No one WANTS to be homeless, and no one CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will.
Once homeless, people will need to use booze
or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. Self-Servatives (ConServatives, Con Artists that Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God. PAGE ONE

Eric Snowden, Super-Patriot, and our Man of the Year for 2014. Employed as a CIA Document Classifier, he for years tried to tell our own government of all the horrific things it was doing, thinking that it did not know. As an act of desperation, he went public. His documents show the war-crimes of President GW Bush, US and Israeli involvement in the planning of Sept 11, cellular telephone eavesdropping and use for marketing, and Military Terrorism, such as killing the children in foreign orphanages. He is a hero in the upcoming Civil War between the US People and their Government. He deserves to have his photo on US Currency as one of the greatest patriots to have ever lived.

City Council's Gangster Rule by the MOB is Unchanged

New Little Italy "piazza" a gangster's dream

Sheri Lightner is the new Chairman of the City Council, replacing Todd Gloria, which makes sense, because she has always been a Republican pretending to be a Democrat, just like President Obama does. I see very little difference between the two branches of our ONE political party, the Bar, which is the Mafia, of course, and many lawyers have discussed that with me privately. So, was Bob Filner really the answer to be free from our present Mafia gangsters who run City Hall? Not really. He turns out to be just as corrupt, just in a different "Sanction" (Mafia Agency) than the one locally. He spent most of his life working in the National Whorehouse, Congress. San Diego: Sunshine and nice weather in Mafia Heaven, ranked one of the best cities to visit, and one of the worst to live in or retire in. Why? High prices, because the MOB takes a lot of the money.

Papa Gambino is getting money to build the new Little Italy Piazza from funds paid as taxes to help the poor and homeless, too. Much better to go for a Little Italy Homeless Center. I can see several other good locations, too, including the old State of California Garage, at 345 W. Ash St.; the La Pensione Hotel, at 606 W. Date; the old San Diego Reader building at 1703 India St. (including the old derelict hotel, not operating, just north of it); and how about 834 W. Grape St.? All would make a great Homeless Administration Center. Like I say in our last edition, Dec. 20, 2014, this is all a New Low for America's Most Corrupt City.

Meetings: New Toilet Now a Reality!

The Girls Think Tank (GTT) met Thursday, January 8, a week later than usual due to the holidays, with 15 present, including 3 Directors, 4 Homeless, and 2 News Media. One new member present. • They will be conducting a cleanup of the East Village on Saturday (today). • After over 4 years of effort, the homeless finally have one new toilet, a Portland Loo at Park (12th) and Market, on the northwest corner. Thanks to the City, Mayor's Committee on Toilets, and GTT for this important improvement. • Ideas are being solicited for an Op-Ed editorial on toilets in the Union-Tribune. Even the Downtown Albertson's Groceries recently removed its toilet. ♦♦♦♦ The Metropolitan Association of Providers of Social Services, MAPSS, does not meet until Wed., Jan. 28, First Lutheran Church, 3rd and Ash, downtown, 10 AM.

Shopping Mall in France now has fences around its benches, to keep the homeless from using them! They are required by law to have the benches, but PAGE TWO did not like who was using them.

So the benches are there, with chain-link fences around them. And you thought things like this only happened in America!

Snopes.Com says our article about the micro-chipping of homeless is a hoax. They do not challenge the forced Hitler-camps, however, the main thrust of the article. It took much research, but the micro-chipping of homeless is NOT a hoax nor a scam. My contacts in the DHS (Dept. of Homeland Security) say this has been going on for years, but kept secret using the news media, including Snopes.Com! They are part of the news media propaganda machine. The article quoted involved homeless being arrested for the "crime of homelessness", before that was ruled unlawful, and micro-chipped because of any arrest. Micro-chipping homeless is an extreme invasion of privacy, because the chips are used to locate the homeless, so that they can be harassed, because anywhere they are it is unlawful to be. Homeless need to stay hidden. Those affected say they are also being targeted for injection or forced ingestion of abusive psychiatric drugs. The Soviet Union did many things like this, late in its tenure. Hitler also used a lot of Gestapo Police, volunteers like our RSVP patrols today. Obviously society admires Hitler a lot, because he is copied so much by our current governments. Homeless are Prisoners of War, and it is a War on Poverty, not a War on Terrorism, with Poverty winning. The War on Poverty is real, and may require terrorism to fight or win it, but the War on Terrorism is mostly Media Hype, designed to have us give up our internet, banking, telephone, privacy, and other freedoms, to curtail "Bad Guys". By the way, I tried to publish about a dozen of the 100-or-so links that prove the micro-chipping, but any time I post a link it gets shut down by our Fascist government. Can you say, "Soviet Union"?

