No one WANTS to be homeless, and no one CHOOSES to be homeless. It happens when everything you do to prevent it fails to work. Making anything illegal that cannot be prevented makes no sense. Instead, make it illegal for circumstances to force people to become homeless against their will.

Once homeless, people will need to use booze or dope, just to stay sane, and many lose that fight, too, becoming mentally ill and often killing themselves. This ends the problems that society forced upon them. SelfServatives (Conservatives, Con Artists who Serve themselves) cause funerals, but they don't mind, because they don't believe in God.

Not all the cute men are either married or gay: Some are broke, crazy, or out on parole. • If you wanna see heaven, you need to see your Travel Agent. • Why do we force political candidates to pimp themselves at election time, and market them like laundry detergents? • The Fifteen-Minute Retirement Plan allows you to retire for 15 minutes, and then you run out of money. •

Announcements & General News:

Streetlinks, a program of Metropolitan Area Providers of Social Services (MAPSS), will be holding a workshop/in-service-training on Emergency Shelter Options and resources for area case managers on Wednesday, October 22 from 9:00 – 12:00 p.m. at First Lutheran Church, 1420 Third Avenue in downtown San Diego. The focus will be information and training for on line case management and social service providers. See PDF at Water News: The El Cajon County Library now has a special port for the poor and homeless to fill their plastic water bottles with filtered and refrigerated water. Water has been proven to make people less angry and less violent, and El Cajon is statistically the community with the largest percent of people currently living below the Federal Poverty minimum in San Diego County. (El Cajon Post Office is a wealthy area, but the wealthy homes are outside of El Cajon City.) Thanks to San Diego County for this improvement, because water is far less expensive than more police and violence, but unfortunately in short supply. The poor and homeless, of course, are the most likely folks to become angry and/or violent, due to everyday life and society kicking them pretty hard.

Toilet News: Promised 4 years ago, the Portland Loos are slated to go in by January in Downtown San Diego. The problem, of course, is that we were originally promised 8 new toilets to go with or replace some of the 11 that we had in 2009-2010, but in that time lost 9 toilets plus the promised 8 new ones dwindled to 2. We had 11, were promised 8, now we have 2 and are promised 2 more. I covered the Toilets Issue exhaustively in the May 2014 issue of the San Diego Homeless News, and have it here on PDF: http://www.nz9f.com/yahoo_site_admin/assets/docs/SD

Libraries: The City has expanded Library hours, with the Branch Libraries now open an extra half-hour on their closing time, and an additional hour on their Tues. and Wed. morning opening time. The Downtown Central Library is also open additional hours. Our thanks to the City, as this is a huge plus. As you know, the intellectual and intelligent homeless use libraries a lot, to publish books, e-mail screenplays and sheet music to agents, apply for jobs as a COO, and, of course, there is always water and toilets at a library. The new hours for the Downtown (Jacobs) Central Library at Petco Park are: 10-7, Mon., Tue., Wed., and Thur., plus Noon to 6 PM on Fri., Sat., and Sun. I envision a library with a CRV recycling yard, hot showers, and a dining area with microwaves for cooking your own food, all open 24 hours, someday.

Free Cell Phones: While not a scam, many lies are being told by recruiters who sign folks up. Plan on it taking 6 months to a year, average, to get your phone, the plan not being as specified, and the phone not being as specified, either. Several of these providers have their web sites blocked, re-routed, or not taking input, and/or their "800" phone numbers don't work.

New Web Pages: The updated list of services performed by Father Joe's Villages (St. Vincent De Paul) is now available at www.NZ9F.com/FatherJoe (not case-sensitive), and can also be had on PDF. http://nz9f.com/yahoo_site_admin/assets/docs/FatherJoe.286141738.pdf. This is too new for "211" to have it yet. • New page on Neil Good Center at www.NZ9F.com/NeilGood. • Oct. Street Edition (Homeless City News) is now out. http://nz9f.com/yahoo_site_admin/assets/docs/StreetOCT2014.285114541.pdf

