No one WANTS to be homeless, and no one CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will.

Once homeless, people will need to use booze
or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight,
too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. SelfServatives (Conservatives) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

The homeless are retired doctors and lawyers who invested in Enron and Bernie Madoff, or listened to San Diego KOGO-Radio's investment show advice, and now live on the sidewalk.

It is our own fault that we believed in government securities regulation. We refuse to become minimum-wage greeters at Wal-Mart as the job is too mindless. We are in many think-tanks, but they pay nothing. Society does not pay for ideas, so those with good ones eventually starve or commit suicide.
This has allowed society to slowly crawl backwards
for thousands of years. The use of nuclear weapons to destroy what is left of this putrid and wretched
mess is probably in order. 50 are suffering, worldwide, for every one person doing well. If my mission is to end a maximum amount of suffering, what should I do? The truth is painful, but needs to be known by we who control society. We have the ability to correct the harm that humans caused. Do the right thing. Launch the nukes. Too many would miss loved ones? No, no one would be there to miss anybody. Our Science and Technology would hurt? No, we are considered by the 1.8 million cultures in our 350 billion universes to be just slightly more intelligent than frogs. Humans have not, nor shall ever, contribute anything to any other society. Welcome to reality. We are SO ego-centric.

Mormon Investment Scam Busted in San Diego

San Diego: Mormon KOGO Radio's "Total Wealth Management" radio show by Investment Broker Jacob Cooper was caught by the FBI taking kickback money from companies it reported on and sold stock in. Many "investors" lost money in the scam, and some lost everything. Mike Aguirre's law firm is involved in trying to get people some money back. Aguirre ran for Mayor of San Diego on a "No More Corruption" platform. No word on whether the FCC intends to revoke the broadcast license of KOGO, for using a radio station to commit a major felony. "Total Wealth Mismanagement" by Don Bauder, San Diego Reader.

Investment Scams cause people to become poor and homeless. All stocks, bonds, real estate, commodities, precious jewelry, precious metals, companies, causes, and products should be considered very poor investments at this time. Invest in yourself.

Occupy 3rd Anniversary, Now 30 Million Strong!

Israel tried to block or shut down all Occupy websites, and Occupy countered with a cyber attack. That is what stopped the bombing of Gaza. No one was hurt. Unable to post this on most US websites. There was no ceasefire declared, the lie told in the US news media, but rather an inability of the Israeli Military to communicate with its aircraft and that stopped the bombing. Israel still has tens of thousands of foreigners that it will not permit to ever leave its country.

Occupy Abolishes Almost $4M in Student Loan Debt

What A Birthday Party! As the result of an unprecedented "search and destroy" campaign by Occupy's Strike Debt Working Group and their Rolling Jubilee (RJ) team, 2,761 individuals have been unburdened of their student debt to the tune of $3,856,866.11. This was announced in a one-page press release this morning, timed to coincide with Occupy's celebration of its third birthday. The campaign will also be coordinated with public declarations by students and debt collectivists who have aligned themselves with this cause on the west coast.

Social Security, SSI, SSDI, and other hearings are now sometimes conducted by television, which has resulted in less-fair treatment in the eyes of those affected. You can still get an in-person hearing if you request one.

San Diego is now studying Desalinification for its drinking water, which cost the City of Key West, Florida dearly, their huge plant only lasting several years before becoming not repairable. Sound a lot like San Onofre? The process puts billions of particles in the drinking water from the ocean that have not been identified by science at all. Even fluoride makes people deaf, but they also become robots, more interested in Beyonce's new dress than in Social and Civil Rights.

- 1.) Provide a publication that speaks for the homeless;
- 2.) Present material censored out of or lied about in the conventional media.
- 3.) Present other perspectives, such as Islamic, Buddhist, Ancient Pagan.
- 4.) Cause folks to THINK instead of hibernate.
- 5.) Benefit society, rather than just benefiting the wealthy.

I appreciate this opportunity to provide the public with the truth!

Homeless Action Agenda:

Our Pressing Problems

We have 2 sorts of problems in San Diego that are interrelated. Civil Rights and Resources. Civil Rights: We have a right to 10% or 20% of all buildings created with Redevelopment Money, yet all we got is Slush Fund money to pay for inferior "Separate But Equal" Jim Crow ghetto housing in high-crime areas miles away. We have a right to a fair definition of "Affordable Housing" that accounts for our Living Expenses (other than rent) being more important than rent itself, and Percentage of Income being a useless measure if your income is insufficient to afford Living Expenses to begin with. And, we have a right not to be forced to change neighborhoods when our "Blighted" housing is razed.

