent converting 2 old buildings into housing for the homeless. Nice plans.

Federal reports rank San Diego #5 in the total number of homeless, but rely on the flawed-and-fake "Official Point-In-Time" Count, which is inaccurate by as much as 700%, and also fails to accurately define what "homeless" is.

PAGE TWO Also, it is the percentage of homeless, not the total number, that makes San Diego #1. Dealing with only the Unhoused Homeless, and not the total homeless population, is a recipe for misunderstanding and disaster! It is also a good way to "prove" that there are far fewer homeless than there actually are.

The 1500 vouchers will help, because that is the average number of persons on the downtown sidewalks at any given time. Remodeling the old Churchill Hotel is also a good idea, because it is in the Target Area of permitting us to return to our neighborhoods. And, of course, any new military program, such as Zero: 2016 is a welcome addition.

Before I list my concerns with these plans, let me indicate that in the short-run, we have way more pressing and immediate needs, such as critical shortages of showers, laundry facilities, toilets, and all-year shelters, including the need for a third tent shelter in Ocean Beach. It is my hope that the tents can be avoided in the future, instead mandating that any Convention Center expansions, new stadiums, or shopping mall improvements such as Horton Plaza include use by the homeless during those days, times, and hours when not in some other use. State Legislators, please pass such a law.

Getting on with the problems in the proposal, the largest problem is usually the failure to consult the homeless ourselves, and instead proceeding as if the homeless situation were understood by those in government, which it obviously is not. Why don't we have a committee of non-bankers re-write all the banking regulations, for example?

I see a problem, the same problem as Section 8 Housing, that a "Percentage of Income" is likely to be charged for rent. The problem, of course, is that if your income is small enough, you cannot afford anything. I have suggested that people pay a percentage of their income above $1,200 each month for rent, a more reasonable definition of "Affordable", because we have now taken into account non-rent expenses, which take priority over paying rent. Sorry, but this is a viable homeless perspective, and one that we, and also you, must deal with. Having a home is of no use if you also starve to death, for example.

The other major flaw is that, as written, the proposal favors the development of The Bottoms Ghetto, and/or other unacceptable areas, to deal with the problem the City created in tearing down our hotels downtown. This will cause more poor people to become shoved into that ghetto. I like my plan better, of suing the City, Housing Commissions, Developers, and Construction Companies (as well as current Property Owners) to force our 20% Occupancy of those buildings built with either Redevelopment or HUD money, as required by law.

The City's new plans reinforce the "Separate But Equal" notion that ghetto housing in a machine-gun neighborhood a mile away is just as good as what was taken from us. I will be working to assemble this into a Class Action Lawsuit, combining it with other Civil Rights issues, such as toilets, and hope to get legal papers filed in the near future.

John Kitchin, Chairman, Homeless Board, and Representative of the U.S. Homeless, 11-13-2014.

Lawyers Needed (PDF)

The San Diego Homeless are in need of a Class Action lawsuit to defend our Civil Rights, maximize our survivability, assure our Right To Life, ameliorate rampant harassment, and secure a future for ourselves, albeit our being marginalized and outcast(e)s. You have in the past courageously defended our honor and basic dignity by participating in this type of Action. Hundreds of us die from pneumonia and other diseases as a result of our poverty, and millions suffer unnecessarily while the wealthy ignore the problem, and use their news media to make it look like much is being done, although it is not.

Our only source of any success in the past has been either such a Class Action lawsuit, or the threat of one under such circumstances that the government(s) involved knew that they would lose same. This is an extremely tough one, because the particular circumstances involved require ruling out any Out-of-Court Settlement on several issues, plus a Change of Venue is in order. There are no Cash

Damages involved, only matters of Legal Principle.

In addition, it is unlikely that the homeless can pay for your services that we need, although Courts do award limited legal fees in Class Action cases. The case will certainly draw attention worldwide, and that can sometimes fuel careers or political ambitions. A champion of law and decency is likely to get much public support.

I will release to those interested attorneys a synopsis of our needs, reasons why, a brief history, and our legal arguments, but that information is Information of Privilege, while this release here is not.