EDITORIAL

Bag Ban Hurts Poor, Homeless

The rich folks who run grocery chains and make our laws do not need disposable plastic bags, and many do not even recycle them. We poor people get all of our food pantry food in them, and those pantries continuously ask us for more bags to re-use. We also use them to wrap our trash, keep food fresh, and store leftovers, as well as making plastic rope from them, using them as temporary purses, and we place our socks and underwear in them when dirty, to take to the laundromat. Their most important use is for our feces. As many as one-quarter of all people in the area do not have regular toilet access, and use old newspapers wrapped in plastic bags of this kind to dispose of our human poop. Many live in cars, under bridges, in parks, in parking lots, on the streets, in canyons, in forests, on beaches, or on rooftops. Newspapers are laid down on a chair or bench, feces is deposited on same, it is rolled up, and placed into these FREE plastic bags. Welcome to Reality.

• What is our biggest problem? Depends upon how you rank them. Long term, Civil Rights and Spirituality Abuses. Biggest inconvenience? Toilets, laundry, all-year shelters, showers, drinking water, 4 out of 5 water-related! Most pressing current need? Increased storage space, hours open, and number of locations. Biggest political need from the City: Any new stadium, downtown shopping mall, convention expansion, or other downtown major project must include use as a homeless shelter during those days and/or hours that it is not in other operation. By Design.

Meetings:

The Girls Think Tank met Oct. 2, with 15 present, which is about the average number these days. 4 new people, one of which was a homeless, the other three being an engineer, a retired downtown resident, and a small business professional. A total of 5 of the 15 were homeless, about an equal number of males and females. • The Portland Loos are on schedule and should be installed by January 2015. • The Tenderloin of San Francisco, which is their homeless area (much like Skid Row in Los Angeles, or The Bottoms in San Diego) now has a program called Lava Me, featuring portable toilets with attendants. Truck-based. • The main topic today is a secret. • The Mayor's Committee on Toilets and the Regional Task Force on the Homeless still do not have any members who are homeless, which is perhaps why they do not understand a problem that they are trying to solve. Imagine an all-White NAACP, trying to solve the problems of Black people. How can you pretend these committees understand the homeless situation, without any representation of the homeless ourselves? You are trying to solve a problem that you do not understand AT ALL. •

One underlying new problem arose, in that a new Director used the word "Homeless" incorrectly, indicating a lack of knowledge on the issue. He seems pretty bright, so that will probably not be a continuous problem, plus he is an expert at drawing media attention and donors, both things the group could use. The downside is that he works with and operates Faith-Based fundamentalist ministries, and one of the main advantages of thinking with the GTT has been that they take a non-religious (atheist) perspective, which eliminates Faith-Based Deception ("Jesus-Bullshit"). Jesus-Bullshit, Bible-Lies, and all the rest of that idiotic nonsense that stupid people are fed about "Belief" in "God" does huge more harm than good. (Also see "It's A Duck", below.) Sorry, but we are neither sheep nor apes, and only lower animals have "Beliefs". Just another step in a long 6-year process wherein the usefulness of the group keeps becoming challenged by continuous proposed changes away from solving the homeless problem to instead putting another bandage on it. We are already up to our butt in bandages and do NOT need any more of them. Will this cause rhetoric to increase and action to decrease? Or was GTT much less useful than I thought, all along? This was to be PAGE THREE my proposed forum to discuss how to handle rampant Spirituality Abuse, causing mental illness and substance abuse among the homeless. Nonprofits add way too much human blood and semen to the food given to the poor, attempting hypnotic control from that, and the immersion in ridiculous ideas about "God", "Jesus", "Satan" and other nonsense. This does way more harm than good, and helps to perpetuate poverty and homelessness. It also makes a lot more work for the Nonprofits, too.

Spirituality Abuse, and the mental illness and substance abuse it causes is probably our most serious problem right now, and any real progress must deal with it. The abusive Cabals want to deny this problem even exists. Spirituality Abuse causes homelessness, plus perpetuates it thru causing mental illness, alcoholism, and drug addiction. Another bandage and some more cookies? Careful, the cookies contain our dried semen, so that you will believe us when we lie to you. More Cabals and less truth is not any sort of a positive change. Beam Me Up, Scotty, there's no intelligent life on this planet. •

It's A Duck!