Toilets are a Resource, but need to be treated as a Civil Right, because of 6 years of lies and promises by the City. We call for Litigation on Toilets as a Civil Right, and prohibit ANY Out-of-Court Settlement. San Diego needs to have a binding Court Order on any toilets negotiations. PAGE FOUR

And, regarding Resources Needed, we need Storage and Shelters. Current storage facilities for the possessions of the homeless are not adequate as to the number of locations available, the hours of existing locations, the funding, nor the number of storage bins available. A back-up of junk is accumulating everywhere, and that is bad for both housed and homeless San Diegans. Regarding Shelters, the need exists at this time for at least 3 all-year shelters, until such time as the City can construct permanent brick-and-mortar ones. Any Convention Center expansion, new Stadium, or even remodeling Horton Plaza Downtown Shopping Mall should require that same be used for Homeless Housing on any days and times it is not in other use. This would be BY DESIGN.

We don't have the money to help our homeless veterans, because we are too broke, spending it on libraries, stadiums, convention centers, golf courses, water parks, fountains, and shopping malls. Obviously a SICK list of priorities, so it may be time to flush all the Democrats and Republicans out of office.

Nonprofits: The Triple Scam!

Donors, Volunteers, Control

Governments and the News Media use Nonprofits to do those things which must be done (such as caring for the orphaned children of police officers) and to deal with poverty, controlling the poor, dealing with handicaps, and even maintaining Social Rank and Social Class. Wealthy people are given tax exemptions to establish Nonprofit Corporations, where all of the money goes to them and their employees, and not to the corporation itself. This gets things done that the government needs to do, only costing it a little bit of tax money. And, other wealthy folks may just donate money to an existing Nonprofit, rather than starting their own.

Either way, the rich Godfather gets to employ his friends and relatives as high-paid professionals, and even deduct it from his taxes. And, he gets to establish the Social Rank or Societal Rank of those hired, and assign all of them Spirituality Privileges (which means their blood is collected and distributed to food manufacturers, each affiliated with one or more Cabals). This allows the wealthy to have a great deal of control over society, which is what they want.

The Volunteers want to make a difference, so the Nonprofit suckers them into donating time, promising that something effective will be done, which it is not. What is done is lots of Media Bull, making it look like huge amounts are being done, even though that is all smoke and mirrors. This uses up the time of the Volunteers to do something that they THINK is useful, but is really headed around in circles accomplishing nothing. It keeps the Volunteers from actually accomplishing some real political goal.

The Donors want to make a difference, too, and will sacrifice not being able to eat dinner in order to donate money that will really make no difference in the end, because 80% or more (in general) is wasted, the same as in a for-profit corporation. Most money is used to bribe the press into saying nice things, which in turn acts as advertising to reel in more suckers to donate. My experience has been that the more excellent press a Nonprofit gets, the worse it is, and the really good Nonprofits never buy a word in the news media with their donated money, so you never heard of them. The most expensive use of donated money is to buy a "Really Good Rating" from one of the agencies which rates the Nonprofits, paying the Jewish, Mormon, or Protestant Mafia to say nice things about your awful and wretched organization. If you never heard a word about a particular Nonprofit, consider that good news.

Nonprofits are all Publish Relations, News Media, Rich folks to sucker out of money and schmooze. It is not necessary to accomplish anything at all, just be credited with hundreds of things you didn't actually do. Sort of like a resume? In this resume, you can get confirmation in the News Media and from the Ratings Agencies that your group actually accomplished all of these wonderful things that you did not really do. Sort of like paying a corporation to say that you used to be its Vice President, or paying a college to say you have a degree that you do not have.

Instead of volunteering or donating, start your own Nonprofit, and use it to ethically make a difference. Then, rich people will REFUSE to donate money, unless you let them corrupt it. You can also give money DIRECTLY to the poor and homeless, to avoid them being cheated out of it by a Nonprofit Organization. You can get the word out that the most good, respected, and wonderful Nonprofits are actually really awful. You can demand that your Elected Officials audit the books of any Nonprofit that gets taxpayer money, and makes all their expenses public record. You can serve on the BOARD of a Nonprofit, to help un-corrupt it. DO NOT become a Volunteer: Be in charge of the volunteers and donor money.

Meetings:

The Girls Think Tank met Sept. 4, a meeting that I announced in the Sept. 1 Edition. I was not present, seeing no good reason to be there. They have been in Reorganization (or Disorganization) for about 5 or 6 months, and have NOT allowed think-tank solutions nor similar participation. They even asked for ideas regarding a better way to do their backpack distribution, but would not allow me to say how that problem was solved in Melbourne, Australia. GTT is an important resource, for its brainstorming meetings and its operation of the Homeless Storage Program started by Water Man David Ross. I have reported on GTT since 2010. As a Nonprofit, they are all caught up in Fundraising and Public Relations, including helping the City to brainwash the homeless into believing a lot of ridiculous untruths. Such is the nature of Nonprofits; at least GTT allows homeless to attend and speak (provided those homeless PAGE FIVE are not too intelligent). I credit them with speaking directly to the homeless about homeless issues. If they won't let me speak, well, I do have this newspaper to do so. I also need to credit GTT with coming up with the money for both the Homeless Storage and Backpack programs. They also hold Social Rank, which helps put the homeless problems in front of many. • The Melbourne, Australia, Occupy Free Store: In operation for years, the poor and homeless attend a Storage and Recycling Area, and there are paper sheets with the inventory of potentially-needed items. Order it on Wednesday, pick it up on Friday. If it is out of stock, it will not appear on the Inventory Sheet to begin with. Suggested items: postage stamps, small envelopes, large envelopes, paper pads, pens and pencils, AAA batteries, AA batteries, C batteries, D batteries, one dollar watches, can openers, bus tokens, umbrellas, radios, trash bags, sandwich bags, knives-forks-spoons, flashlights, plates, cups, socks, briefs, panties, shampoo, laundry and dish detergents, bottled water, insect repellent, sunscreen, rain tarp, hair scissors, shavers and shaving cream, deodorant, hair spray or gel, body powder, baking soda, combs, tampons, cloth sacks, hats, gloves, lighters, facial tissue, bar soap, perfume, wallet. • Toilets: The Milwaukee Solution. If you sell food or drink, you make money on those eating and drinking, and what they take in must also come out. This will not necessarily occur at your establishment. So, all who sell food and drink must also support the coming out of those substances after digestion, by providing toilets for all, whether a purchase was made or not. Providing free flush toilets for non-customers is a condition of your Food Dealer License. What goes in must come out. This necessary expense deals with the consumption of food and beverages, and may affect your costs, but also those of your competition as well. Toilets are as real a need as food. ♦♦♦♦ The MAPSS, Metropolitan Association of Providers of Social Services, met Wed. Sept 24, with 26 present (a good showing, 15% above average). • There were several presentations, one by San Diego County Emergency Services. They provide communications in an emergency, in over 100 languages. They have persons with cell phones in all the migrant worker camps. Their main emergency website is <http://www.sandiegocounty.gov/oes/> and they operate the emergency "Reverse 911" program that notifies people if their areas are to be evacuated. • Streetlinks was also discussed, Shelter Programs will be the topic Oct. 22 at First Lutheran Church. Looking for many to give a 5-minute presentation on Shelter Programs. • Interfaith Shelter Network begins its programs Oct. 6, and Alpha Project on Nov. 1. Alliance Regional Solutions also has shelters in North County. Hotel and Motel vouchers will be handled by Community Action Partnership, and the EFSP Board (Emergency Food and Shelter Program of the FEMA, Federal Emergency Management Agency) will also have vouchers. • Another presentation on Recovery Innovations, which conducts classes for help with Mental Health, Holistic Wellness, Medication For Wellness and Lifestyle, and Health Habits. • The Rapid Rehousing Plan gives you a Security Deposit and rent for up to 3 months. Interfaith Shelter Network or Dreams For Change. Jorge Orozco, 619-231-2828. Emergency overnight shelters, 6 PM to 7 AM only, for the situationally homeless, 6-8 week limit. • The YWCA will be conducting a Financial Literacy workshop for women from Oct. 2 thru Dec. 18, 6-8 PM, Downtown. Contact Nancy Vera (619) 239-0355 X226 or nvera@ywcсандiego.org.

Tourism: The Plan to Seduce Suckers into Moving Here

Charging 80% Too Much for Real Estate and Paying 40% Less for Work Means Having to Find Suckers

America's Finest City (To Visit) is a very poor place to live, because it is very expensive for everything, has the lowest salaries of any City comparable, rents are triple the price or more PAGE SIX of elsewhere, San Diegans pay the highest percentage of their income for housing of any of the 1,600 Counties in the United States, San Diego utilities are the highest in the nation, the shortage of available money causes almost all Small Businesses to fold, Big Business takes over and charges huge amounts more, and, of course, San Diegans tend to be selfish, mean, arrogant, and uncaring, much more than most cities, which certainly does not help when you have an agenda of respect, human dignity, and decency. There may be some of a hold-over from the military, which has the job of killing people and not being bothered by it. San Diego is now ranked among the Worst Places to Retire. Most who move here eventually regret that decision. In the worst cases, wealthy folks run out of money and end up on the sidewalk, due to thousands of unforeseen costs and expenses, and hundreds of investment scams. Homeless who move to San Diego leave as soon as possible, which can take a long time to be able to afford to do. Tourists who move here usually miscalculated that a Nice Place To Visit is almost always an AWFUL Place To Live, due to high prices and competing with tourists for resources. Imagine having San Diego's parking, toilets, high rent, low wages, and overcrowding problems the rest of your life! Imagine living in the most corrupt city in all of history, where what is represented as "True" rarely is at all, and the media conspire to make sure that nobody knows anything.