Comments Received:

Many commented privately on my article (about me, not by me) in the Downtown News - San Diego, ("Homeless For the Holidays", by Will Bowen) but very few public comments. One said, "Touche!", another said, "Right On!". One other comment was, "It's about time!" I am monitoring public comments, and responding as warranted, and also making avenues available for private comments, too, which do not reveal who you are, and cannot be read by the author nor editor of that article. I can be contacted at nz9f@hotmail.com. John Kitchin, Publisher, San Diego Homeless News. I am NOT affiliated with the Downtown News nor any of its employees nor associations. I am really pleased (and amazed) that I got to talk about both the Religious Secrets (blood and semen in food to control people) and the Military Secrets (life on other planets more intelligent than us). Most news media will touch neither.

Other News:

The Downtown Library has a support group meeting for the Mentally III, every 2nd and 4th Wednesday, 2 to 3:30 PM. Cynthia, 619-688-0507. Room 563 on the fifth floor. Sponsored by NAMI, the National Alliance on Mental Illness. You should also read what we homeless have to say about all these things, at www.NZ9F.com/MH, Mental Health Page. Be sure to read "Strike 3".

Hints and Kinks:

Libraries and Computers

Homeless, poor people, visitors, and anyone else without a computer of their own use the free computers in libraries. San Diego has several different library systems, and each has free computers for everyone to use. It may require a library card, but you can get one even if you are visiting from New York, so that does not present a problem. It is somewhat a problem that registration, reservation, access, printing, and so on is different at each and every library, but there are also librarians to explain all that to you.

San Diego City has a collection of many (36) libraries, some even accessible by Trolley. San Diego County has a collection of 33 PAGE FOUR libraries, too, in the smaller cities and unincorporated areas such as Spring Valley, Pine Valley, Imperial Beach, La Mesa, and even El Cajon. National City and Chula Vista each have their own library system, too.

The County Library information is at http://www.sdcl.org/locations_ALL-BRANCHES.html, and you can click on maps and such, with addresses and hours (and cities) listed. The City of San Diego System information is at <http://www.sandiego.gov/public-library/locations/>, with a general map shown, the hours of locations at left, and you can click on any of the libraries for a close-up map. By trolley, City's San Ysidro, Mission Valley, and Central libraries are the easiest to access, as well as County's La Mesa branch.

Psychology 807, for those with a Doctorate Degree

These are in ascending order, from the basics imparted upon all of us, thru the tougher and tougher to control. Course Outline:

A.) BASICS ---1.) Propaganda - Beliefs 2.) Peer Pressure - Me-too-ism (Bandwagon) 3.) Spirituality - Hypnosis - Gnosis (see chart Section 3)

◆◆ We are currently up to this point in the course. ◆◆

B.) SPECIFICS ---4.) Tiny Rewards - Gold star in a book 5.) Reasoning - Most reasonable behavior makes sense 6.) Barter - Real Rewards - You do this and you get...

Below are punishment and DO NOT work

C.) PROBLEMS WITH PAST BEHAVIOR ---7.) Intimidation - Threats - Insults 8.) Ostracism - Banishment - Punishment - Harassment

D.) EXTREME OR EXCESSIVE BEHAVIOR PROBLEMS ---9.) Physical Harm - Imprisonment - Criminal Charges - Beatings - Torture - Harm to Family 10.) Death (indicates a failure to control)

Currently, we have covered Section A completely, and are beginning

Section B, No. 4, Tiny Rewards

Since punishment does NOT work to change behavior, unless administered immediately (less than one second) of the behavior being punished, that punishment nearly killing the organism, we need to deal with other things instead if we want behavior to change. Tiny rewards, such as a hug, smile, eye contact, tiny love transmission, handshake, soft tone of voice, or even a big gold star in a scrapbook all work to change behavior. They also cost very little or nothing. We could do way more to keep people out of prison by giving them a whole dollar for being good than we could by all the threats in the world.

Compliments in front of others or the class or group are a peer pressure reward, for example. Point out those things done right. Recognition in the news media helps, too. Plaques, trophies, certificates, photos of events, even a t-shirt as a "valuable individual" are all useful at changing behavior. Reward behavior that you want repeated. Reward thinking and good ideas. Reward being concerned. Ignore the bad, because calling attention to something is a reward!

Hugs can be done subliminally and at a slight distance. It is not necessary to touch the person being hugged. Project with your hand, eyes, and Third Eye (pineal gland) and open your heart. Charismata (love) is the most common reward. Also give out trinkets, old books, snacks, and even indulgences. Best student gets to chew gum in class, that sort of thing. It all sounds childish but it has huge impacts on behavior, and works better than larger rewards, and much better than ANY form of punishment!