John Kitchin, Chairman, Homeless Board, and Representative of the US Homeless, 11-27-2014.

Thanksgiving Cancelled:

Due to lack of both cash and food donations, both the Thanksgiving dinner for the poor and the food pantry help were cancelled this year at my facility in Tijuana. I feel badly about this, as it adversely impacted US veteran families, and many who lived their whole lives in the US, thinking that they were a citizen, and were then deported. They speak no Spanish, and know nothing about Mexico at all. Really bums me out. Welcome to Reality, rich dudes. Can you say "Soviet Union"? How can thanks be given to a God that does not exist? What do poor people have to give thanks for, Poverty?

Christmas Warning:

Holiday Free Meals and Low Levels of Light are two big hazards this time of year. You can get very sick from eating the free food given away at holiday meals, because of a huge amount of control-substances that are added to it. Try to avoid eating any of it. It takes 90 days to get it out of your system, and can cause poor memory, difficulty sleeping, disorganization, substance abuse, mental illness, and even suicide. Also, low levels of daylight, which occur this time of year, often cause Clinical Depression, so every year from Dec. 10 to Jan. 10 there are a lot of suicides, nervous breakdowns, that sort of thing. It was PAGE THREE the original reason for Christmas, the "Festival of the Anointed One", 40 thousand years ago, and he was generally the King or Emperor, who threw a big party for everyone, to avoid losing subjects. Even the Jews celebrated Christmas in the Time of Abraham, so Christmas is Jewish, too. Their Christmas today is the Festival of Lights, Hanukkah (various spellings), and every culture has its own customs. The bigger hazard than low light, of course, is the dope added to the holiday food. Eat a lot of that and you will be wandering around, wondering where you are.

Toilets Update:

We call for two-rundle toilet units at First and Broadway, 2nd and Market, 5th and Market, 8th and Market, and 10th and Broadway, with additional toilets to be added later, north of C St. (the trolley tracks). Don't bother us with other plans and other locations. Thank you.

Meetings:

The MAPSS (Metropolitan Association of Providers of Social Services) met Wednesday, Nov. 19th, a week earlier than usual due to the Thanksgiving holiday, with 19 present, all professionals dealing with social services. One homeless (me). • The second week in December the Presbyterian Church on Garnet in Pacific Beach will have a workshop and give out hygiene items. Exact date and time not yet known. • I promised to try to decipher the "211" holiday information and put that on a PDF for the group, like I did last year. • Veterans Homeless Tent is in the same place as last year, and got an 8 day late start, in violation of a Federal Court Order, but it is operating. Males or females, honorably discharged, show up by 6 pm. You get 48 hours grace before having to show your veterans documents. • New sheet on Interfaith Shelter Network options, as follows: ♦♦♦ Emergency Shelter Additions: San Diego City Inland South, Jorge Orozco, 619-231-2828 X104. • North County Coastal, Lelani Perrelli, 760-753-8300, 760-753-8300, X1319. • North County Inland and Escondido, Victor Hernandez, 760-489-6380 X245. • Beaches, Jasmine Jones, 619-

232-2753, X101. • South Bay, Laura Rodriguez, 619-420-3620, X1164. • East County Suburbs, Micky Brown, 619-444-1194, X310. • Clairemont and Kearny Mesa, Jessica Gonzalez, 858-565-4148, X277. ♦♦♦ • The downtown Alpha Project tent shelter, in Barrio Logan (Camp New Birkenau) went from 250 cots to now just 200, meaning larger numbers of folks on the sidewalk in the cold weather and rain. • There will be NO December meeting, because of the holidays.

Hints and Kinks: Bodily Parasites

Scabies mites (SARNA), lice (head or genital), bedbugs (fleas that infest humans and their bedding), and similar parasites are treated with a pediculicide, an insecticide intended for use on the human body. Some infestations are so easy to spread that shaking hands will do it, so most hand and body soaps contain triclosan, which is both an anti-bacterial agent and an anti-parasitic. In the past, hexachlorophene was used, but was eventually to be found very carcinogenic and toxic to brain development in children. The old remedies are kerosene or sulfur, and sulfur can still be used today. There are also home remedies that work, for example, mayonnaise kills lice, and packets of that can be had free most places that sell hot dogs, such as 7-Eleven.