It takes a huge amount of time, patience, money, and effort, to separate the "Good" churches and nonprofits from the "Evil" ones. This is because we are dealing with the Cabals, and every church, for example has at least 3 different "Castes" or "Cliques", varying in rank, to deal with. And, the Cabals are entirely secret organizations, because they deal with the Religious Secrets. Nowadays, all I do is look for indicators. I do not have time to send friends to join a church, spend 10 or 12 years getting to know its leaders, have them invited to the inner circle of the organizations, and then look around. What certain types of churches have always hidden, in the past, is sex clubs, child sex, child prostitution rings, mistreatment of spirituality, complete non-belief in God, wife swapping, laughing about poverty, and, of course, trips to Las Vegas with donated PAGE FOUR money to spend it on booze, dope, hookers, and gambling. I am too busy to investigate all this stuff nowadays.

In the past, the Baptist churches have fared the worst, and the Big Box churches not much better. I never found one of either of those that was legitimate. Some of the Red Flags have been super-powerful sermons, faith-based ministries, demonization of some sexual preferences, belief in the bible without questioning it, restriction of women, sometimes even the teaching that there are "Evil Spirits" and other such nonsense. Much use of superstition, placebo, lies, and human Spirituality. All used a huge amount of "control dope", eucharistics, such as human blood, to "control" or "compel" the poor sheep that they were brainwashing. All had a large number of suicides, too, which goes right along with that.

I admire the work of the Rock Church, the El Cajon Transitional Living Center, the San Diego Rescue Mission, and even the Burrito Boys, but all raise a bunch of red flags. If it looks like a duck, and it walks like a duck, and it flies like a duck, and it quacks like a duck, what is it? An avocado? You just need to have FAITH. BELIEF will set you FREE...to be a complete lunatic nut-case. The ET guys say that "Beliefs" are only had by lower life forms, and that proves we humans are a mere animal. Asked what denotes intelligent life, he replied, "Ten million years of college. Intelligent Cultures have eliminated death, disease, and aging."

A side issue is that in the past, we discovered that the average member of a Big Box church is 25% likely to carry a loaded handgun to church.

Israeli Government Article Justifies Genocide and Holocaust!

Hitler wrote a similar article, 80 years ago!

The Times of Israel posted the case that in certain circumstances genocide may not only be permissible, but in fact a necessary component of government policy. The original article was taken down after the internet got hold of it and began spreading it feverishly. However you can still access the cached version of the page here. The title of the article "When Genocide is Permissible" by itself was bad enough, but this wasn't a question of poor word choice. It was the thesis. This is particularly evident in the closing paragraph:

"I will conclude with a question for all the humanitarians out there. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu clearly stated at the outset of this incursion that his objective is to restore a sustainable quiet for the citizens of Israel. We have already established that it is the responsibility of every government to ensure the safety and security of its people. If political leaders and military experts determine that the only way to achieve its goal of sustaining quiet is through genocide is it then permissible to achieve those responsible goals?"

Editor's Notes: First, it drew 8 million hits, most people objecting to it (including many Jews). So, it got changed some, then it got deleted and replaced with other things on-line, and hacking was done sending people to other, "fake" websites and articles. Huge amount of tampering. 1.) The Original, on PDF. 2.) The replacement of that, on-line <https://archive.today/RPf3M#selection-633.0-639.11> (Possibly blocked or re-routed in the USA.) 3.) The fake story made up to go with this www.archive.today/o/RPf3M/http://blogs.timesofisrael.com/author/yochanan-gordon/ (Also possibly blocked or re-routed in the USA.) Note that the entire e-domains on this one has been hacked to death by both sides.

Hundreds of Police Departments Distribute 'Internet Safety Software' That's Actually Dangerous Spyware

By Dave Maass. Police chiefs, sheriffs, and district attorneys have handed out hundreds of thousands of copies of the disc to families for free at schools, libraries, and community events, usually as a part of an "Internet Safety" outreach initiative. The packaging typically features the agency's official seal and the chief's portrait, with a signed message warning of the "dark and dangerous off-ramps" of the Internet. As official as it looks, ComputerCOP is actually just spyware, generally bought in bulk from a New York company that appears to do nothing but market this software to local government agencies.