THE HORRIFYING DETAILS INSIDE THE LATEST DEAL REACHED BY CONGRESS:

1. Wall Street can now gamble with taxpayer-backed savings in a bill written mostly by them.
2. Congress blocks marijuana legalization in DC
3. Allows corporations to cut the pensions of ten million workers
4. Cuts $300 million from housing assistance to the homeless
5. Cuts $300 million from grants to low-income students and gives it to loan collectors.

HUMOR

Sheep and Goats...and Cats, Gray Whales, and ET Grays, too. I answered the call: Wrong number. Somebody thought he was God, and wanted me to give him money. I said that if he really WAS God, he'd know I didn't have any.

Q: What is your favorite topic to preach on? A: Eternal Divine Chastity. Holy Women are the best in bed, so you should try to get some Divine Chastity at least 2 or 3 times a month.

Q: What is the mission of Religion today? A: Same as always, making billions of dollars confusing poor suckers into buying real estate, PAGE FIVE making new babies, spending lots of money they don't have, and working hard at bad-paying jobs to make rich folks richer.

Q: Where do we go when we die? A: That's easy. First, the Coroner's Office, then the Morgue, the Undertaker, the Funeral Parlor, and finally the Cemetery. Where did you think we go, Oz?

Q: Okay, where do our souls go? A: Huh? You must have me confused with one of those TV Soap Operas or something like that. You talk like one of those Dorks I give out Holy Communion to. Get serious! Soul has to do with James Brown, maybe even Soul Train, but if you believe any of that idiotic nonsense about living forever, or after you die, you are a nut-case!

Q: What about God? A: God who? If you talk to God, and he talks to you, you need to tell a shrink that you are hearing voices. Haldol helps. Good luck, nut-case!

Q: What is the most interesting place you ever found God? A: I was helping sedate people at the State Mental Hospital when a man who identified himself as God broke free from his chains and called me a heathen. I told him I was proud to be a heathen, and he tried to hit me. We got him sedated.

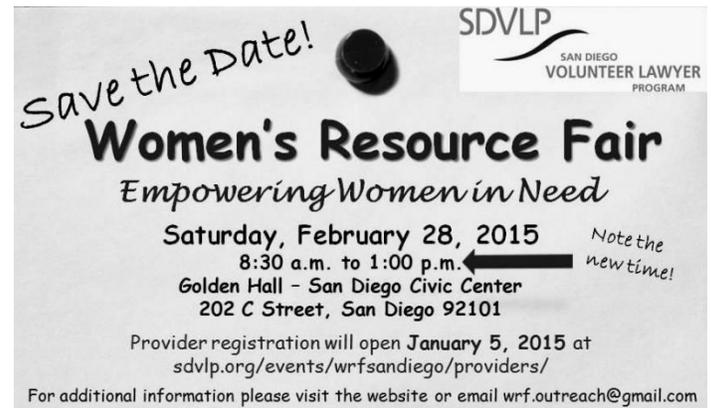

I found Jesus, too, one day in the line for food at Father Joe's.

Q: Was he preaching? A: No, he was waiting in line for lunch, like everybody else. I learned that Jesus' last name is Gonzalez, and he operates a muffler shop in Tijuana, Jesus' Mufflers and Pipes. Really nice fellow. I'm glad that I found Jesus, because now I know where to go to get a good deal on a catalytic converter.

Q: What about the real Jesus, the Almighty Son of God? A: There you go with that lunatic nonsense again. The cartoon character Jesus, the one in the comic book called the bible, was voted the most popular fictional hero in history, more popular than Batman and Superman combined. I am a big fan of Jesus, and he makes the bible a best-selling comic book, but given the elevated status of folk PAGE SIX heroes, one does not actually believe in them. Just like Saint Nicholas, who was real, became Santa Claus, with a sleigh and elves and reindeer and the North Pole, the real Jesus of Nazareth became the fictional hero Jesus Christ. After all, that is how the comic book biz works.

Snide Comments: I was ready for retirement, but retirement wasn't ready for me. • If you believe in God, you are WAY too stupid to listen to, but if you are trying to learn and become smart, welcome. --Dr. John Kitchin, NZ9F. • How old should children be when they learn that there is no Santa Claus? How old should they be when they learn there is no God nor Jesus, either? • Beliefs are for people too stupid to know the truth. • People ask if aliens actually run this planet. Obviously not, or things would work out a lot better. •

Difficult to get a copy of "Enlace", the free Spanish edition of the Union-Tribune, because it is perfect to take a crap into when you have no toilet, and many Mexicans from Tijuana who work in San Diego don't have one at home, nor do homeless people. All copies get grabbed really fast. I call it "Perfect Shitwrap". (Mi cielo realmente ama a su periódico.) (My ass really likes your newspaper.) • Californians like to take a "Golden Shower" in all that piss and shit we flush down our toilets into the Pacific Sewer Ocean, essentially untreated.