Scabies, called SARNA in Mexico, is trickier because it lives a long way under the skin, so things like HCB (hexa-chloro-benzene) need to be used to kill the mites in ten minutes, or in 5 hours using the stuff in conventional insecticides, such as resmethrin or permethrin. The common lice treatment NIX will kill Scabies, but requires leaving it on overnight. Flowers of Sulfur kills all parasites, is very cheap, and can be had at most pharmacies. What has also been tried for prevention is to place a little bit of chlorine laundry bleach into the water used to bathe with. It is a secret that chlorine in drinking water is also to prevent infestation, and it works well.

Temporary itching, using the treatments other than HCB which is instant, can be reduced by baby powder containing menthol (99 Cents Store), or use any insect repellent containing PAGE FOUR DEET, such as Cutter or Off.

Itching can also be relieved using Orajel or its generic alternates, containing benzocaine, and intended for tooth pain. You can also try naproxin, an agent similar to aspirin, and sold under the trademark Aleve, and you take it orally, not on your skin.

Most applications require a shower after the bugs are dead to remove the toxic residue from your skin, and all applications cause minor brain damage from the chemicals they contain, so do not do this very often or you could become an artichoke or some other kind of a vegetable. So, "high fives", hugs, and handshakes should be minimal or non-existent. If you are tempted to dilute a conventional bug killer and use it to kill bodily parasites, note that the use of an ant-and-roach killer will probably kill you or seriously damage you, while a flying insect killer may be okay at a dilution of 50 water to one poison.

Prepared by the San Diego Homeless Board, Dr. John Kitchin, NZ9F Chairman. Not responsible for results: GO SEE A DOCTOR. In a pinch, go to Dr. Simi's Farmacia Similares in Tijuana, for a generic SARNA killer, about 2 or 3 dollars, 24 hours.

Conspiracy Theory?

Anyone using those words is either too stupid to know how life works, or they know all about that, and are trying to make YOU too stupid to know how life works. The media, ministers, teachers, and rich conservatives are in the latter group. Conspiracy Groups, called "Cabals" run everything, and they always have, for thousands of years. Fact, not theory, but a big secret. Cabals are the secret groups that put their blood and semen into all of the food that is eaten by everyone, in order to control them, and that is a fact, not a theory. Hospital Cabals, for example, take a blood sample from every doctor every day, and put it into the hospital food. Feeding your blood to others is where great memory abilities, ability to concentrate, mental stability, love, and the ability to be believed when you are telling a lie come from. Fact, not Conspiracy Theory. None of this is a theory, but rather a SECRET of the Bar (Mafia). Know or be stupid.

2: Peer Pressure, Me-Too-Ism (Bandwagon)

Peer pressure works on the desire of mammals to be normal, ordinary, and okay. We sometimes call that nice. There is an adjunct, which is normal-but-better, and we have words like pretty, handsome, well-mannered, and similar. Nobody wants to be thought of as strange, weird, different, unacceptable, as that negates the good things they possess. It is a characteristic of mammals. You don't want your daughter to be the only engaged woman without a diamond, do you? This helps sell worthless diamonds, a popular rock found in abundance everywhere on other planets. Apes like things that sparkle and shine, like worthless gold, also abundant.

The urge to be normal takes many shapes, and is reinforced by all contact with others. Everyone has their own standards as to how abnormal is unacceptable, so it's a mixed bag. Handicapped people fare the worst, as their abnormalities are obvious. The whole idea of banter in a bar before having sex is to see if they are sufficiently normal, as if that is enough time to tell anything. Normal traits include communications skills, manner of grooming and dress, sense of humor, cognitive abilities, and social and political thoughts.