CA Student Group Sues Google for Monitoring emails

...a group of students in California are suing Google, claiming that the company's monitoring of Gmail violates federal and state privacy laws. A Google rep told Education Week that the company scans and indexes emails from all Apps for Education users. The company uses the data for potential advertising, among other purposes. If successful, that could lead to a payment to millions of Gmail users. Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC) points out that even if Gmail users agree to Google's terms, that doesn't mean that non-subscribers who email with them do. Homeless Bill of Rights aims to protect life-sustaining activities

Rights to move freely, sit, sleep and have access to hygiene facilities cited in surveys of 1,300 homeless people

by Renee Lewis, Al Jazeera USA News Service

A coalition of over 125 social justice groups is working on a Homeless Bill of Rights to be introduced to state legislatures in an effort to end the criminalization of people who live on the streets. They argue that these laws unfairly target those perceived as undesirable, including the homeless, in an attempt to push them out of public spaces. The coalition has compiled over 1,300 interviews with the homeless and said it has identified six priority areas to be included in the Homeless Bill of Rights. Those six are the right to move freely and sleep in public spaces without discrimination, to sleep in a parked vehicle, to eat and exchange food in public, to obtain legal counsel, to access hygiene facilities 24/7 and to use the necessity defense in any criminal prosecution.

807 Psychology Course in Lay Seminary, Methods of Control.

Dr. John Kitchin, Milwaukee Free University On-Line.

Notice: This course is ONLY for those with a Doctorate Degree, or who are students earning one. It contains material that is SECRET from the General Public, but routinely discussed among ourselves. The public DOES NOT have permission to know most of this! If you are a Religious Minister with a DOD Security PAGE SIX Clearance, this should be no problem for you.

These are in ascending order, from the basics imparted upon all of us, thru the tougher and tougher to control.

A.) BASICS

- 1.) Propaganda - Beliefs
- 2.) Peer Pressure - Me-too-ism (Bandwagon)
- 3.) Spirituality - Hypnosis - Gnosis (see chart in Section 3)

B.) SPECIFICS

- 4.) Tiny Rewards - Gold star in a book
- 5.) Reasoning - Most reasonable behavior makes sense
- 6.) Barter - Real Rewards - You do this and you get...

Below are punishment and do NOT work

C.) PROBLEMS WITH PAST BEHAVIOR

- 7.) Intimidation - Threats - Insults
- 8.) Ostracism - Banishment - Punishment - Harassment

D.) EXTREME OR EXCESSIVE BEHAVIOR PROBLEMS

- 9.) Physical Harm - Imprisonment - Criminal Charges - Beatings - Torture - Harm to Family - Death

Section One: Propaganda and Beliefs

Beliefs are a combination of reality, hypnosis, and dreams or wishes. They are not true, but we make them true because we want them to be. All mammals have dreams and beliefs, PAGE SEVEN – END and you may have observed dreaming behavior when your dog or cat is asleep. Human dreams and beliefs are more complicated, but not really. We still dream about food, sex, pleasure, relaxation, same as a dog or a cat. Mammals, as you know, are very rare in the 350 billion universes, and we were specifically genetically designed to be useful mammals, making use of our tendency to have beliefs, and the ease with which we are hypnotized. Our genetic design (we are a GMO, a Genetically Modified Organism) involved 97% ape DNA, primarily chimpanzee and bonobo, gene-spliced with 3% G-d, the species which created us. Who they are, where they live, and all that is a US Government Top Secret. The species G-d is often pronounced "God". So, we were created by God, the species. There are at least several million of them. We evolved as chimps, plus have evolved some since we were created. If any of this is shocking and/or entirely new to you, how the HELL did you get a Doctorate degree?

Being so easy to hypnotize and control, and carrying the internal programming of beliefs has enabled our species to be very useful in all universes, primarily as police and soldiers, but also as repair personnel for spacecraft. Earth was set up as a breeding grounds and home colony in a universe that has almost no other life forms except bacteria. Our universe is only 14 billion years old, and has not had time to develop anything like intelligent life. An average universe is a billion times older, but we humans would have come into contact daily with hundreds of more-intelligent life forms. Not a good option. Humans often commit suicide when they learn that they are of a stupid species. To be continued.