Conformity is forced by making all else abnormal. Take a shower, shave, get a haircut, wear clean clothes, and stop talking about Socialism being necessary. You come off as some kind of a lunatic. We all force conformity, like it or not, but most it that is not very overt. Products, political parties, corporations, even networking media and advertising use this method of control. If the teacher makes you sit in the corner and wear a cross (pre-Christian times) or a dunce cap (post-Christian times) you are being singled out as inferior, abnormal, and unacceptable. Two thousand years ago the cross was the Roman symbol of stupidity, and those who offended the government were forced to wear one. The PAGE FIVE worst offenders were hanged from one. This is the use of a symbol for abnormality, the stray sheep.

Peer pressure is all about Self-Esteem, feeling good about ourselves and our beliefs, by thinking that we are normal, well-adjusted, good people, and successful. This does not have to be true, of course, just a belief. Usually that's all it is. So the man laying on the sidewalk hears the police say that he's lucky he lives in such a free country as the U.S., or life would be worse for him. It is not true, of course, because the North European countries (Except UK) give people enough money that they do not need the sidewalk, but it is to influence thinking.

Shepherding people into what to think and how to behave is used both in person and in the media. Not only television, but also Facebook, where the Navy uses software to be over a million fake "people" so that it can tell you what you are normal to like. Social networking sites make it look like you are being shepherded by peers, but this is not so at all, but instead controlled by the Cabals and the Secret Societies that have been assigned to change behavior. So a lecture by a Socialist speaker that really got 2 million likes says "Seen by 8. 3 Likes". Another segment about Justin Bieber that got 300 views and zero likes says, "Seen by 1.8 million. 776,000 Likes." This is not unlawful, just media politics, and you can buy whatever likes and views you want. You can also pay to eliminate them from your competitors. What did you think these websites made their money on? Advertising?

The word "Amen" is a "Me-Too" and puts your stamp on religious propaganda. Hearing yourself say it helps you to believe it is true. You don't want to be the only one who thinks God is all a bunch of shit, do you? Get on the bandwagon, play the same tune as everybody else, and conform. You want to avoid those Facebook pages that nobody likes, right? You want to be normal and drool over Beyonce's new dress, right? Pressures to conform can be overt or subtle, but they do change behavior. In person, the agents of the Controlling Class (Cabals) will shout "Euuu!" when you have crossed a line, promoting something they are sent to get you to dislike. When 300,000 read my Facebook page, it says, "Seen by 8." Occupy San Diego has the same numbers problem, and it is all a matter of social control. Social control is the process of telling you how to think to be normal.

Eating SHIT: Poop-Water to Drink in San Diego

Note that this involves everyone else's shit, not just yours, coming right out of your kitchen tap!

Instead of shoving all of our SHIT and PISS ("Toxic Sludge", now called "Bio-Mass") into the Pacific Sewer (ocean), basically untreated except by the "Sign of the Cross" Blessing Treatment, so that folks can swim and surf in it, now this deadly toxic cadmium-laced poop will be converted into toxic drinking water for use in San Diego. This is a good plan for fish, and will save the ocean from becoming even more of a toilet than it already is. Not a good plan for humans, however, and California is the only state that permits "Bio-Mass" (Toxic Sludge, Human Sewage SHIT) in lawn and garden fertilizers. That makes us the SHIT Capital of the World. Come smell our poopy gardens and sidewalks. We pay the highest utility rates in the world, only to be given shit and piss to drink for the money we pay? Our water is radioactive, and that cannot be easily removed, nor can cadmium. The idea really stinks.

Abortion News:

For thousands of years, native tribes had herbs to eliminate pregnancy. Researchers in France conducted a study to determine which culture had the best remedy, and what the active ingredients were. RU-486, Mifepristone, causes you to menstruate, and that is all, cleaning out your uterus, including that clump of ugly cells that could complicate your life by someday becoming a human. Of every thousand children given up for adoption, only one, average, gets adopted. The rest are

Foster Children for life, and get cared for by six-month contracts for child care, paid for by the taxpayers. Many have different Foster Parents every 6 months. 70% become homeless, and nearly all of them, questioned as adults, would rather have been an abortion. All children should be desired and intentional. Mifepristone is very safe and effective.
